The Suit Goes On.

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 29.—In the case of Cranstoun, Muller and Johnstone, who allege illegal deportation from Hawaii, and who are suing the Canadian and Australian steamship line and indirectly the Hawaiian Government for forcibly carrying them from Honolulu to Vancouver, the three men refused to answer a question put to them by the lawyer for the defense.

The Chief Justice of British Columbia was appealed to and ruled that "the examination must take place two days after the arrival of the steamer Warrimoo and any relevant question must be answered within forty-eight hours afterward. If legally possible, however, the prosecution will be deaf, dumb and blind until the trial proper takes place.

Strong Expression of an Oakland Clergyman on the Saloon Question.

OAKLAND, May 26.—The Rev. M. C. Wilcox, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventists' Church, delivered an address to a large audience to-night against the movement to close saloons in Oakland from Saturday night to Monday morning. Rev. Mr. Wilcox's position was that those who are back of the Sunday closing movement are urging the passage of the ordinance on religious grounds. His contention was that while the city government has the right to legislate for the maintenance of good order, it has no right to recognize religious beliefs.

"The whole movement," said Rev. Wilcox, "is an effort of orthodox clergymen and church people of Oakland to have the City Council pass an ordinance to compel people to respect the Christian Sabbath. Such an enactment would be unconstitutional and dangerous. I was present at a meeting of the City Council when that body was addressed by Rev. William Rader and others, urging the passage of the ordinance. They urged the members of the council to vote according to their conscience and show that the city of Oakland had respect for the Sabbath. Rev. Mr. Rader was willing to make a concession as to the hour of closing Saturday night, but insisted that on the day when church bells ring the saloons should close their doors. Mr. Rader is the president of the Council for the Suppression of the Saloon. In a recent sermon he said that it is not enough for the workingmen to rest on Sundays. They should rest and worship.

"The motto of the W. C. T. U., said he, 'is that the kingdom of Christ must be ushered into American institutions through the gateway of politics. The recognition of the Sabbath by municipality or State would be the beginning of the reuniting of church and civic government. Religion is good, but it should not be in the hands of our city government. It was the State's interpretation of the Bible that put to death the martyrs of Spain and Italy. It was the State's interpretation of the word of God that caused the bitter persecutions in England under the Commonwealth."
