EWAT STRIKEKERS RETURN WORK

Another Waialua Section Desertas Making--More Threats.

Nearly fourteen hundred men and women retained to work in the mills and in two plantation properties near the Waikele Plantation, where similar action took place. The strike has continued for more than five days.

At four o'clock in the afternoon the men began to come in. The strikebreakers were paid, and the paper office was closed, and the men were paid for the previous day's work. We were present as the men left for the day, and the few who remained were paid.

The strikebreakers were paid, and the strike was called off. The men were satisfied. The strike was settled.

The situation at the Ewa plantations is now calm. The strikebreakers are working, and the men are still out.

eastern lands have been sold to the American Sugar Refining Company, which has been working on the eastern lands for many years.

The American Sugar Refining Company has been working on the eastern lands for many years. It is understood that the company is now working on the eastern lands, and that it has been working on the eastern lands for many years.

The company is working on the eastern lands, and it has been working on the eastern lands for many years. The company has been working on the eastern lands for many years.

The company is still working on the eastern lands, and it has been working on the eastern lands for many years.

The company has been working on the eastern lands for many years. The company has been working on the eastern lands for many years.

The company is still working on the eastern lands, and it has been working on the eastern lands for many years.

The company has been working on the eastern lands for many years. The company has been working on the eastern lands for many years.

The company is still working on the eastern lands, and it has been working on the eastern lands for many years.

The company has been working on the eastern lands for many years. The company has been working on the eastern lands for many years.

The company is still working on the eastern lands, and it has been working on the eastern lands for many years.

The company has been working on the eastern lands for many years. The company has been working on the eastern lands for many years.

The company is still working on the eastern lands, and it has been working on the eastern lands for many years.

The company has been working on the eastern lands for many years. The company has been working on the eastern lands for many years.

The company is still working on the eastern lands, and it has been working on the eastern lands for many years.

The company has been working on the eastern lands for many years. The company has been working on the eastern lands for many years.

The company is still working on the eastern lands, and it has been working on the eastern lands for many years.