Sundays Games—Chinese 8, Asahi 1; Haiku 8, Wacs 5. With every break of the luck and every close decision against them the Wacs lost to Haiku 8 1/2 Sunday afternoon. The game was protested on a third out for the Haikus but the protest was not completed yesterday as was required. He alleged that the Wacs' catcher was out of position when or before the ball was delivered. The Wacs fought and kicked through the nine innings. It was a hard afternoon for Leandro and not a delectable one for attendants who like orderliness for a large part of the grand stand was after "his ump" after the first inning decision which was not generally understood. The crowd could not see why a runner should be brought home on a third strike of a third out and the batter have four strikes on him before being called out. Only a very few knew of the rule under which Leandro made the decision. There were a number of unpleasant episodes. Gene Bal was forced to leave the field. As to that episode the management of the league and the umpires are to blame as well as Bal. Last year there was a rule made that no one not in uniform except the club manager should be permitted on the players' bench and that rule has not been enforced. Last year showed the need of the rule and it was folly to ignore it this season.

Wacs players are open to criticism on the hard kicking they did but it was a heartbreaking game to lose, they felt they were getting the worst of it and at least they are entitled to credit for having played hard to the end, especially Wells Cummings in the box.

Wacs Open Strong

At the jump the Wacs looked like winners. Asam's hit which was misjudged by the Haiku right fielder was good for two bases. Silva was safe and Asam landed on third on a fielder's choice. Silva stole while Lyons was striking out. Wells Cummings singled and Asam and Silva came home. Cockett was out, second to first, sacrificing Cummings to second. Frank Bal hit to Souza who threw wide to first and Cummings came home, Bal going to second where he was left when Waiwaiolo went out, Souza to Haole.

Trouble For Leandro

For Haiku Chartrand was assisted out at first by Wells Cummings. Souza received a pass. Chris Cockett flew out to center who made a great throw to first in an effort to catch Souza who had gone toward second. Robinson singled to right and Souza went to third. Robinson stole second. Then came the disputed decision. There were two strikes on Coleman and he struck at the third but Leandro called Souza home and let Coleman strike at another of Wells Cummings shoots. The Wacs gathered around Leandro in protest, spectators howled and hooted, an afternoon of trouble for the umpire was started and then the game was resumed. Acting Manager Pereira gave notice later of a protest on the decision. Wacs 3, Haiku 1.

Wacs Lose Lead

Both teams went out in order in the second. In the third the Wacs all but scored and then lost their lead. Lyons popped out to Robinson and Cummings was out to Robinson to Haole. Cockett sent a Texas Leaguer to left and went to second when Chartrand fell trying to get it. Bal was safe at first on an error but Cockett was nipped at the plate on the play.

Yamamoto beat out a slow one to short but was caught napping at first a moment later. Chartrand was safe on an attempted one hand pick up at third and Souza walked. Then came calamity for the ball was thrown over second baseman's head and the runners sped around. Chartrand scored easily but it was a close decision as to Souza and Leandro said he was safe. Then the Wacs howled and protested again. When play was resumed Chris Cockett singled and Robinson's single was misjudged. Cockett scoring and the big pitcher keeping on to second, Coleman and Jones both fanned. Three runs, and the score Haiku 4, Wacs 3.

A great one handed catch by Haole off Asam's bat prevented the Wacs tying the score in the fourth. Freitas had singled with one out and gone to second on center's bungle of his hit and Alo had popped out to Robinson. The ball from Asam's bat looked safe but Haole spoiled it. Cummings fanned Rolph and Haole and Chartrand flew out to right.

In the fifth the Wacs went out in order. Cummings struck out Souza and Chris Cockett. Robinson beat out a bunt and went to second on an overthrow but was left when Coleman went out third to first.

Disaster Follows Fast

After the Wacs had been retired in order in the sixth Jones singled for Haiku and Rolph was safe on short stop's error, Jones going to third and called safe by Bento on a close decision. Rolph going to second. Haole was thrown out at first by Wells Cummings and the runners hold on bases and then Yamamoto sent out a clean fourth sacker. Chartrand flew to second, Souza went to second on an overthrow from third to first and Chris Cockett singled, scoring Souza but was left when Robinson flew out to short. Four runs, Haiku 8, Wacs 3.

