

MOVING!

The World Don't Move So Do We.

True, we were fired from the corner to which we are now moving, but we have got back in favor and will soon occupy our handsome new building. New stock? Well, everybody well knows our former stock was pretty well disposed of. Everything entirely new, larger, better and greater variety of goods than ever before. Watch us build our displays in interior and in the windows and come and see us as soon as we open.

HAWAIIANS ABROAD

Governor Dole and Others Return Soon.

(Special to the Advertiser.)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—There are not many Hawaiians in San Francisco at this time. The hotels have only a few as guests and faces familiar in the Pacific Paradise do not greet one often. Most of the leading residents of the Territory who have arrived here within the past month have tarried only a day or two and then rushed on eastward. Not a few have gone to Washington. Governor Dole is expected to be here very soon en route to Honolulu, as also George Carter and Lorrin Thurston. W. O. Smith and F. M. Hatch staid but a few hours before they took train for the National capital.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Miss Florence Moore, who returned recently from Honolulu, was the guest of honor at a luncheon in Los Angeles last Friday. Those present were Miss Moore, Miss Eva Young, Miss Anna Roberts, Miss Lottie Harris, Miss Mammie Dalton, Miss Dorothy Robertson, Miss Helen Parker, Miss Agnes Littleboy, and Miss Emma Eyrard. The dining room was artistically decorated with Hawaiian curios brought by Miss Moore from Honolulu. Lilies were worn by all the guests and the dishes were calabashes placed on the table. There was no pot served, but alligator pears, taro and some other Hawaiian delicacies were enjoyed by the guests. A little talk of Hawaiian scenes was given by Miss Moore. Society misses the Terrins, who are now sojourning in Honolulu. Saly Sharp, the society editor of the Call, says "I never saw a girl sail away and leave such a dearth of happiness behind her as did Catherine Herrin. She left for Honolulu last week and people miss her terribly. Her friends are all talking about it. I heard one girl say to another: 'I am so glad you have come. I have been so lonely since Catherine left.' The other replied: 'Why, do you know, that's just why I looked in. Am so blue without her.'"

Miss Georgie Spieker will remain two months in Hawaii. She was hostess at a luncheon in honor of Miss Underhill Friday, at the Spieker home on Devilsdeno street.

Mrs. Charles W. Hathaway and Miss Hathaway who recently returned from Honolulu are at the Occidental.

Alfred R. Gurrey Jr., the civil engineer who has been with the Rapid Transit Company since the inception of that enterprise, is registered at the Occidental.

Town Talk says: Miss May Buchly of Berkeley was the guest of honor at a reception on April 3rd at Alinahau, near Honolulu, where Princess Kalulani resided until she passed away some years ago. The reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Rothwell. The magnificent old residence with its surrounding acres of coconut groves was gay with laughter and mirth. The two dining rooms and feathery palms, pillars and a grilled archway, were used for dancing. At the foot of each arch were potted palms, while in one corner, high upon the table, were stalks of white striped bamboo, cherry hibiscus, ferns and feathery palms. The hallways and verandas were similarly treated. Behind a curtain of palms and ferns a quintet of Hawaiians played and sang native melodies, to which the guests danced. The dance began at 9 o'clock and the first number was led by Prince and Princess Kawanakoa.

The Bulletin says: Bishop Nichols of California and his daughter, Miss Mary Nichols, were the motifs of a charming lawn party at Honolulu by Mrs. E. D. Tenney, a delightful luncheon was served under the trees, after which the Bishop gave a little talk on the porch of the handsome colonial mansion, which was decorated with the American and Hawaiian flags. Among the guests were the Prince and Princess Kawanakoa, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hatch, Bishop Willis, Mrs. George Herbert, Mrs. Ivers, Miss Scott, Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Mackintosh, Rev. Canon Kitcat.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Frederick Ward, the tragedian, and company, who leave today for Honolulu, have been playing for the last few days at Oakland.

On the Sonoma are Mrs. James J. Geary, Miss Annie Geary, Miss Mary J. Powers and Miss Alice Brady of Oakland, who will stay in Honolulu for a few weeks.

W. R. Vickery, the picture dealer, and wife, who returned a few days ago from Honolulu, sing the praises of the Islands to all they meet.

The Los Angeles Times says: Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, en route to the East from a visit of several months to their son in Honolulu, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Aldrich yesterday at No. 1924 Park Grove avenue. They bring word of a notable work which is being accomplished by Prof. Bryan, who is writing a book of scientific value on "The Birds of Hawaii." The eastern guests saw the collegiate life of Hawaii, and are deeply impressed with the excellence of the work being accomplished in the building up of American ideals.

H. Laws wants to be expert accountant for the San Francisco Board of Supervisors. It is said here he was formerly attorney general of the Hawaiian republic.

Walter Scott, a well known society man, leaves for Hawaii. He will be wedded about June 3.

The Call says: Bishop Nichols and his daughter, Miss Mary Nichols, are the recipients of numerous hospitalities in Honolulu.

Colonel McCandless and son are registered at the Occidental Hotel.

Attorney Robbins, who was the hero of the "push buttons" episode in Attorney General Dole's office over two years ago, will sail for Honolulu next week.

