Did Legislators Give Irresponsible Persons The Privilege to Act Unjustly? They Did Not

THEN WHO IS TO BLAME FOR FAILURE?

Popular Captain of Schooner Defiance is Widely Entertained by Eleele Society While in Port

MR. LEGISLATOR, did you, in voting more money for teachers, intend that those who had given time and thought to their work, and those whose labor had been devoted to the Island Schools for years, should, upon being placed in more difficult positions, get exactly the same salary as though they had remained in the less difficult one? What does promotion mean to any business man? Advance in salary, or having more work on his shoulders at the same amount.

INFORMAL AFFAIR TO CAPT. SALETZKE

A delightfully informal affair, much enjoyed by those who attended, was the reception Thursday night tendered Captain and Mrs. John August Saletzke of the "Defiance," now lying at Port Allen.

The hosts were Captain Geo. B. Leavitt and Mr. Richard L. Hughes, and able entertainers they proved themselves to be.

The large lanai of Captain Leavitt's cottage, swept by the cool breezes of Hanapepe Bay, proved a delightful place for dancing, while cards were enjoyed by those whose inclinations lay in that direction. Those present:

Captain and Mrs. Saletzke.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hastie.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Roendahl.

Misses Mable, Janet, Marion and Maile Hastie.

Messrs. Bole, Leavitt, Hughes, Miller, and Lyle.

CAPT. SALETZKE HOST ON BOARD

Eleele, Kauai, Oct. 16, 1911.

Captain and Mrs. John August Saletzke, of the Schooner "Defiance," entertained a circle of Eleele friends on board ship at Port Allen Sunday afternoon, and those who were brave enough to risk the danger of "mal de mer" enjoyed the afternoon immensely. In spite of the day, the younger spirits would not be cubed, and dancing was indulged in on the spacious deck.

The brisk salt air created keen appetites, which were generously satisfied with a delicious collation served on deck. The afternoon was all too short, since some of the timid objected to a perilous passage with an eccentric Japanese launch-man after dark.

Eleele will feel a keen sense of loss when Captain and Mrs. Saletzke make their farewells next Thursday, as Mrs. Saletzke has given a pleasant stimulus to the social life. Those who enjoyed their hospitality Sunday afternoon were: Misses Mable, Marion and Janet Hastie, Leona Laube, Nora Haffley, and Messrs. Leavitt, Miller and Hughes.

Big Star Contest is on in Earnest—All The Candidates Now Qualified to Get Out And Hustle

Eleele, Kauai, Oct. 16, 1911.

The McBryde Pedro Club and friends were entertained at the Eleele home of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Roendahl, Saturday evening Oct. 14th., this being one of several delightful affairs given in honor of Mrs. John August Saletzke and Captain Saletzke, of the "Defiance," now lying at Port Allen.

The large lanai and pleasant rooms were comfortably filled with members and guests, who needed little encouragement from the charming hostess and genial host, but proceeded with the serious business of cards with great enthusiasm. Miss Marion Hastie and Mr. Miller were the proud recipients of their respective prizes.

While the delicious cakes and sherbet were later being consumed, the evening's pleasure was enhanced by instrumental solos from Mr. Roendahl and a vocal solo by Mr. Hughes.

Those present were: Capt. and Mrs. J. A. Saletzke, Messrs. and Mesdames Wm. Hastie, H. H. Brodie, K. Roendahl and C. B. Morse, Misses Leona Laube, Nora Haffley, Mable Hastie, Marion Hastie and Janet Hastie, Captain Geo. B. Leavitt, Messrs. Moeller, Hughes, Miller, and others.

Race War Is On In Oklahoma Town

(Special to the Garden Island)

MESROGUE, O., Oct. 23. A serious race war has broken out here, resulting in the death of the city attorney and the lynching of the negro who did the killing. Great riot prevails and the militia has been called out to protect the white people. The negroes are arming themselves for a conflict and serious trouble is feared.

Kauai's Candidates In Star Contest

In this issue, appears the names of the nominees for the Star contest which is now on in full blast. According to a communication from Manager Henshall, the Kauai candidates have a fair chance at the big prize.

While Oahu has more population, she will also have more contestants amongst whom the vote will be divided, so that Kauai should have every reason to feel very much encouraged.

Each candidate upon receipt of his or her certificate, should lose no time in getting busy. Become a live wire in the interest of Honolulu's best afternoon paper, and come out a winner. Be instrumental in introducing the best edited paper in the islands into every home on the island. Go in for the big prize, and its a sure thing you will have a mighty good chance for the Kauai prize.

Representative J. H. and Mrs. Coney were arrivals from Honolulu by Saturday's boat.