In the seventh the Wacs made their final rally. Freitas was safe on second's muff of his fly. Alo whiffed. Asam singled to right and sent Freitas to third. Asam stole. Lyons was safe on Rolph's bungle and Freitas scored. Asam scored on Wells Cummings single but Wells was left when Cockett breezed.

Asahi's Are Easy
In contrast with the first game was the second, it was quiet and orderly as a Sunday School picnic and so one sided that interest ended early. The Asahi nine made its poorest showing in weeks. On one occasion where the plate was not guarded a runner stopped at third and looked calm at the home plate with no one to stop his scoring. Fielding was ragged on both sides, seven errors scored by each, but the American-Chinese misplays were not disastrous.

The Enleites scored in the second half of the first. Silva walked and stole and Shim sacrificed him to third, pitcher to first. Haake's single scored Silva. Bal fouled out to catcher. Enos singled and Haake was caught between bases but the Asahi second base man dropped the ball and Haake was safe at third and Enos on second. They were left when Wadsworth fouled out to catcher.

Two more came across for the American Chinese in the third. Silva was safe at first on a misplay third strike that went by. He stole second and went to third on the throw from the plate to second. Shim flew out to second. Haake singled to left and Silva scored. Haake stole and was sacrificed to third as Bal went out third to first. Enos singled, Haake scored. Enos was caught at second.

In the fifth three more runs were added. Soong singled over second. Silva bunted and went all the way around the bases on the overthrow of first. Soong scoring ahead of him. Shim went out second to first. Haake singled and stole. Bill Bal singled and Haake scored. Bal going to second on the throw in. Yamaoka went in to relieve Sueda who had seemed to lack speed through the game. Wadsworth ending the inning with a fly to right field.

In the sixth the Asahi got their lone tally. Tomoka bunted and went to second on the overthrow Ishibashi bunted and also went to second on the overthrow and Tomoka scored. Waka-yama was safe on the fumble of his bunt. The runners advanced to second and third on a passed ball. Yanagi and Hirai were victims.

In the last half of the inning two more came over for the American-Chinese. Atau Yee singled and Wong laid down a bunt that sacrificed him to second. Soong sent him to third on a single. Silva sacrificed to first and Atau Yee scored. Soong going to third. Shim was safe on an error of Nakamura and Soong scored. Shim went on the low throw to stop his pillar of second. Hake was out, short to first.

No further scoring to awaken interest.

Blaisdell Twirls

Kula To Victory

Team	P.	W.	L.	Pct.
Paia	8	5	2	.714
Haiku	8	5	3	.625
Kula	7	4	3	.571
Pauwela	6	2	4	.333
Japanese	8	4	4	.500
Filipino	7	1	6	.143

Kula played errorless ball Sunday afternoon and handed the Japanese team of the East Maui league a 12 to 1 drubbing. Neil Blaisdell occupying the mound for the victors was in fine form, letting the Japanese down with four safeties. Kula batters fattened their averages materially, the team hitting at .319 clip for the game. The feature was the sending of 17 men to the bench via the S. O. route by Blaisdell.

Second Game

Heavy hitting in the pinches rather than tight ball gave Paia a victory over the Haiku aggregation, 6-4. Loose fielding marked the game throughout, Paia being charged with 10 errors and Haiku six. Despite the striking out of 13 men by Reeves the Haiku twirler, the Paia nine accumulated eleven safe hits against four allowed Haiku by Abrew.

Three hundred fans attended the games.

Tennis

Two teams from the Settlement Tennis Club are contenders for the all Maui doubles championship in the finals which are to be decided next Saturday afternoon on the Puunene courts, play to start at 3 o'clock highly creditable to the Wailuku organization that it should have the two strongest teams of the year. Eddie Tam and Young Ting and the Yee brothers are the survivors of the tournament.

At the opening of the tournament the Settlement club was the only one to enter the full five teams the rules permitted. Puunene entered four teams, Paia three and there were two entries each from the Lahaina Tennis Club and the Malu-ulu-o-lele Club, also of Lahaina. Tam and Ting won their place in the finals through the defeat of Walsh and Walsh 6-1, 6-1, 6-3 and Yee brothers defeated Gordon and Gannon of Lahaina 6-2, 6-2, 6-1. The final matches are looked upon to show some of the closest and hardest played tennis seen this year.

