She Wanted a Corset.

A country girl entered a Jackson-street store the other day, and after looking around for a while, was asked by a clerk whether he could be of any advantage to her in breaking the monotony of the situation. She gazed on the fair-haired apostle of the beautiful for a moment, and, reaching down, drew a bundle from under her arm, and said: "Well, here is a pair of shoes that mother sold eggs and buyed for me. But I've learned - about girls being squeezed to death with corsets, and I want ter swap these shoes for one to see how it seem to be squeezed once.

San Bernardino, Cal., May 18th. —The parlors of the Stark's Hotel were filled to overflowing with our San Bernardino people last evening by invitation and otherwise, to hear a concert by telephone. The Trans-continental Hotel at Colton was the other end of the wire. Between these points, three and a half miles apart, communication was established on Tuesday. At half-past eight, Professor Steinbreinner, with his orchestra, opened the ceremony with a lively air, which was plainly heard in Colton. The Colton Quintette Club responded, the same being heard plainly here. Several pieces were exchanged, and the evening concert was pronounced a success.

The mercantile community are gratified that the annual meeting of the Pacific Mail Company has resulted in the re-election of the former directors: Jay Gould, Trenor W. Park, Sidney Dillon, Russell Sage, C. P. Huntington, E. H. Perkins Jr., Henry Hart, and J. B. Houston. This election insures the continuance of Williams & Dimond as agents in San Francisco. Their administration has been a most popular one with the business community.—S.F. Argonaut.