Waimea Basketball Team is Defeated By Pick-up Team Composed of Honolulu Drummers

According to latest advices from the seat of war in the Orient the rebels are still gaining grounds by strides. All the Imperialist fleet has hoisted the republican flag and many of the men have mutinied. The rebels are preparing to march on the Capital which in a great state of excitement. It is reported that panic reigns supreme in the city of Peking, and that the Emperor and Regent Prince have fled from the city through a secret passage. The Admiral of the Imperial Navy has sent a demand for more coal and men and also reports a shortage of ammunition.

Gen. Vint Chang has petitioned the government for more artillery and admits that the present efforts of the government are entirely inadequate.

A dispatch from Tokio to THE GARDEN ISLAND, states that the Chinese government has asked military aid from Japan, and that the latter it is believed, is awaiting the consent of the powers. The ostensible purpose of Japan's interference will be to protect its interests in Manchuria.

General Heng's army has been routed in a severe battle at Kwang Shu, the rebels capturing all the artillery.

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS

MANAGER ROHRIG.—Before entering another contest, I will make arrangements for a private secretary to attend to my mail.

C. W. SPITZ.—The Advertiser should send its editor to Washington. He seems to be about the only man capable and one which the city could very well spare.

SHERIFF RICE.—Let the government provide some of our diversified farm experts with the means to carry out their ideas in actual demonstrations before inducing the small land owners to get into a proposition of uncertainty. I'm from Missouri.

JUDGE C. S. DOLE.—What Hawaii needs is an increase in its citizen population and the Prerar administration has done but little in the advancement of such ideas, and therefore I think Kuhilo has ample grounds for much of his complaint.

PHILIP L. RICE.—Yes, California is certainly a beautiful place, but it doesn't compare with the Paradise of the Pacific—especially that particular portion known as Kauai.

Waimea Basket-ball Team Loses Game

(Special to the Garden Island)

WAIMEA, Oct. 23.—By odds the most interesting game of basket-ball ever seen here was that which was played Sunday afternoon between the home team and a pick-up team composed of drummers. At the close of the game, the home team had a fair chance at winning, but some bungling on the part of one of the girls allowed the drummer boys to score a point which ended the game with the

Enjoyable Tea Party is Given by Mrs. J. M. Lydgate—J. M. Kaneakua is a Popular Man

The surveyors who have been engaged in working out our harbor system for some time, will soon have finished their work and slunk away. These experts have worked away quietly, and unobtrusively, getting all the data required by Uncle Sam, which will have much to do with the final decision of the location of the Port of Entry for Kauai. They have worked faithfully and have made a good impression on the Nawiliwili people, whose courtesy has been highly appreciated by these men.

J. W. Asch, chief clerk in Sheriff Jarrett's office, came up last week on business pertaining to his department, after the transacting of which, he returned to Honolulu by the Kinau.

Mrs. S. B. Deverill and Miss Florence Deverill, of Hanalei, were guests of friends in Lihue Sunday.

C. H. Brown, manager of the Honolulu Scrap Iron Co., Honolulu, and who has been buying up several hundred tons of plantation machinery from the various plantations of the island, left for home on the Kinau last week.

Dan Conway, of the T. H. Davies Co., and also representing the Lin On case, who in the latter had made an assignment to his creditors, left for Honolulu Saturday.

Dr. Glaisyer accompanied by Misses Haffley and Laube, were at the Hotel Fairview for dinner Sunday.

Supervising Principal H. H. Brodie, passed through the County Seat last Friday enroute home from an extended visit among the schools of the Hanalei District.

Deputy U. S. Marshall D. K. Sherwood came up on business connected with his office last week returning on Saturday's boat.

Lee Austin, of T. H. Davies & Co., is making his regular trip among our business men of the island.

MRS. LYDGATE GIVES TEA

There was a very picturesque and animated party on the Parsonage Lawn on Thursday afternoon last. Mrs. Lydgate had invited her neighbors to afternoon tea—to meet Rev. Wm. B. Oleson and Mr. Perley Horne. It was a congenial occasion and for some time it was nip and tuck between the "parson" stories and the "School-Marm" stories.

The latter being feminine and gifted with tongues, naturally came out ahead, as soon as they settled down to it.

Mr. Perley Horne, principal of Kamehameha Schools is making a tour of the Islands looking up graduates of his School and visiting the homes of the boys.

Mr. J. M. Kaneakua was most enthusiastically recommended, by the recent C. E. Association meeting, to the presidency for Hawaii of this growing body.

score standing 6 to 5 in favor of the pick-up team. The girls showed remarkable pluck and gave evidence of what they "might" do were they given an opportunity to practice with a team who could show them the game.

SEMI-ANNUAL ASSOCIATION MEET AT LIHUE

Kapaa Would build a New Church—Will Get Three Hundred Dollars From Home, Balance Outside

CEMETERIES ARE FREELY DISCUSSED

Rev. Lydgate Gives an Interesting Talk on Tuberculosis, While Other Prominent Speakers Discourse

During several days of last week the Lihue Church has been a center of much activity consequent on the meeting of the Semi-annual Association of the churches of Kauai together with the Sunday Schools and C. E. Societies connected therewith. From "early morn till dewy eve," prayer and praise reports and discussions were kept a-going, and the church yard was the scene of constant animation.

