SOCIAL NEWS OF THE DAY.

Tuesday, April 2, promises to be an interesting day for the women of Central Union church.

At 11 o'clock the Woman's Society will hold its regular quarterly meeting in the church parlors.

Matters of business will be interspersed with several musical numbers. This will be followed by an "Exchange Basket Luncheon" to which every one is requested to bring a box of luncheon for one - this to be exchanged at the church for that brought by another. Tea and coffee will be served.

At 2 o'clock the regular monthly session of the Woman's board will convene.

All ladies of the church and congregation are cordially invited to attend both of these meetings and participate in the luncheon and social hour.

Dr. John L. Gross, owner of a large silver mine near Denver, Colorado, who is making a tour of the world, stopped here Thursday and visited with Dr. James Haynes of the Fifth Cavalry, Schofield Barracks.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Grace Robertson to Mr. Robert R. McEldowney was perhaps not so much of a surprise as a pleasure to their many friends. The bride to be who is one of the most popular girls in the younger set is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Robertson. She received a portion of her education at Punahou but the larger part of her school days were spent at Mills College. For several years Miss Robertson has been visiting friends in California spending very little time in Honolulu.

Mr. McEldowney lived for a time in Chicago where he attended the university of Illinois. Later he made his home with his parents Mr. and Mrs. William R. McEldowney at Burlingame, California. For the past two years he has been residing in Honolulu.

Although no definite date has been set for the wedding, the young couple will probably be married in June. They will make their home in Honolulu.

Society will be deprived for a time of the charming personality of Miss Alice Cooper whose severe illness necessitated an operation at the Queen's Hospital yesterday. Although Miss Cooper is gaining strength rapidly it will be some time before she will be able to take an active part in the social activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Brown and family and Mr. and Mrs. Wells Peterson will spend holy week at Wahiawa.

The monthly "At Home" of the faculty of Oahu College was at the residence of Prof. and Mrs. A. F. Griffiths last Monday night. The evening was an interesting one from the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey told of their experiences during a tour of Russia, illustrating the recital by means of the reflectoscope. A number of illustrations were thrown upon the screen conveying impressions entirely new to many of those who were present. The gatherings of this particular character at Punahou are very popular and are always well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bogot of Denver, Colorado, are visiting the Hawaiian Islands on their wedding tour. They are stopping at the Moana Hotel.

Unless all plans fail the injunction of the older Shriner to his younger brother to "hold on to the rope" will be carried out to the letter at the banquet to be given in the main dining room at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel tonight. Covers will be laid at the two large circular tables connected by a long straight one, and at the smaller tables near them. There will be a mound of burning sand on each of the circular tables and at each side of the long table will be paths of sand held in place by ropes of malle. At the plates will be candelabras with red shades, and from the large chandeliers will be suspended lights with hibiscus shades.

A miniature stage has been erected at the Hotel street end of the dining room, on which talent from local theatres will perform. There will be one hundred and twenty-five guests present.

Mrs. Franklin C. Davis of Modesto, California, announces the engagement of her daughter Inez Grace, to Mr. Gullford Harrison Whitney.

Miss Davis, who has been here but a short time, is the sister of Mrs. Thomas E. Wall. She will remain in Honolulu as the guest of her sister, for several weeks.

Mr. Whitney has charge of the insurance department of Theo. H. Davies & Co., Ltd., and is the son of Mr. G. M. Whitney, who established the firm of Whitney & Marsh.

Kalaiala, the beautiful Waikiki residence of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Castle, was the scene last night of one of the most brilliant functions given here in recent years. Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Castle being hosts to the large gathering of society people present to do honor to Miss Whittemore and Miss Robeson, house guests of the Castles for whom the ball was given.

It was a welcome departure from the quiet which reigns during the Lenten season and served to break a rather monotonous period which grows tiresome as time passes. Also it may be considered as the beginning of a season of social gaiety which will follow in the early spring.

Beautiful frescoes forming permanent decorations in the large ballroom obviated the necessity for "painting the lily" so the conventional palms and ferns were conspicuously absent except on the verandas which were used for dancing with a greater degree of comfort than could have been secured indoors.

Representatives of Honolulu's oldest and many of her newest waltzed and two-stepped to the strains of sweet music by the Kaali Orchestra until long after the witching hour at which time delicious refreshments were served. Ladies were charming
