KAUAI TEACHERS TO MEET

WILL ORGANIZE BRANCH TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

Prominent Educators and Business Men Will Make Addresses--Regular Classes in Demonstrating Work

A BASKET DINNER ON PROGRAM

Supervisor Brodie Says "Teachers Should Not Show Indifference"--To Convene At Nine O'clock Sharp

An outline of the teachers meeting to be held at the public school building in Lihue on Friday, January 5th., as provided by supervising principal Brodie furnishes an interesting program. The first part of the program will be devoted to demonstrating lessons chief among which will be a type lesson in reading in the Golden Treasury, a new reader which has made its appearance in the primary grades of our public schools for the first time this year and which is said to have proven just a bit difficult to some of our primary teachers.

Following these demonstrations, remarks will be made by the various speakers who will probably include School Inspector Gibson, Principal Edgar Wood of Honolulu Normal School, Hon. W. H. Rice, Sr., Commissioner of Education of Kauai, Senator Kuonen, Representative C. A. Rice, Representative J. H. Conroy and others.

At the conclusion of the addresses, a basket picnic will be held which will be spread on the lawn. This over, the teachers and guests will reassemble and indulge in a general discussion on school topics, inter-changing as it were, experiences and ideas which will surely prove helpful.

At the termination of this part of the program the work of organizing a teachers' association for Kauai will be taken up. Such an organization has long been the desire of the foremost teachers on Kauai, and there is no question but the entire teaching staff will favor the move. Kauai is the only island of the group without such an organization and the interest which is being taken in the coming movement is indeed very encouraging.

Mr. Brodie has announced the meeting in the following form to the various principals:

To the Principals of Schools of Kauai:

There will be a teachers' meeting held at the Lihue School on Friday, Jan. 5th., 1912.

Briefly, the program will be as follows:

- 1.—Regular lessons will be given in certain subjects.
- 2.—Short addresses by leading visitors.
- 3.—A basket picnic.
- 4.—Organization of Teachers' Association.
- 5.—A general and informal discussion by teachers on educational questions.

In extreme cases, roads and distance may prevent attendance. We don't wish to longer stand out as the only island without a teachers' association.

For years our friends have fought for generous salaries, and they will have to fight the same fight again.

Least of all should the teachers show indifference.

Again let me call attention that you should have all type lessons and term outlines completed during the first week.

The teachers' meeting commences at 9 o'clock, promptly, Honolulu time.

Principals will please get questions from their assistants for a question box.

Bring good ideas in production work, or in your gray matter.

H. H. BRODIE,
Supervising Principal.

"HOW WOULD YOU HYDROPHOBIA NEXT LIKE TO BE THE ICE MAN?" SENSATION FOR HONOLULU

A. D. Hills Winner of The Kegel Club's Prize in Bowling Contest After Years Of Unabating Efforts

HIGH SCORES MADE A FAIRVIEW SPREAD

Dole Wins Second and Wishard Third Prizes While Hills Also Takes A Special Prize--A Picture

A. D. Hills, Manager of the Lihue Ice and Soda Water works, a member of the Kegel Club, and fisherman of no mean reputation, further distinguished himself at the Kegel Club headquarters last Saturday night where for the third time he bowled a record score, which gave him permanent possession of the much coveted cup which has been the bone of contention at numerous contests for many years. The cup which Mr. Hills now possesses, was first put up with the understanding that to win it, a member must needs get the highest score three times before he is entitled the trophy. This Mr. Hills has done, pulling off his third high score on Saturday night.

Besides the winning score, there were others made on Saturday evening which might be considered extraordinary. Charley Dole for instance, a member who has never aspired to the winning list, rolled second highest, much to his astonishment. Other high scores were made by heretofore rather obscure candidates.

There were twenty contestants in all, whose scores aggregate an amount equal to an average of one hundred and sixty-five. If this average can be maintained in the next Kauai-Maui contest, the latter won't have a look-in.

Those making the highest scores last Saturday night, and to whom the first second and third prizes were awarded, are as follows:

Hills	Cup and Picture	188
C. S. Dole	(German Stein)	180
H. D. Wishard	Smoking Set	177

Others making commendable scores were Kuhlman, 176; Crawford 175 and Wolters 174.

A DANGEROUS SPOT

The curve on the hill leading down to the mill from the Lihue Store is not infrequently the scene of considerable nervousness to autoists who on coming up-hill meet another vehicle at this point. On one occasion, the writer is informed, the only thing preventing the driver from plunging over the embankment to the railroad track below, was the small embankment by the roadside. This condition of affairs might be considerably changed by constructing the road at this point so as to leave the outer side elevated which would prevent sliding and thus lessen the chance of a serious accident.

LIHUE BAND PICNICS

The Lihue Band has made plans for an elaborate picnic to be held at Waiua Falls next Sunday providing the weather man deals out plenty of sunshine. It will be a family affair, a delightful anticipated.

California Dogs Will Have Bars Put Up Against Them Though Entirely Free From the Disease

Elaborate Menu Prepared by Chef Apana Delights A Score or More of Invited New Year's Guests

HONOLULU, Jan. 1st.—Now that the banana scare is subsiding, a new sensation must be sprung, so in casting about for such, Honolulu's hysterical class has decided that an invasion of dogs infected with rabies is about to occur. This notwithstanding that no record exists of any such case on these islands. Furthermore the state of California, against which the quarantine is to be established, has no record of a case of hydrophobia which adds to the ridiculousness of the situation. It is said by some that this latest outbreak is probably a ruse to secure larger funds for certain departments, in order to permit them to carry on special experimental work, funds for which at present are somewhat lacking.

A FAIRVIEW SPREAD

The annual New Year's dinner given by the Hotel Fairview was enjoyed by a score of invited guests Sunday evening. The menu was a particularly appetizing one, being a case wherein Chief Apana simply excelled himself.

