FIRST VIEW LAST NIGHT

Kilohana Art League
Exhibition Opens.

BEST SHOWING MADE YET

Painters and Their Friends View the
Canvases--Public Will Now
Have a Chance.

The first view of the fall exhibition of the Kilohana Art League was given last night to a certain number of invited friends of the artists and the painters themselves. The bad weather kept many away but the rooms were brilliant with pretty women and the pictures were critically inspected.

Without doubt the exhibition is the best yet. Eighty-one pictures are shown and not a few are good. The canvases are arranged more happily than last time—perhaps because they are fewer—and individual work appears to better advantage.

There are more large pictures than in the spring and the majority are framed in better taste than then. Harold Mott-Smith has the most striking array and Mr. Hitchcock also makes a brave showing, both in numbers and in merit. Helen Kelley has one or two pictures the equal of any there. Exception might be made perhaps of the head of an old lady, in cap and spectacles, which is the best canvas of all, though small and unpretentious. The artist's name has escaped the writer but in a further article more will be told of the canvas and the painter.

There are others who deserve mention but space in this issue forbids. Certainly Mott-Smith's "Sad News," a big picture which was hung in Paris, merits a more detailed relation. The exhibition will be open for several weeks to the public.

ASIATIC TRADE FOR THE PACIFIC COAST

Commissioner Bunker Returning
From Long Trip Through Russia.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—William M. Bunker, honorary commissioner of foreign commerce of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, arrived today on the Umbria with his wife. He had a 35,000 mile trip through Siberia and Europe without the slightest accident, and never missed a connection. Mrs. Bunker is the first lady of foreign birth who crossed the Russian empire from east to west.

Mr. Bunker said tonight: "In Europe I made a study of the conditions bearing upon the Russian Asiatic trade. My conclusions are entirely in favor of the United States, and especially the Pacific Coast. The Transsiberian Railway has given this country a large market for foodstuffs and other supplies, and this market will keep pace with the increasing colonization of Eastern Siberia. Although the railway has been running as far as Irkutsk for over two years, the countries of Europe, aside from Russia, have not benefited by the new transportation facilities.

"At the same time the Russian-Asiatic trade of the United States has steadily increased. Americans and American products are popular with the Russians and Siberians. Americans are almost invariably given the preference in trade affairs. As far as I can see the Pacific Coast is destined to be the biggest beneficiary of Siberian industrial development."

Mr. Bunker will remain a short time in this city and then start for San Francisco.

Sonoma on her Way.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—The steamer Sonoma, the second of the new Australian liners built for the Oceanic Steamship Company, sailed today from Philadelphia for San Francisco. The steamer is in command of Captain Hayward, who was formerly master of the Mariposa. The Sierra, the first of the company's new steamers, is expected here from Philadelphia on the 21st or 22d of this month. It was at first calculated that the Sierra would be here in time to make the next voyage to Australia, for which reason the Moana of the Union Steamship line was withdrawn from the route.

As a result of the miscalculation the Mariposa is to be sent to sea again in five days.

Wedding Bells Afloat.

Captain George Nystrom of the gasoline schooner Surprise and Mrs. Amelia Higgins were married last evening at 7 o'clock at the residence of the bride on Alakea street by the Rev. A. E. Cory. Mr. William Roe was the best man. The bride was unattended. A large number of the friends of the popular captain were present to see him safely launched upon the sea of matrimony. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. DeBolt, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner, Miss Cook, Miss Marshall, Dr. Poyser, Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Roe, Miss Amy Roe, Mrs. Marie Warren, Mrs. J. Poysecker, P. A. Long, Al Christian, Will Hapal, W. C. Sharratt, E. C. Bruhns, P. Phillips, C. A. Thompson.

A GREAT MEDICINE.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly for it." "This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere." "For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents."

Caution—Ask for "Kentucky Favorite" whisky. Take always the best when you drink. Spruance, Stanley & Co., San Francisco, proprietors.
