THE MEMORIAL.

Adopted by the Citizen's Mass Meeting and Forwarded to Washington

In answer to the request of a very large number of citizens THE INDEPENDENT now publishes a translation of the Memorial adopted at the mass meeting of Hawaiian Citizens and others held on the 8th instant. Its publication has been delayed until after its mailing to Washington and its delivery to the representatives in Honolulu of the United States of America, Great Britain, France, Portugal, Japan and Germany.

Memorial.

(Translation.)

TO THE PRESIDENT, THE CONGRESS AND THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

This Memorial respectfully represents as follows:

1—That your memorialists are residents of the Hawaiian Islands; that the majority of them are aboriginal Hawaiians; and that all of them possess the qualifications provided for electors of representatives in the Hawaiian Legislature by the Constitution and laws prevailing in Hawaiian Islands at the date of the overthrow of the Hawaiian Constitutional Government January 17, 1893.

2—That the supporters of the Hawaiian Constitution of 1887 have been, thence to the present time, in the year 1897, held in subjection by the armed forces of the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands, and of its successor, the Republic of Hawaii; and have never yielded, and do not acknowledge a spontaneous or willing allegiance or support to said Provisional Government, or to said Republic of Hawaii.

3—That the Government of the Republic of Hawaii has no warrant for its existence in the support of the people of these Islands; that it was proclaimed and instituted and has hitherto existed and now exists, without considering the rights and wishes of a great majority of the residents, native and foreign born, of the Hawaiian Islands; and especially that said Government exists and maintains itself solely by force of arms, against the rights and wishes of almost the entire aboriginal population of these Islands.

4—That said Republic is not and never has been founded or conducted upon a basis of popular government or republican principles; that its Constitution was adopted by a convention, a majority of whose members were self-appointed, and the balance of whose members were elected by a numerically insignificant minority of the white and aboriginal male citizens and residents of these Islands; that a majority of the persons so voting for delegates to such Constitutional Convention was composed of aliens, and that a majority of said aliens so voting were of than very recent residence, without financial interests or social ties in these Islands.

5—That the Constitution so adopted by said Convention has never been submitted to a vote of the people of these Islands; but was promulgated and established over the said Islands, and has ever since been maintained, only by force of arms, and with indifference to the will of practically the entire aboriginal population, and a vast majority of the whole population of these Islands.

6—That the said Government, so existing under the title of the Republic of Hawaii, assumes and asserts the right to extinguish the Hawaiian Nationality, heretofore existing, and to cede and convey all rights of sovereignty in and over the "Doppelbrau," on draft is the finest beer in town. It is on tap at the Royal Saloon, and is pronounced a very healthy and refreshing tonic by all connoisseurs.

A lady, who is an accomplished teacher of music, desires to give lessons to a few pupils at their home, at 50 cents a lesson. Address, the editor of THE INDEPENDENT.

The favorite beverage of the nobility is Andrew Usber's whisky and Schweppes's famous soda. The Royal Annex, always up to date, is now responding to the frequent calls for "U. & S."

"Historical Truths" may be had at 327 King street, if applied for early. Although the edition was considered large enough for all demands the books are already becoming rather scarce.

Paddy Ryan is now assisted by popular William Carlisle at the Anchor Saloon, where Seattle Beer is always on draught and other stimulants furnished. Pointers on all sporting events can be had, free of charge from the athletic manager of the Anchor.

The football season will open soon. The players are having their hair "elongated" and are getting in proper trim. For new points on how to twist and twirl the ball, call at the Pacific Saloon, where the latest in sports and in fine "brands" are always available to customers.

From casks rotund, the mellow brew Of Pabst springs perfect to the light.

For nature sure and science true, Conspire to brew it right. The Royal and Pacific too, Supply this perfect gem. The Cosmopolitan is not behind With checks which change with them
