CLAIMS HEAVY DAMAGES.

An Hawaiian Exile Demands $50,000 Because of His Expulsion.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 25.—Frank Honeck, a native of Missouri, has forwarded to Secretary Gresham a claim for $50,000 damages against the Hawaiian Government.

Honeck says he went to Honolulu ten months ago and joined Company A of the militia, gaining a medal as the best marksman in the service. W. O. Smith, the Attorney-General, employed him as a secret service agent to watch for the smuggling of arms ashore. He got evidence against the small vessel Waimanalo, and says that on January 6, 1895, when that vessel was at Honolulu, he went in search of Smith to have him swear out warrants for the arrest of Captain Davies of the Waimanalo and his crew.

Not being able to find Smith, and considering the matter urgent, he informed Colonel Fisher, commander of the militia, who caused the arrest.

Next day Honeck went into the field and did not have an opportunity to tell Smith of his discoveries for a month later. When he had not been told first. He refused to hear Honeck's explanations, and ten days later Honeck was arrested and thrown into jail. He says no charge was made and he was refused communication with the American Consul. He was finally told that he must leave the islands or he would be imprisoned for thirty-five years, guilty of innocent. He chose the former alternative and was given an honorable discharge from the army.

REV. D. P. BIRNIE.

Pastor of Central Union Church
—Installation Last Night.

Central Union Church was crowded last night by members and friends to witness the installation services of Douglas P. Birnie as pastor of the church. The occasion was made doubly interesting from the fact that many of the clergymen attending the evangelical session were present.

The meeting was opened by Rev. S. E. Bishop reading the minutes of a council held at the church to arrange for the services. W. W. Hall then read the vote of the church and Hon. A. F. Judd read the call of the church sent Mr. Birnie.

Rev. C. M. Hyde delivered a most impressive address in handing over the charge to the new pastor. The sermon was preached by Rev. C. M. Hill, pastor of the Hilo Foreign Church, and Rev. H. H. Parker of Kawaihau made appropriate remarks in extending the right hand of fellowship.

Some time ago I was taken sick with a cramp in the stomach, followed by diarrhea. I took a couple of doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was immediately relieved. I consider it the best medicine in the market for all such complaints. I have sold the remedy to others and every one who uses it speaks highly of it. J. W. STRICKLER, Valley Center, Cal. ## THE POLICE COURT.

A Variety of Cases Before His Honor This Morning.

About three seconds after Judge Perry took his seat this morning, Lee Sun pleaded guilty to having opium in his possession and about one minute after His Honor had judgment recorded against him. Lee Sun will meditate on the reef for the next thirty days and endeavor to conjure up visions of beautiful hours without the aid of the seductive drug he loves so well. In this he will be joined by Ah Sam, another opium fiend who received the same sentence later on.

Henry M. Burke is a would-be masher who ogles pretty young ladies on street corners and also makes a practice of frequenting the Central Union Church for the same purpose much to the annoyance of the aforesaid young ladies and the congregation generally. He was charged with being a common nuisance and the Court so adjudged him and fined him $5 and costs. If he does it again Mrs. Gauld's cowhide will probably be at the service of anyone who wishes to borrow it for the purpose of giving the masher a sound thrashing.

Francisco is in trouble about a few chickens and is charged with receiving stolen goods. The prosecution completed its testimony at noon and this afternoon Francisco will have his innings.

J. E. Recerco will also endeavor to explain to His Honor what he knows about assaulting and battering editor Feireira.

It is announced that Mrs. Hedberg, widow of Captain Hedberg, who was shot and killed some months ago by Lieutenant Maney at Fort Sheridan, is to be married June 3d to D. A. Stephens, son of Henry Stephens, the box manufacturer of Chicago.

"THE KING PRO TEM."

Photographs of the Principal Characters Now on View.

The Hollister Drug Company have in one of their windows photographs of the principal characters in the burlesque opera of "The King Pro Tem," recently produced in Portland. The first is that of Ed. Dekum as the king, which is labeled "You'd Never Guess." The others are "Members of the King's Guard," "Reorganized Police Force," "The Committee of 100" and "Naughty Little Soubrettes," the latter being personated by little boys. The pictures must be seen to be appreciated. The music was written especially for this burlesque on Hawaii, and is said to be so catchy, that its principal tunes are being whistled everywhere from Portland to New York. The burlesque was produced entirely by members of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Association and will likely be produced in many other cities.

Starkey, J. M. Tracy, T. S. Douglass, J. L. Torbert, C. V. E. Dove and C. Hustace. This case arises out of the entanglement connected with the estate of C. L. Brito, a bankrupt.

To Be Revived.

A movement is being made towards reviving the Improved Order of Red Men in these islands, which order existed here some years ago. Several of the members of Hawaiian Tribe, No. 1, now defunct as well as sojourning members of the order, have signified their intention of applying to the Great Sachem of the United States for a charter, and for this purpose a meeting will be held to-morrow evening at half-past seven o'clock at the Knights of Pythias hall on Fort street. It is desired that all ex-members of the order make their appearance at this meeting. His late Majesty Kalakaua was a strong patron of the order during his reign, he having held the high office of Sachem in the Hawaiian Islands.

Having used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family and found it to be a first-class article, I take pleasure in recommending it to my friends. J. V. FOERER, Westport, Cal. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for Hawaiian Islands.