Among many matters of interest the following are perhaps the most important:

The first steps were taken preparatory to the coming of the Annual Association to Kauai next Summer by apportioning to the various churches their quota to be raised for entertainment of this body—and by appointing a committee to be responsible for the music on that occasion.

A request came from the Kapaa Church for permission to solicit funds throughout the Island for the construction of a suitable parsonage at Kapaa. The Minister there, with most commendable patience, has lived in a shack for many years, under conditions of great inconvenience, and it is high time that he had a decent house to live in. It being the practice of the Association to grant such permission only by way of supplement to faithful endeavors of the church making the request, it was voted that the Kapaa people should first secure $300 locally—after which they would be authorized to seek outside aid. This was satisfactory to them and they will at once set to work on these lines. The parsonage they have in mind will cost about $800.

There was considerable discussion on the subject of church yard cemeteries. The proper care of these cemeteries involves more or less expense, which in some cases falls heavily on the struggling church, and yet the outside community expects to use this cemetery. What should be the attitude of the church? There was a pretty common consensus of opinion, that while the church should be as liberal as possible, it could not fairly be expected to bear this burden without assistance, and that outsiders availing themselves of such accommodation should make some payment for the same.

Under the head of support of the ministers Rev. W. B. Oleson, Sec. of the Hawaiian Board assured the Association that it had been his constant effort to raise the salaries of the ministers to a minimum of $400 a year. Kauai had been much better provided for, in this respect, than some other Islands, because of wealthy and generous friends of the churches resident here, but if there was need here of assistance the Board would endeavor to meet it.

Rev. J. M. Lydgate called attention to the serious inroads made in our population by Tuberculosis, and suggested simple measures of prevention.

Mr. Oleson gave a very graphic and interesting account of the pageant "Darkness to Daylight" witnessed last Summer in Boston by many thousands which gave in dramatic form, partly historical, partly imaginary a representation of the coming of Christianity to Hawaii.

The minister's class, conducted by Mr. Lydgate, awakened a good deal of interest in the criticism of the sermon outlines placed upon the black-board and commented on one by one.

Hanalei School Items Show a Continued Interest is Still Kept Up in Our National Sport

C. MASER WINS THE FIRST PRIZE

Many Entries Enlivens The Contest—S. E. Lucas, Optician, Will Arrive on The Kinau Tomorrow

November third will be a big day at the Kukuiohono Park, the new McBryde Park. The occasion will be the celebration of the Mikado's birthday anniversary and the amusements arranged for the day include horse racing, sulky racing, bicycle and foot racing, as well as various other athletic sports.

The program will open at 9 a. m. and probably continue throughout the entire day for it is not the custom of the Mikado's subjects to do things on a half-way measure.

The judges for the various contests will be K. W. Kinney, Charlie Aki and F. L. Voller. The management of the track will be in the hands of J. C. Jerves. Invitations have gone out broadcast and an immense crowd is most sure to be there.

HANALEI SCHOOL CORRESPONDENT

On Sunday, we base-ball boys walked over to Haena to have a game of baseball against Haena School. Hanalei won by a score of 24 to 9. It was a very fine game and was enjoyed very much. Our teachers, Mrs. Newman and Mrs. Ahi, were there too.

We have about 40 beds of garden ready for seeding. We sent for the seeds, but they have not come yet.

On Sunday, Oct. 15, we were all waiting for the Haena boys to come over to play ball, but they did not come.

While we were practising baseball, in front of the grounds, Mr. Morgan, Miss Robords and Miss Chang passed through Hanalei in their auto, to visit some of their friends.

On this coming Sunday we are going to play with the Road boys.

On Tuesday, Oct. 17, Mr. Brodie, the Supervising Principal, visited our school. He showed us many maps of the world which had been drawn by his pupils at the Hanapepe School. They were very beautiful. He also showed us some devices for rapid addition. They were very helpful and we took great interest in his work.

Winners In The Lihue Store Contest

C. Maser Principal of the German school here was the winner of first prize in the Lihue Store's Catch-Phrase Contest which closed at 4 p. m. Saturday last. Mrs. F. Carter won second, while "Auld Nickie Ben" took the third prize. The contest brought out some extremely good results both in prose and poetry, many of which in due time will be presented to our readers.

S. E. Lucas Parisian Optician, and whose headquarters is in Honolulu, will arrive tomorrow and will spend some time on the island getting in touch with his Kauai trade. Mr. Lucas will probably make his headquarters at the Fairview while on this side of the island.

Kamehameha, was an interested visitor and in response to an invitation to address the Association did so most happily. Mr. David Lyman of Koloa also addressed the Association in Hawaiian.
