Mr. and Mrs. Richard Isenberg have cards out for an At Home on Monday evening for the captain and officers of the Condor man-of-war.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Raymond of Maui are in town, having arrived by the Claudine on Thursday.

Bishop Restarick was among those who left for the mainland during the week, having been a passenger on the Siberia. During his visit in the East he will attend the Mohonk Conference as a representative of the Civic Federation.

Colonel and Mrs. George Macfarlane will sail on the Manchuria on a trip to England, where they will remain for the next few months.

The engagement of Miss Margaret Hyde-Smith, of San Mateo, to Harold E. Dillingham, which was announced in Honolulu this week, is of particular interest to society, both the principals being well known and most popular. The bride-to-be has visited in Honolulu on several occasions as the guest of Miss Helene Irwin and during her visits here she was seen much of in the various social affairs of the city. Mr. Dillingham is one of the best known of Honolulu's young men, having lived here, except during his college days, all his life, being at present rather of the Oahu Railroad and Land Company.

The wedding is to take place some time early in the year at the home of Miss Hyde-Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop entertained at dinner on Friday evening in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mr. Frank Armstrong.

A very elegant luncheon was given by Mrs. W. C. Wilder of 1519 Pensacola street in honor of Mrs. Luther Severance of Hilo and Miss Mary H. Krout. The room was beautifully decorated with golden shower, while the table, with its handsome array of china, cut glass and silver, was artistically dressed with masses of roses and ferns.

Mrs. Wilder is a delightful hostess, imparting to her guests the pleasure which she herself enjoys in gathering her friends about her. Five courses were served, each perfect of its kind.

The guests were Mrs. Severance, Miss Krout, Mrs. C. M. Cooke, Mrs. P. C. Jones, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Clarence Ashford, Mrs. Joe Cooke, Mrs. J. S. McGrew and Mrs. Francis Judd.

Mr. D. Howard Hitchcock has resumed his Friday afternoon At Homes, at the studio on Beretania avenue. In addition to the hospitality one may always expect, there is an additional attraction in the fine collection of studies which he made during his recent visit to Kaula. Mr. Hitchcock, like most others who can appreciate such things, is enthusiastic over the landscape and the wonderful color which tempt the artist almost every where on the Garden Island.

W. Lanz gave an elaborate dinner on Wednesday evening in honor of the captain of the Condor. It was rather an official affair as the several consulates and heads of the Federal government were conspicuous. Mr. Lanz is a royal host and as this was a stag dinner he assumed the honors alone to the charm and delight of his guests.

Mrs. Salter is a recent arrival in Honolulu, a sister-in-law of H. Bews of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. She was summoned by Mr. Bews immediately after the death of his wife, Mrs. Salter's sister.

Captain Ahlert and his officers called officially Saturday afternoon on Hon. S. M. Damon at Moanalua and enjoyed his proverbial hospitality. They were charmed with the beauties of the place. On Wednesday this week the captain and his aide called on the Governor's wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton have set September 24th for the date of sailing to Honolulu. They have spent the greater part of the season at San Rafael, making frequent motor trips to different watering places in the State. Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mrs. Dutton's sister, who visited the Duttons and others in San Rafael this summer, is again at her home in the island city. Mrs. Dutton and Mrs. Macfarlane are among the handsomest of San Francisco's youthful matrons, for, though Mrs. Macfarlane has made her home in Honolulu since her marriage, this city's social set lays claim to her attractive self as a member of local society.—S. F. Chronicle.

Mrs. Henry W. Lyon of Mare Island, who is to leave for Honolulu early in October, was the hostess at a charming bridge party at her navy yard home a few afternoons ago, at which she entertained many of the ladies of the station. Rear Admiral Lyon will retire by age limit early in November and is desirous if possible of being relieved as commandant of the Mare Island yard thirty days prior to his retirement, in accordance with the usual custom. The department will comply with his request in the event of having an officer available to relieve him in this very important assignment, so that it is very probable that he and Mrs. Lyon will leave the yard within a few weeks. The latter will sail direct for Honolulu, where they were stationed before coming to Mare Island and where they are both very popular. Rear Admiral Lyon will probably go East for a short trip and will later join Mrs. Lyon at Honolulu, where they will be near their son.—Examiner.

A marriage of much interest to Honoluluans took place on Wednesday last at the American Consulate in Winnipeg, Manitoba, when Miss Katydid Jones became the bride of Judge S. E. Kingsbury, of Honolulu. The bride has a large number of Honolulu friends, having stopped off here on her way from the Orient as the guest of Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, spending some time in the city. Judge Kingsbury is a leading legal practitioner of the Territory, the senior member of the Honolulu firm of Kingsbury & Keellogg.

Only the immediate friends of the couple were present at the wedding, the bride being given away by her brother, Dr. J. E. Jones, the American Consul in the Manitoba capital. After a wedding journey through the United States, Judge and Mrs. Kingsbury will return to Honolulu, sailing from San Francisco on the Manchuria on October 24.

