Will Spend a Night on the Verge of the Great Crater.

The Naval and Military Defense of Hawaii—An Exposition

Judge Gear's Obsequies at Masonic Temple and Nuuanu.

The official of the late Judge George H. Gear from the Masonic Temple presided at the service. The service was conducted by representative officers of all organizations. The service was attended by family and friends of the deceased. The procession was led by a body of the members of the Lodge.

The service was attended by many of the members of the Lodge.

IMPRESSIONS OF SERVICES

BRITISHERS WOULD SUBSIDIZE AN ALL RED STEAMER LINE

Japan wants an Alliance With America—Kapu Case Dismissed—Bread Riots in Persia.

(Associated Press Cable)

LONDON, May 7—The Imperial Conference recommended that a line of steamships be subsidized between Australia and England, and the case of the Kapu was examined.

The Conference adjourned yesterday, having been in the matter so far.

JAPAN WANTS AN AMERICAN ALLIANCE

NEW YORK, May 15—Baron Otsuwa, in an interview, says that Japan is looking for an alliance with the United States and has always regarded this country as a moral ally.

HONOLULU CASE DISMISSED.

WASHINGTON, May 15—The Supreme Court has dismissed the Kapu-Puchan case, originating in Honolulu, because of the death of Ka Ho.

A test of the laws under which aliens are sent to Malolai was being made in this case and for almost three years Hawaii, a Hawaiian territory, has been held in the United States, a case under orders of the Federal Court. The district court for two months ago, Attorney Ashford represented the case.

THE SAN FRANCISCO SITUATION

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15—The situation is unchanged here, except for minor disturbances.

JAPANESE DRIVEN OUT.

VANCOUVER, May 15—The miners have forced the Japanese out of the mines here.

OPIUM DENS CLOSED.

SHANGHAI, May 15—The opium dens at Foshou have been closed.

A SOCIALIST GAIN.

VIENNA, May 15—The Socialists have made a gain in the general elections.

HUNGRY PERSIAN RIOTERS.

TEHERAN, Persia, May 15—Bread riots are occurring here.

ONE STRIKE LESS.

ORIZABA, May 15—The strike has been settled.

AFTERNOON CABLE REPORT.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15—Four hundred policemen are on special duty in this city today.

BISMARCK, Territorial, May 15—Six hundred employees of the United States Public Service Company went on strike today for an advance in wages.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14—Over one hundred cars are running today and none with the strikes of the companies have been experienced. The strikes are still hopeful of winning out.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15—The judge to try the case for selection was completed today.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14—Governor Magnon will sign $40,000,000 in aid improvements in cities.

WE, PETERSBURG, May 15—May Day in this city was quiet.

The Annual Meeting of the Cathedral Parish.

The annual meeting of the committee of the Cathedral Parish was held last night at 7:30 in the Minster. The meeting was called to order by Rev. W. B. Wescott, Rector of the cathedral, president. John H. Webster, vice-president, took the chair.

The meeting was opened with the singing of the national anthem followed by benediction. The presiding officer then called on the Treasurer to report the financial condition of the church.

The treasurer, Mr. T. E. Peck, reported that the church had a balance of $200 in the bank, which was used for the payment of the pastor's salary. The report was adopted.

The committee on the Altar, consisting of T. C. Cox, J. S. Bowers, G. F. Underwood, Mrs. G. F. Underwood, Mrs. J. S. Bowers, Mrs. T. C. Cox, and Mrs. J. S. Bowers, reported that the altar had been enlarged, and the decorations and arrangements of the church had been improved.

The committee on the library, consisting of J. S. Bowers, G. F. Underwood, Mrs. G. F. Underwood, Mrs. J. S. Bowers, Mrs. T. C. Cox, and Mrs. J. S. Bowers, reported that the library had been enlarged, and the decorations and arrangements of the church had been improved.

The committee on the choir, consisting of J. S. Bowers, G. F. Underwood, Mrs. G. F. Underwood, Mrs. J. S. Bowers, Mrs. T. C. Cox, and Mrs. J. S. Bowers, reported that the choir had been enlarged, and the decorations and arrangements of the church had been improved.

The committee on the organ, consisting of J. S. Bowers, G. F. Underwood, Mrs. G. F. Underwood, Mrs. J. S. Bowers, Mrs. T. C. Cox, and Mrs. J. S. Bowers, reported that the organ had been enlarged, and the decorations and arrangements of the church had been improved.

The committee on the vestry, consisting of J. S. Bowers, G. F. Underwood, Mrs. G. F. Underwood, Mrs. J. S. Bowers, Mrs. T. C. Cox, and Mrs. J. S. Bowers, reported that the vestry had been enlarged, and the decorations and arrangements of the church had been improved.

The committee on the education department, consisting of J. S. Bowers, G. F. Underwood, Mrs. G. F. Underwood, Mrs. J. S. Bowers, Mrs. T. C. Cox, and Mrs. J. S. Bowers, reported that the education department had been enlarged, and the decorations and arrangements of the church had been improved.

The committee on the Sunday school, consisting of J. S. Bowers, G. F. Underwood, Mrs. G. F. Underwood, Mrs. J. S. Bowers, Mrs. T. C. Cox, and Mrs. J. S. Bowers, reported that the Sunday school had been enlarged, and the decorations and arrangements of the church had been improved.

The committee on the ladies' auxiliary, consisting of J. S. Bowers, G. F. Underwood, Mrs. G. F. Underwood, Mrs. J. S. Bowers, Mrs. T. C. Cox, and Mrs. J. S. Bowers, reported that the ladies' auxiliary had been enlarged, and the decorations and arrangements of the church had been improved.

The committee on the men's auxiliary, consisting of J. S. Bowers, G. F. Underwood, Mrs. G. F. Underwood, Mrs. J. S. Bowers, Mrs. T. C. Cox, and Mrs. J. S. Bowers, reported that the men's auxiliary had been enlarged, and the decorations and arrangements of the church had been improved.

The committee on the vestry, consisting of J. S. Bowers, G. F. Underwood, Mrs. G. F. Underwood, Mrs. J. S. Bowers, Mrs. T. C. Cox, and Mrs. J. S. Bowers, reported that the vestry had been enlarged, and the decorations and arrangements of the church had been improved.

The committee on the choir, consisting of J. S. Bowers, G. F. Underwood, Mrs. G. F. Underwood, Mrs. J. S. Bowers, Mrs. T. C. Cox, and Mrs. J. S. Bowers, reported that the choir had been enlarged, and the decorations and arrangements of the church had been improved.

The committee on the organ, consisting of J. S. Bowers, G. F. Underwood, Mrs. G. F. Underwood, Mrs. J. S. Bowers, Mrs. T. C. Cox, and Mrs. J. S. Bowers, reported that the organ had been enlarged, and the decorations and arrangements of the church had been improved.