HUKRAH for Kana's teachers!
 They are true blue every one of them.

ONE of the plaintiffs in a damage suit against the Territory growing in Honolulu, is said to base his claim on the number of slippers he could have made out of the banana peels.

INSPECTOR GIBSON, returns to Honolulu with some facts which will, it is hoped, throw some light on matters which have heretofore been rather obscure.

LEWIS reported a 17,000 dollar skin from Australia last year - (K).

Probably when Hawaii becomes overriden with rabbits she can run a skin game on England.

THE GARDEN ISLAND makes a motion that Mrs. W. H. Rice Sr., be placed on the honorary roll of membership in the Teachers' Association of Kauai as an appreciation of the very important part which this dear, good lady took in Friday's proceedings.

At the meeting of the Board of Education in Honolulu this week, there is no doubt that famous teachers' schedule will receive a little attention. The only reply to the many criticisms made concerning the present schedule, has been "it is according to schedule." The wisdom of adhering to a schedule simply because it is such, regardless of all justice will probably be discussed and some step taken to remedy conditions.

A very prominent person attending the Teachers' Convention was heard to remark upon the lack of harmony existing between many of our principals and their assistants.

In any school where such a state of affairs exist, but little good can be accomplished and any principal or assistant who'll not meet another half-way towards the promotion of school room harmony would be far better off in a position where our children are not so likely to use them as an example.

KAUAI is to be generously congratulated. We feel that we have the best legislators, with the best record for work done; that we can point with pride at the record our police department is making for faithfulness and cleanliness; our Board of Supervisors has the mit-ed confidence and support of our whole community; that our judiciary metes out justice with the public good as the ultimate aim; that all love, honor and revere our Circuit Judge; that a single blot can be found against any of our county officials; that we have the best roads and most efficient County Engineer in the Territory; that our Health Officer is efficient and faithful; and that we have the smartest, best looking, jolliest and most diligent bunch of school marms that ever drew a chalk line. The interest shown by the teachers at last Friday's meeting and the interest taken by Commissioner Rice, insures the further success of our schools.

A RECENT issue of the Hawaiian Star, in publishing a story from Koloa, made reference to a possible scoop this paper would make of it. The subject for the story was given to this paper by its Koloa correspondent nearly two weeks ago, and on the very day the circumstances occurred, but as an investigation proved that the man concerned is by no means one to whom any responsibility can be attached, and at best, a pitiful object, the matter was given no further attention. If the Star or any other paper, person or persons, think the policy of this paper includes making sport of unfortunate mankind, they have another guess coming. The Star is, we believe, no more anxious to pursue such a policy than is the GARDEN ISLAND, and judging from the story as it appears in its columns, the editor is in no degree possessed with the true facts in the case.

A COMMUNICATION

Editor of the GARDEN ISLAND, East Side
 Allow me to express through one of the valuable columns of your paper the thanks and appreciations of the Hanapepe Singing Club, through its leader to those who have given their aid financially to a certain fund raised for defraying the expenses of the Ha-napepe Sunday school, that went over to the exhibition held at the Waihalulu 5 Waiwai; and also to those who welcomed us in their beautiful homes on Christmas Eve last.

In behalf of the said Hanapepe Singing Club, and in justice to those residents and kama'ainas of Kauai who have willingly given their helping hands for a good cause, we take this means of expressing our heartfelt thanks and pray that He, from whom all blessings come, shall in His love to mankind repay you and that we gain by giving good wishes and prosperous new year to you all.

Those who have opened their homes, and who have given us welcome and aid are as follows:
 Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilcox;
 Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wilcox, Mr.
 V. N. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs.
 Weber, Mr. and Mrs. D. Isonaga, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lovell, Mrs. M. Kahala, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kalaue.

Friends and others are also included in this mahalo and kama'ainas.

MRS. FANNY SAGO,
 Committee

Hanapepe, Dec. 30, 1911.

WAIMEA GETS A BIG SHOW

Special to The Garden Island WAIMEA, Jan. 9. A Chinese troupe of dramatic performers will show up at the Waimea Hall on the 11th, for a week's engagement in the role of big drama which will out-class anything ever produced before the local footlights.
 All the receipts are to go to the Chinese Red Cross Society and it is to be hoped the house will have a good run. Tickets are now on sale and none will be refused. If you cannot or do not care to go to the show, send as much as you can spare to the fund. It will be appreciated. The show will be on every night from the 11th, to the 18th, except Monday night.

See how Commissioner W. H.
 Rice Sr. is in Honolulu, attending the meeting of the Board of Education.