Ladies Doubles Start
In the all-Maui ladies doubles one match has been played. Mrs. Fitzgerald and Miss Frances Baldwin defeated Mrs. Wadsworth and Miss Simons 8-6 and 6-1. The first set was one full of good playing and the tide of advantage swung in the balance almost to the end. Miss Young and Mrs. Kunewa are to play Mrs. Deinert and Mrs. Hughes some time this week and the winners will play Mrs. Fitzgerald and Miss Baldwin for the title.

Other Maui Championships
Entries have opened for the men's singles and the ladies' singles Maui championships and can be made with Eddie Tam, Secretary of the All-Maui Tennis committee at the Baldwin Bank Kuluhi up to and including July 30. It is now in order for the various clubs of Maui to send in their entrants in both tournaments, accompanied by the entrance fees. Clubs may enter five candidates in each tournament.

Settlement Champions
In the finals of the Settlement Club's men's doubles handicap Tam and Ting are the winner. Seldom has such tennis been shown on the Valley Isle as in the finals between Tam and Ting and Yemoto and Jim, three of the sets going into extra games. Tam and Ting took the first set, 7-5, but their opponents further stiffened their play in the next and took the set from the former victors by the same score. The third set was easier for the championship contenders and was taken 6-2 and then Yemoto and Jim made a last desperate effort only to lose the decisive set, 7-5.

Men's Handicap Entries
Entries are announced to be open for the Settlement Club's men's singles handicap. They close with Eddie Tam, the club's secretary on July 30.

SPORT WHISPERS

The other day an eminent citizen was heard to remark that appearances are not deceitful. S'funny aint it. When Bambino Ruth was suspended until late in the early part of the season the Yank's had a healthy lead in the American flag race. When Babe came back the Loos'ers proceeded to annex first place. Ban Johnson gave Ruth the gate a short time back and the Yank's started right in to win again. S'funny aint it.

Jack Dempsey isn't such a smart feller, after all. He doesn't know just who he will fight next, or when. Yet most any old editor can tell you both of these things.

Reports have it that the treasury is beginning to wonder what to do with its amassed gold reserve. But wait. Dempsey's going to fight Harry Wills pretty soon.

Question. (From a newcomer to these here parts.) When will the Asahi's stick their heads out of the cellar? Answer—Ask Okamura.

Getting the dope on Jess Willard, what he has done and what he's going to do, is about as easy as finding out which one of the revolting factions in China is on the top. It all depends upon which one you are reading about.

"Benny Leonard to Box Rocky Kanساس," said a headline. Box? Or a wooden kimonos?

George Cummings avows the Wacs' are in the race to win. Well, George, there are four other teams in the same fix.

Inter-Island Polo May Be Played On Maui Soon

Tournament Will Be Unofficial With No Title Or Cup At Stake; Maui Players Hard At Practise

Inter-island polo matches may be seen on Maui this year, according to a report given the Honolulu papers by Frank F. Baldwin, president of the Hawaii Polo Club.

The tourney will be unofficial as far as title or the awarding of a cup will be concerned, but the possibility of an unofficial tournament was some over and the subject taken favorably. Maui players have been gathering in practice for several weeks past and are considered by spectators to be in the top of form. The squad has been divided into three teams and a regular series has started which is expected to continue until the middle of August. Known as the "Reds," "Whites" and "Blues" the games between these teams have been exceptionally fast. Many youngsters to the game are proving just as fast as the veterans.

The Reds are captained by Sam Baldwin and include David Fleming, Captain Janion, Errol von Tempesky, Dr. Baldwin and Dwight Baldwin. The Whites under the guiding wing of Harold Rice is comprised of Bill Clark, Harold Rice, Jr., Jack Moir and H. Rolph. The Blues are a Baldwin team, there being four sons of that family on the roll. Frank Baldwin is captain and his three sons, Edward, Lawrence and Asa are under his tutorage. Dr. Fitzgerald is the other member of the team.
