[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.] ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 11.—Marshal P. Wilder, the widely known American author and humorist, died in a hotel here yesterday. ## BELGIAN CLAUSE IS ELIMINATED IN CONFERENCE

BELGIAN 12356 78908. ETAOIN
[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 10.—The house and senate conferees, having the senate amended immigration bill under consideration, have agreed to eliminate the provision added by the senate exempting Belgians from the provisions of the full bill and prohibiting the immigration of negroes. If the report is accepted by the senate the bill will go to the President for his expected veto.

STATE MILITIA AGAIN ON DUTY IN STRIKE ZONE

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.] DENVER, Colo., Jan. 10.—That conditions in the mine strike region are not yet settled was evidenced by the ordering of a company of state militia to Walsenburg last night to guard the county jail, at the request of the sheriff. The federal troops left yesterday and the attitude of members and sympathizers of the United Mine Workers' Union was such that the sheriff feared an attack upon the jail, and called upon the governor for state troops.

A sugar refinery of Halifax has taken out 2,000,000 pounds insurance against destruction of its property by bombardment.

BESSIE ABBOT HOWLAND TO TAKE PROMINENT PART IN 'SHO-GUN'

Bessie Abbot Howland, who will fill the prima donna role in George Ade's opera to be given during Carnival week.

Bessie Abbot Howland, the talented actress and vocalist who has won Honolulu's plaudits on a number of occasions, will be seen and heard to good advantage in the role of "Hanni Bun," the prima donna part in "The Sho-Gun," George Ade's splendid opera that has been selected as one of the premier Carnival events.

During the past several months Mrs. Howland has appeared in Honolulu in "Madame Modiste," in which she scored a signal success and has given a number of successful concerts on Maui and Kauai. She has donated her services to the Carnival for this affair, irrespective of the fact that it will necessitate her remaining in Hawaii several weeks longer than she had contemplated. However, according to her own statement, she welcomes an excuse to spend a little longer time in the "Isles of Peace."

"Everyone says the same thing about these islands," says Mrs. Howland, "and I believe everyone means just what they say. Hawaii is the most delightful spot I have ever seen or heard of on the entire globe. I have always had a great big place in my heart for this country since first I say it and, were it not for my professional work, I would wish nothing better than to remain here forever."

"Of course, I say 'forever,' but that means to make it my home. There are times when I would probably wish

FAIR GROUNDS CLOSED UNTIL FORMAL OPENING

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless.] SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 11.—Yesterday the gates of the Panama-Pacific Exposition grounds were closed and will remain closed to the public until the formal opening of the fair. Up to yesterday 2,500,000 persons had visited the grounds since the work began. This constitutes a record for visits prior to the opening of an exposition.

JANUARY MID-PACIFIC FULL OF ARTICLES OF INTEREST ON PACIFIC

The Mid-Pacific Magazine for January contains a remarkable series of illustrated articles from the pens of the leading men of the Pacific and of Hawaii. The head of the Japanese Railway tells how these are conducted in the land of the rising sun. The managers of both the Manila and the Honolulu street railways talk most interestingly of the sights to be seen from their car windows; the heads of Australian states make interesting and authentic statements as to how their governments are conducted; the director-general of our own Carnival, tells interestingly of his plans. The heads of New Zealand and other tourist bureaus tell their stories, while the brightest writers and journalists of Hawaii narrate thrilling tales of adventure, including the story of the Maui Convention.

The January Mid-Pacific Magazine sets a new pace, and it is pleasant to know that hundreds of excerpts from these articles are now sent forth to the press of the world for use in other countries that Hawaii and Pacific lands may become better known abroad.

TROUSERS NO NOVELTY TO HAWAIIANS. TAYLOR TELLS CALIFORNIANS

That the people of Hawaii have no picturesque aboriginal costume is what A. P. Taylor, formerly San Francisco representative of the Promotion Committee, told the directors of the opening ceremonies at the new civic center in the Bay City recently, when he was asked to make a Hawaiian entry in the procession of nations. "The members appeared to think our people were on a par in dress with the tribes of the Philippines, or the natives of Fiji and Samoa," says Mr. Taylor, in a letter to the Promotion Committee. "They seem surprised to hear that, long before San Francisco was occupied by the forty-niners our people were accustomed to the dress of the English and Americans."

BOB CATHCART RUMORED ON TRAIL OF BIG JOB

Dame Rumor is busy in federal court circles again and this time—as in many prior instances—it is carrying the name of Robert Cathcart, Robert, quondam candidate for several city and county jobs and foremost on the list of candidates for the position of federal court messenger is now said to be hot on the trail of a federal plum which, according to those qualified to know, is not likely to drop for some time to come. The rumorists have it that Cathcart is after one of the "higher-up" jobs in federal circles. That is all they know, they say. Just what the position is remains a mystery. They say, however, that they are not surprised to learn that Bob is "looking for something new."

VILLA WHIPS CARRANZISTAS IN THREE-DAY FIGHT AT SALTILLO

Defeat Is Turned Into Victory When Retreating Troops Reorganize
[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.] LAREDO, Mexico, Jan. 11.—It was reported here last night that Gen. Villa has reversed the defeat inflicted upon his troops a few days ago and has decisively defeated the Carranza Gen. Villagreal and Herrera in a three-day battle at Saltillo. Following the first engagement, in which the Carranza forces claimed a decisive victory, Villa fell back upon Saltillo, which was held by his troops, and prepared to give battle again. His troops are reported to have captured Victoria, which was held by the enemy.

HUGE FLEET OF WARSHIPS WILL SAIL THROUGH CANAL, SAYS DANIELS

Plans Fifty-Seven Wardogs to Visit San Francisco In March

The warships will go from the Atlantic by way of the Panama canal. This great fleet will include 21 battleships, 23 torpedo boat destroyers, and 13 auxiliary vessels. ## HERRICK DECLARES U. S. MUST ENTER EUROPEAN POLITICS

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.] NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan. 11.—In a dinner last night at the Lotus Club, Myron T. Herrick, until recently United States ambassador to France, made a speech in which he declared that the nation must prepare to assume greater responsibilities in international affairs after the close of the war in Europe. He said that a considerable advance in the interests of efficiency would have to be made in the diplomatic service and the handling of foreign relations.

THE HALEAKALA HIKERS.

The importance to Maui of the Hume Ford tramp excursion through Haleakala crater should not be underestimated. It was really a remarkable performance and one that no one except a genius such as Ford could have carried through. To Maui it means that more than one hundred wide-awake people have seen Maui's greatest asset in a most impressive manner. If they suffered in the process, it has not hurt the island. The kicks about the trip—and there were some strenuous kicks in that bunch—were all aimed at Ford, and he can stand it. Maui did not suffer. Like all geniuses Mr. Ford has his shortcomings, and in this instance they manifested themselves in lack of attention to details, with the result that a lot of

ARMY INCREASE PLAN INDORSED BY GARRISON

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 11.—Secretary of War Garrison has written a letter to Senator Chamberlain endorsing the latter's bill for the enlargement of the regular army, which is taken to indicate the attitude of the administration in view of the latest developments in the investigation of the condition of the national defenses.

The Chamberlain bill provides for the maintenance of the mobile army at its maximum war strength, in order to bring a much greater number of men under arms. It also provides for an increase of a thousand officers to be apportioned among all arms of the service. If this bill should be adopted by Congress it would raise the enlisted strength of the army, exclusive of the Philippine scouts, to 102,895. Deducting the number of troops required for service overseas, this would leave a mobile force of 50,000 troops under arms at all times within the continental limits of the United States.
