LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: THE BROWN CASE AGAIN

Attorney Fred. Patterson appeared in the Circuit Court at Lihue yesterday afternoon and presented to the Honorable Lyle A. Dickey, Judge of the Fifth Circuit Court, a petition for a writ of mandamus directed to Henry W. Kinney, superintendent of public instruction, and the commissioners of public instruction, requiring that cause be shown why Henry C. Brown should not be restored to his former position as principal of Waimea school. Upon the able arguments submitted by the attorney in his petition Judge Dickey issued the following alternative writ of mandamus:

Honolulu—Keawekeame, the man who found the murdered Kanuha boys in Makiki, reported yesterday, is being held on suspicion of committing the murders. It is claimed that there was blood on the bottoms of his trousers and his back. The presence of two axes is not explained. The Planters Association will send Dr. Norris to the mainland to investigate refining matters.

H. Gooding Field will ask the Legislature for a law which will prevent certain kinds of nets which, he claims, are destroying Hawaiian fish. The Oahu delegation of the Legislature meets and decides on legislation to have primary elections in May and regular elections in June.

An Advertiser special wire says that Superintendent Forbes has called on Secretary Lane, and that the secretaryship of Hawaii now lies between Palmer Woods and Curtis P. Iaukea.

The final contest over the Puunui outlet is expected tonight. It is claimed that to open the old route through the grounds of the country club would take three holes off the golf links.

Eleele people have won their fight of years for a regular policeman. Henry Puni, of Koloa, has been appointed to the place. Eleele has plantation police, but what has been needed is a man for general work. Puni, by the way, is a Democrat and ran for the Legislature at the recent election, being defeated by a small margin.

New Kalaeo Teacher

Miss Findley, a Normal graduate from California, arrived in the Kilauea Wednesday morning to take a possession in Kalaeo school. This gives Kalaeo the additional teacher planned last year.

Miss Georgie Purcell, formerly of Kauai and well known here, was married in Honolulu last Tuesday evening to Mr. C. D. Wright, of the Honolulu-Star Bulletin. The bridesmaid was Mrs. Gonsalves, formerly Miss Rath, of Lawai.

BURGLARY ON THE ISLAND OF NIIHAU

For the first time in forty years a burglary has occurred on the island of Niihau, the victim being John Rennie, manager of the interests of Gay & Robinson. The guilty parties are native boys, they taking $13.50 and $18.50 respectively in cash from Mr. Rennie's office.

The burglary was committed last August, but it was a long time before the guilty parties were apprehended. The boys were brought to Kauai last week and appeared before Judge Dickey, sitting as juvenile officer.

A problem confronted the court, for the reason that the boy's under ordinary circumstances, would be less likely to go wrong again on the peaceful and law-abiding island of Niihau than in the reform school. It was, therefore, decided to send them back to Niihau on probation and under certain restrictions.

The boys broke into the ranch office all right enough, and the burglary was committed in regulation style, save that only a little money was taken, $150 in cash being left behind.

A Novel Stunt

George Malu, a Honolulu iron worker who was sent over here, with others, to finish up a job at Makaweli mill, took off his clothes under the side of Nawiliwili wharf Saturday afternoon with the intention of swimming out to the steamer Kinau, lying in the offing. He was gathered in by the police and locked up. Kauai booze was the trouble. Yesterday he was reprised by the district magistrate and will leave by the steamer this afternoon for home.

New Makaweli Chemist

Charles Gerth is the new chemist at Makaweli. He was formerly with the Chaparra factory of the Cuban-American Company, in Cuba. G. H. Halden, formerly chemist at Makaweli, is now comfortably installed at Honokaa, Hawaii.

Hon. and Mrs. Wm. Hyde Rice and Mrs. Ralph Wilcox will be home tomorrow from their long stay on the coast. They arrived at Honolulu on the Matsonia, went over to Hilo and are returning from there.

Dr. Branch, the dentist, returned to Lihue Wednesday morning, accompanied by Mrs. Branch. They will make their home in the house formerly occupied by Dr. Derby.

Judge L. A. Dickey returned Wednesday morning from his vacation, spent in Honolulu.

SMALL BURGLARY AT PORT ALLEN

The oil warehouse at Port Allen was broken into Saturday night and the sum of $13.50 taken from the cash drawer. Nothing else was disturbed. Entry was gained by breaking a padlock on the door.

The Kauai Railway Company is not in the habit of keeping any money in the cash till at the warehouse, cash being locked in the safe at night; but a sale was made late Saturday and the amount

Doi Is Committed

Doi, the plumber who shot his wife and himself above Hanamaulu a few weeks ago, was arraigned in the Lihue district court last Thursday and committed to the grand jury on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. The wife was not seriously injured, but Doi shot himself several times and it was thought he could not possibly recover. In saving his life Dr. Putnam did remarkably surgical work.

above stated was left behind. The police seem to feel that the burglar was someone not only familiar with the place but who knew of the cash being left there.

ECLIPSE OF MOON WAS A FINE SIGHT

Kauai had a splendid view of the eclipse of the moon Sunday evening. The sky was perfectly clear. The moon entered the shadow of the earth at 7:20. The total eclipse began at 8:30 and ended at 9:59, the moon leaving the shadow and shining brightly again at 11:09. People all over the island were out watching the incident.

It may be of interest to know that the Hawaiian Islands will have another total eclipse of the moon this year. It will occur on the night of December 27, starting at 9:35 p. m., the moon clearing the shadow at 12:57 on the morning of the 28th.

There will be still another total eclipse of the moon this year. It will occur on July 4th., but on account of that being America's Independence Day, will not disturb this part of the world.

The sun will not favor the Islands with any unusual stunts in 1917, although it will be partially shaded to other parts of the world, four times—January 22, June 18, July 18 and December 13.

The eclipse was made the finer by the fact that it was "full moon" night.

Lihue Drill Shed

Work on the big, new National Guard drill shed and armory in Lihue will begin in a very few days. The work will be done under the supervision of Thomas Nott, the contractor who is building the Sam Mahelona Memorial Hospital in Kawaihau district.

SKETCH OF WAIMEA CANYON DIORAMA

D. Howard Hitchcock, returning from the Waimea canyon on Saturday last, gave an informal exhibit of his preliminary sketch for the Kauai diorama, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lydgate, which was attended by a goodly number of those most interested.

In spite of adverse weather conditions, the artist had been successful in making a very impressive sketch about five feet by fifteen inches, which gives an excellent idea of the vivid coloring and the impressive grandeur of that wonderful region.

This sketch will be carefully and accurately enlarged for the diorama to a finished picture, 30 by 10 feet which will be set in the alcove, with a prepared realistic, natural, foreground, and then skillfully lighted, the whole to give the effect of the actual scene. The Kauai view is to be one of seven, representing the chief attractions of the Islands, including the Volcano, Haleakala, Honolulu from Tantalus, and the view from the Pali. They will be housed in a special building of artistic design, on Bishop street, opposite the Young Hotel. Work is being rushed on the whole enterprise so that it may be ready for the Mid-Pacific Carnival.

Hitchcock has in hand two of these dioramas, Waimea Canyon and Haleakala, and Waldron the others.

Kauai is to be congratulated in having her glorious scenery set forth by a son of the soil, who has known and loved them intimately for years, and who will display them with an affectionate as well as an experienced and skillful hand.
