The good ship Wilhelmina, which, with the Sierra, acts as a ferry boat between these lovely old islands and the busy marts of San Francisco, arrived on Tuesday with quite an assembly of Honolulu folk on board. It is certainly good to see our wandering friends returning, and already the stay-at-homes are showing their appreciation by entertainments both formal and otherwise. A delightful little coterie was down at the dock on Tuesday to welcome home Miss Marjell Howatt, and her uncle, Dr. Alfred Wall, after their months of motoring in Southern California. Mrs. Helen Noonan was also received with pleasure, and her nephew, Vernon Tenney.

Miss Eva M. Stevens returned after two years spent in Europe, and Miss Josephine Pratt after a shorter but no less delightful trip in the states. Miss Mary L. Bettis of Punahou was a home-coming passenger after two months with her family in the middle west. Mr. and Mrs. A. Gartenberg with their two small daughters, returned after several months in San Francisco.

The Siberia on Monday brought a large contingent of Honoluluans, among them being President and Mrs. Arthur F. Griffiths and their little daughter, Miss Eleanor Griffiths.

Returning from the volcano on the Mauna Kea Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. MacNeil of Punahou, Miss M. Glade, Miss Herman Focke, and Miss Del Mar, the artist, whose pictures out such a swathe at their recent exhibition. Miss Del Mar has been seeking further ideas for Hawaii pictures on the big island where color is even more riotous than on Oahu. Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Dowsett and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Giffard, completed the list of returners on the Mauna Kea, but every boat from the coast and the other islands is bringing back those who sought to escape the summer heat of Honolulu.

Midshipman Ivan Graham, who is spending his vacation with his mother, Mrs. W. Montrose Graham, on Green Street, has been quite the lion of the hour among the younger set. All of his friends—both youngsters and oldsters—have endeavored to secure some of his time, everyone desiring to extend hospitality to the popular young sailor. On Sunday morning Mrs. Walter Coombs gave him a delicious southern breakfast, with fried chicken and Maryland sauce and everything else that goes toward making a toothsome repast. On Monday, he and Mr. Mason Remy, son of Admiral Remy of Washington, D. C., were the guests of Mrs. G. Agur at a picnic in Manoa Valley. On Tuesday, Mr. Harold Morgan gave a stag picnic in his honor, the party taking a delightful jaunt to Kaneohe. Several hostesses, including Mrs. F. M. Swany at Kualoa and Mrs. C. G. Ballentyne at Kahala, have invited him over week ends in their attractive homes. Last night Mrs. W. M. Graham entertained a hundred or more of his old school friends and classmates at a dance in his honor, the young folk having a delightful time with the favors and novel ideas introduced by the hostess. Mrs. C. B. Cooper is giving a swimming party and supper for the young midshipman on Monday, and a great many other things are on the program, including a large reception next Saturday.

The Princess Kawananakoa was among the hostesses who entertained at box parties this week. Mr. and Mrs. J. Morton Riggs, Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Murray, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr., and Mrs. Francisco Gay were her guests on Wednesday at the Virginia Brissac Company, with supper afterwards at the Rathskeller.

Mr. Clayton Couzens, the brother of Mrs. Arthur Lyon Andrews, sailed last evening for Cornell. Mr. Couzens will enter the junior year at that university, having already completed two years at the College of Hawaii.

Mrs. W. B. Worthen was hostess at a delightful "round-the-island" trip on Monday for Miss Louise Worthen, Miss Mary Worthen, Miss Emille Eleanor Owens, Mr. Hamilton, Agee and Mr. W. Camp. The party motored over the Pal and to Haleiwa where they had lunch, continuing the journey homeward in the cool of the afternoon.

After ten years of hard work, Miss Mary Pamenta has decided to take a vacation. Miss Pamenta will leave by the Mongolia with the Princess Kawananakoa. While away she will spend several weeks in Los Angeles, coming north to Oakland, later to visit her sister and a number of old friends. Miss Pamenta will return to Honolulu the latter part of the year.

mainland. During her absence she visited her former home in Ohio.

