E. B. BRIDGEWATER, EDITOR
K. C. HOPPER, MANAGER

We wish all our readers a very happy New Year.

EVERYBODY went Christmas-wise yesterday.

Now that Christmas is over, better get ready to turn over that new leaf.

JUDGING from the amount of holiday business transacted by our local firms, it is safe to say that everybody must have received a call from St. Nick.

In proportion to the number of pages, THE GARDEN ISLAND carried more holiday advertising than any other paper in the Territory.
"There's a reason." Most any advertiser can tell you what it is.

THAT diphtheria is again prevalent, makes the article on diphtheria appearing elsewhere in this number, the more interesting.
The clipping is from a Norwegian paper, and we are enabled to reproduce it through the kindness of one of our subscribers. It should not only prove interesting reading, but be of invaluable assistance in the fight which is at present being waged here.

WHAT a pity 'tis that the murderous wretches whose poor old mother is now on her death-bed from a broken heart, could not have been allowed to make their exits with broken necks.

SHERIFF RICE, possessor of a flock of chickens numbering about 250, among which are specimens of the finest birds ever seen in the Territory, is having his detective instincts tried out in an attempt to locate the person or persons who did wilfully, maliciously or otherwise say that he is propagating "Rice" birds.

A movement is on foot looking to an organization of a K. P. lodge on Kauai. Several members who reside in Makaweli, are interesting themselves in the move, from which source comes very favorable reports. The various members who are scattered throughout the island are being communicated with on the subject and indications are that the project will go through.

TOO MUCH CIDER

A Missouri editor who was brimful of hard cider got a wedding account and a sale mixed, and served to his readers this dope: William Smith, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Smith, was disposed at auction to Lucy Anderson on my farm, one mile east of here in the presence of 70 guests, including the following, to-wit: Two mules, 12 head of cattle. The Rev. Jackson tied the nuptial, the least weighing 1,250 pounds on the hoof. The beautiful home of the bride was tastefully decorated with a seawash calf, a spade, a sulky rake, one feed grinder, one set double harness, almost new, and just before the ceremony was pronounced, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by one milch cow, five years; one Jersey cow, to be fresh next April, carrying a bunch of flowers in her hand and looking charming in a gown made of a light spring wagon, two boxes of apples, two ricks of hay, one grindstone, mouseline deer trimmed with about 180 bushels of spuds. The groom is a well-known and popular young man and has always stood well among society circles of 12 Birshire hogs, while the bride is an accomplished and talented school teacher of a splendid drove of Poland-China—pedigrees if desired.
Among the beautiful presents were two sets of knives and forks, one spring harrow, one wheelbarrow, one go-cart, other articles too numerous to mention. The bridal couple left yesterday on an extended trip, term of 12 months time, extended to responsible parties, otherwise spot cash luncheon will be served at the table. After this Mr. and Mrs. Smith will go to housekeeping in a cozy home at the corner of Main and Doctor R.
L. Granby, auctioneer.