The place cards bore the inscription "A Happy New Year, January 1912," printed in gold leaf.

At the conclusion of the sumptuous spread, the guests were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rice Jr., where bridge and waltz-rarebit occupied the attention of the guests for the remainder of the evening.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rice Sr., Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rice Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Conroy, Mr. and Mrs. Keightley, Miss Jordan, Mr. Morgan, Charlie Dole and Dr. Putman.

WEBERS ENTERTAIN AT NEW YEAR'S LUAU

At the beautiful home of Manager and Mrs. Weber Sunday night, the old year was most fittingly put to slumber, while the New Year was received in a manner which left nothing to desire in the shape of an appropriate welcome. The occasion was the annual luau which this popular couple gives to those connected with the plantation.

The decorations, which were chiefly the handwork of Miss Lulu Weber, were tinged with just enough contrast to render the whole affair one of complete harmony. Numerous electric bulbs blazed forth their cheerful light from every direction, the band which was comfortably ensconced beneath a large tangle of trees which stood near the house, being directed by a flood of light issuing from many bulbs hidden among the branches of the tree. The approach to the big luau upon which stood the artistically decorated table, was lined on either side by ferns and ti plants. The table stood in the shape of a hollow square on three

PARENTAL NEGLECT

More Interest is Due the Child From Its Parents, Who Generally Display Decided Indifference

Promptly at nine o'clock this morning, every school on the island saluted Old Glory and once more tackled the problems which they had so summarily dismissed at the beginning of the festive season. Christmas is over—so is New Year both, with all their pleasures are of the past, and the young mind, notwithstanding its abnormal condition for the past fortnight, is fresh and ready to take a new lease on work; to grapple with the daily problems in a determined and successful manner.

There are cases, however, where children are rather indifferent and parents who do not care, but it is a pleasure to know that these are rare. As a rule, too little attention is paid to our children's progress in school. So long as the child is attending and no question concerning his daily work reaches the parent, the latter takes no interest in the child. This is criminal neglect and every parent whose child grows up in ignorance has only himself to blame. One father right here in Lihue, is a close observer of the progress of his children, with the result that he it is to whom they come for assistance, and he it is who is thus able to shape their course in studies. They have cultivated a taste for good literature and stand head and shoulders above the poor lad who stands a monument to parental neglect.

Why do we cultivate and care so tenderly for choice flowers? Is it not to see them open up in all their glorious beauty? Does not the mind of a single child warrant far more painstaking care than a whole universe of the most beautiful flowers that ever blossomed? Is it not the highest gift of our Creator? The proper care and cultivation of the young mind, its quick response to such treatment and its gradual expansion to the stage of "full bloom" surpasses in beauty all else which has ever yet been created, and parents neglecting to make every effort to help

C. E. S. APPRECIATES

Mr. De Lacy is Handsomely Remembered By Lihue's Religious Bodies On Christmas Day

Wireless press news in so far as this island is concerned, was shut off last Saturday, when the recent order issued by the Wireless Co., went into effect. Were it possible to have a daily service, this paper would probably enter into negotiations with the Wireless Co., to secure special privileges, but under present conditions there is no way in which such an arrangement can be turned into a commercial means of getting returns from the expenditures necessary to get such a privilege.

DE LACY IS THANKED

The members of the Sunday School and the C. E. Societies of Lihue through their committee express their appreciation of Mr. De Lacy's valuable assistance in a generous Christmas present accompanied by the following note:

Mr. De Lacy,
Merry Christmas.
We the members of the Sunday School of Lihue, the Church and the Christian Endeavors Society, present you this Christmas gift as an "Aloha Nui" for the interest and kindness you have shown these many years in Church and Sunday School work. Kindly accept it and may God bless thy way with happiness the next twelve months and all the twelve months of your life.
By its committee W. M. ELLIS,
December 24th, 1911.
The present was in cash.

They are with us always, any one of whom is worthy of every kind act you can show him if you live to be as old as Methuselah.

MRS. HOFGAARD VIA HAGGEMAN RETURNS

Mrs. C. B. Hofgaard was hosts at an elaborate afternoon tea Wednesday at two o'clock in honor of her sister Miss Mahlum of San Francisco, who is a house guest of Mrs. Hofgaard. Those participating in the hospitality of Mrs. Hofgaard and enjoying the pleasure of meeting the charming guest of honor were Mrs. V. Knudsen, Mrs. DeFord, Mrs. Hansen, Mrs. E. Knudsen, Mrs. McClaren, M. Aubrey Robinson, Miss Gertrude Hofgaard, Mrs. T. Brandt, M. Gregg, Mrs. Baldwin, Misses Ella and Ella Lee, of Makaweli, Mrs. Jordan, Miss Gardner, Mrs. Alexander and niece, Mrs. Schulz, Mrs. H. H. Brodie and Miss Anderson of Hanalei.

K. C. Hopper manager of the GARDEN ISLAND office is on a business trip to Honolulu.

Richard E. Haggeman, local wireless operator, returned last Friday from a trip around the world, having been absent since August last. He is looking well, and reports having a fine trip. Haggeman had all sorts of distinction thrust at him on his travels. For instance in Tripoli the Turks would have made him a "general" while in China, the Manchus called "Emperor" to him, but Hag would have none of it. He preferred the simple life in Hawaii. Mr. Vincent who has been in charge of the station here during Mr. Haggeman's absence will probably leave for Honolulu to-day where he will be stationed in the central office of the Automatic Station. Mr. Vincent has become quite popular here during his temporary stay and much regret is felt that circumstances necessitate his leaving.

Paul Schmidt with Hakkfeld & Co., came up on the Hall Friday.
