MADERIAN MISSION

NOW PROMISES WELL

Despite many obstacles, there are most prospects for A. C. Campbell and S. J. of the board of mission on securing a goodly number of Portuguese from Manoa.

Disappointing information about the island and conditions in general have been sent to Honolulu and from that point scattered broadcast. The landing, however, has been very successful. A. C. Campbell, who has been in Honolulu since he signed the Mission bill, while it is complete with regard to the island, work, wages, and conditions, also the islanders and the board of mission.

The mission, which is now in progress, is the first of its kind in the Hawaiian Islands. The mission is now in progress, is the first of its kind in the Hawaiian Islands.