The Bulletin says: Mrs. Jane Stanford, Mrs. John D. Spreckels and Mrs. Sands Forman are at present in Honolulu and are guests at the Moana Hotel, Waikiki. The party will make a stay of several weeks. A great deal of attention is being paid them and their visit is being made in every way most delightful.

Arthur Meyer has come back from Honolulu, whether he went for T. H. & Bendel, grocers here.

Mr. Bivens, who was a broker in Honolulu until a few months ago, is now

In the real estate business at 1023 Market street, this city, the firm name being Rives, Hivens & Company.

Paul Egry is still feeding on husks on account of his devotion to Bacchus. Islanders visiting here will do well to see Egry before he sees them, as he is an adept at "touching," and makes the Occidental Hotel and the places frequented by Hawaiians his rendezvous. Gaston Boisse fell an easy victim to his wiles at Zinkand's a night or so ago. G. Boisse is the well known foreman of the Advertiser's pressroom, and is here on a visit. He is staying with his mother and sister and enjoying greatly the unaccustomed sights. He has not been here for six years. Boisse says that the leading feature of the city to him is the food. He is fast exhausting the novelty of the restaurants as he seeks a different one for each meal so as to get a different gastronomic sensation. Boisse was drinking in the music at Zankand's when his disengaged hand was firmly clasped by Egry and tears of joy shed by the gypsy on Boisse's coat.

"Alcha nul oe!" fairly shrieked the famous violinist. "Mine's wheesky. Why, bot zees ces like monnal from ze ole country, my dear Gaston!"

After Egry had told all his troubles, and Boisse had yielded up all he had not had time to secrete, Egry sighted another Honolulu, and also a prospective drink, which allowed Boisse to escape. Boisse was a guest at the wedding of Miss Clara Gertz of Honolulu, who was a fellow passenger on the Sonoma. Miss Gertz was married to Dr. William Dood of Butte, Montana, on Thursday at the Palace Hotel. The bridesmaid was Miss Mabel Bruns of Honolulu, who is visiting relatives here. Miss Gertz is a sister of Attorney Francis Brooks' wife. Dr. and Mrs. Dood left at once for Santa Cruz, and will tour the East before settling down.

TO ATTACK BREWERY

personal help in obtaining subscriptions:

Dear Friend:—The enclosed subscription books will explain the endeavor of the Anti-Saloon League is making an effort, through its lawyers, to close the Honolulu brewery, which is manufacturing and selling beer under a license which is, as we believe, illegally issued.

If we succeed in closing the brewery 25 Primo beer saloons will have to go out of business.

So great a boon is worth an heroic effort. If you are interested in our endeavor to check the evils of intemperance in these Islands we ask you to take these books, and, with such helpers as you may be able to secure, assist us to raise the one thousand dollars required, and the more than a thousand names we desire.

Please collect the money as you go, so far as this is possible, and forward the same as soon as convenient to:

REV. W. H. RICH, Anti-Saloon League, Honolulu.

At the request of the Committee on Law Enforcement I have written to Dr. Chapman of Los Angeles, requesting him to send us a copy of the Local Option law of California, and to Dr. Baker of Ohio for a copy of the law of that State, known as the Clark law. These are for the information of the Agitation Committee especially.

The subscription books with the accompanying letter will be sent to parties in Kona, Kohala, Hilo, Lahaina, Waialua, Wailuku, Paia, Hana, Kawai, by the first mail leaving the city.

Several cases have been before the Legal Protection Committee. In two cases there seemed to be no good reason for interference. In one case we took a little girl grievously wronged, to Queen's hospital, and have her now under our care.

It has been suggested that we keep a standing notice in the papers inviting those who know of cases of wrong, abuse, or illegal treatment, to report such cases to our Committee on Legal Protection.

An immense, a continuous, an urgent and most humane work in the rescue of the afflicted and ignorant, the wronged and oppressed, is opening to this committee. There is no end to the work and no limit to the good it can accomplish.

I have held in all seven meetings in the tent, two with the Salvation Army, two in the Murphy Club, one in the Boys' Brigade, a total of 20 meetings. I think opportunities for this part of my work will increase, and shall do all in my power to find further openings in all sorts of places and among all nationalities.

HERPICIDE NOT A FAKE.

Unsolicited Testimonials Tell of Its Superiority.

Alf. R. Kelley, residing at 2195 Devilsdeno St., San Francisco, Cal., writes the following:

"When I first purchased Herpicide, I thought, like the majority of hair preparations, it would prove a fake. I am happy to state that, on the contrary, it is all, and even more, than you claim for it. Quite a number of barbers throughout the section in which I travel have called attention to the new hair sprouting out on my scalp, and inquired of me what I have been using. I tell them 'Herpicide,' also give them your name and address."

BERNE, Switzerland, May 1.—The Gurnigel-Bad, a famous health resort near Thun, was destroyed by fire last night. The church alone escaped. The season had not begun and the establishments were unoccupied.

How Long Have You Worn Those Glasses?

Here is an important question for you. Many people continue the use of glasses long after they have ceased to benefit. It's easy and wise to have an accurate examination of your eyes once every two years or oftener, as it should be done.