An enjoyable whist party, at which Mrs. Carl Widemann was the guest of honor, was given on Monday by Mrs. C. L. Wight. Guests to make up four tables had been invited and a decidedly pleasant afternoon was spent over the cards. Those present were Mrs. Widemann, Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. Mott-Smith, Mrs. H. G. Noonan, Mrs. Gunn, Mrs. Holloway, Mrs. E. F. Bishop, Mrs. Cushman, Mrs. Alice Hastings, Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mrs. Herbert, Miss Margaret Walker, Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, Mrs. Charles T. Wilder, Mrs. E. P. Low and Mrs. George Porter.

Mr. R. H. Trent entertained Revs. J. W. Wadman and D. W. Crane, the new Methodist pastor, at luncheon at the Commercial Club on Thursday last. There was a number of invited guests, principally prominent members of the First Methodist Episcopal church.

Rev. John W. Wadman has removed from the Methodist parsonage, in order to make room for the new pastor, to 727 Kinau street, between Alapai and Kaplalani, and on the mauka side of street.

Mrs. Cushman, the wife of Lieutenant Cushman of the Navy, who has been at the Seaside for some weeks, expects to leave on the transport Logan on Oct. 5th, to meet her husband who is in the battleship squadron.

Thomas O'Dowda and family, from Ewa plantation, have taken a cottage at the Seaside, where they will be for a month or so.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Rawlins, who have been visiting in New England for some months, will return shortly and have engaged the Harry Macfarlane cottage at Waikiki.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Dutton will arrive on the next steamer and have taken the Longworth cottage at the Seaside for six months. The Harry Macfarlanes will live with them. It is said that the Duttons will bring a magnificent new touring car with them.

A hop will be given the fore part of the week at the Seaside for the officers of the Condor. As soon as a date convenient to them is ascertained, the date will be advertised in this paper.

On Thursday or Friday the transport Logan will reach here from Manila with the Thirteenth Infantry on board—most who have been here for a few years will remember the merry 13th when they were entertained at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. This regiment will probably be here for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schultze gave a large supper and dance last night for the captain and officers of the German cruiser Condor.

One of the most enjoyable social gatherings of the season was held at the house of Joseph Gilman last evening, in honor of the birthday of Miss Florence Yarrow. It was in the form of a surprise party, given by the members of the Christian Endeavor Society of Central Union church. The members of the society turned out in full force, besides several friends from the Epworth League and Christian church. There were over forty present. After a most enjoyable evening, a silver purse containing fifty dollars was presented to Miss Yarrow by the president of the society as a token of their esteem and friendship.

The Literary Circle of the Kilohana Art League for the coming year will be under the management of Mrs. L. L. McCandless, whose literary taste is well known and whose qualifications for such a position are exceptional. At the first entertainment, which will be given shortly, a poem, "My Islands," by Mrs. Walter F. Frear will be read—verses inspired by her approach to her native land, on a return voyage. Miss Mary H. Krout has consented to read an original story, "Brandon's Beat," illustrating one phase of New York newspaper life, which was published in the Sydney Mail during her residence in Australia last year.

Miss Mary Alexander, who has returned to her duties at Punahou, was much benefited by her visit to the mainland. She spent a good deal of her time in the mountains, enjoying greatly the freedom of camping out.

Mrs. Charles Cooper, who has spent the greater part of the summer at her bungalow on Tantalus, has returned to her home on Alakea street.

Mrs. Luther Severance, who is being much entertained by her scores of friends, will not return to Hilo until the later part of October.

Mrs. P. C. Jones has closed her house in Nuuanu valley and has returned to town.

Abram Lewis Jr., a Honolulu lawyer and '95 graduate of Stanford University, with a record of twenty-three runs scored against California in varsity matches of eleven, twelve and thirteen years ago, arrived at the Fairmont yesterday, accompanied by his bride.—Chronicle, Sept. 13.

"Where there's smoke there is sure to be fire!" They are bearing in mind the mossgrown adage at the beaches in these parts just now. Of course, they have their reasons for doing so, for there certainly has been a big crop of destructive blazes at resorts along the Atlantic in the last month. So it is no wonder that an employe at one of the Jersey seashore resorts made haste the other day when he noticed smoke issuing from one of the bathing houses near the pier and not fifty yards away from a hotel that cost nearly $100,000 to build. He didn't stop to reason why, but made a dash for the compartment whence issued the dangerous looking if thin stream of smoke. He broke in that door in almost as little time as it takes to tell it, but made a quick retreat amid the indignant and horrified shrieks of two maidens who were not clad for an afternoon tea. They will be careful hereafter as to where they indulge in the sly cigarette, though they are safe to do so far as that vigilant employe is concerned.

LIEUT. WHITEHEAD RECOVERS QUICKLY

The friends of Lieutenant O. J. Whitehead, of this city, who was one of the team which went back to Fort Perry to represent this Territory at the National shoot, and who was operated on in the German Hospital in San Francisco for appendicitis, will be glad to hear that he is recovering and will soon be around once more. He was operated on by Dr. Brackett, who did so much for the Honolulu boys in San Francisco, and who showed his kindness in every possible manner in Lieutenant Whitehead's case.
