New Goods....

And goods that are new—a very great difference, of course, but we have both. Staples that are necessary, and the new that are desirable.

When the holidays and anniversaries come around you cannot and will not overlook your friends, and that's why we are ever ready with well chosen stocks of goods in our various lines.

You will be astonished at the difference from former prices, absolutely on a par with New York; and we want you to compare and satisfy yourself as to the truth of this before making your purchases.

A FIGHT ON THE FRONT. A fierce fight on the waterfront excited considerable interest for a few moments yesterday morning.

Merins had been specially assigned to duty on this particular wharf for the purpose of preventing Chinese from landing from the Port Stephens. Tong See Chong attempted to come ashore, and the officer immediately grabbed him and reminded the pig-tailed coolie that he had no right to set foot on the wharf.

Merins' club had not been idle by any means, and the head of the Boxer spoke eloquently to that effect. Fortunately, just about this time, the second mate of the Stephens and Captain Flint showed up, the fight was stopped and the Chinese taken to the police station.

FIRE STILL RAGES. The fire in the Government coal pile on the corner of Alakea and Allen streets, which was discovered on election day, is still raging, and it will probably be a few days yet before it is finally mastered.