Mrs. Riley H. Allen expects to leave next week on the Marama for the mainland, visiting first in the north-west and later going to New York for the winter.

Mrs. William Taylor and small son of Honolulu have been spending a month in Modesto, California, as the guests of Mrs. Andrew Wichman.

Mrs. Herman von Holt entertained the members of the board of missions at her home yesterday. About seventy-five members met to discuss the coming tri-ennial convention in New York.

Mrs. W. B. Worthen and her two charming daughters, Mary and Louise Worthen, called last night on the Sonoma for their home in Littleton, La. The Worthens have spent several weeks in Honolulu, where they were guests at the Pleasanton.

Among the departing passengers on yesterday's Sonoma were Jack and Carter Galt, who go on to resume their studies in the East. The former will enter the freshman class at Yale, though the latter still has another year at the Finebury Preparatory school.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz T. Henshaw have taken a charming little bungalow on Young street and will remain in Honolulu indefinitely to the delight of their many friends. The young couple were prominent members of San Francisco society and are sure to prove a great addition to the younger set here.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wilder are entertaining at a swimming party and supper this evening in honor of Miss Helen Wilder.

Miss Alice Hastings will sail on the Wilhelmina next Wednesday for Boston, where she will enter school.

Lieut. Philip J. Lauber of the 2d Infantry is sailing on the transport Logan this evening on a two months' leave of absence. While away he will receive his promotion and be assigned to another regiment, so Fort Shafter will see him no more. He has been entertained at many little informal affairs prior to his departure. Last evening he was serenaded by the infantry band, while a dozen or more of his friends gathered in his quarters to wish him well. Lieut. Lauber has been more than popular in the post and will be heartily missed by his comrades.

Mr. and Mrs. John Guild have returned from their place at Kaalawai, where they have been spending the summer months and are once more ensconced in their pretty home on Colledge avenue.

Miss Margaret Grant of Los Angeles is spending a week or more in Honolulu as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. G. Ballentyne. Miss Grant is enroute around the world and will join a party of friends passing through on the next steamer.

Mr. and Mrs. Brasch have rented the John Guild place at Kaalawai for the month of September.

Miss Emma Cooley, who has been spending several months in Honolulu as the guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Franklin P. Jackson, sailed last evening on the Sonoma for her home in New Orleans.

Mrs. Frederiek Funston, wife of Brigadier-general Funston, is sailing with her baby daughter for San Francisco on this afternoon's transport. The trip is a very hurried one, and was only decided upon the latter part of this week. During her brief stay in San Francisco Mrs. Funston will be the guest of her sisters, Mrs. W. O. Cullen and Mrs. Frank Howlett. The return trip of the Logan will see her back in Honolulu, she hopes.

Mr. and Mrs. Hocking and family returned this week from Kawaiiloa and are once more settled in their home on Kewalo street.

A stag banquet is being held this evening at the Country Club by its masculine members to celebrate the opening of the 18-hole course. Between fifty and sixty golf devotees are planning to attend.

been attending the summer school in Honolulu, returned to Hilo by the Mauna Kea last Sunday.

Mrs. Dick Young gave a luncheon Monday in honor of Miss Margaret McCarthy of Honolulu, who has been spending several weeks in Hilo as her guest. The luncheon was in the nature of a farewell, as Miss McCarthy left Monday afternoon for her home. The luncheon color scheme was green and yellow, Shasta roses and maidenhair being used for the centerpiece. Those present at the luncheon besides Mrs. Young and Miss McCarthy were: Mrs. G. H. Hazelton, Mrs. J. Jones and Miss A. Davila.

Herbert Truslow and S. S. Rolph gave a stag luncheon in honor of Stephen Desha, Jr., on Labor Day at their bachelor quarters on Reed's island. Those present besides the hosts and the guest of honor were Austh Ashford and George Willfong.

Rev. M. G. Santos, who has purchased the controlling interest in the C. Luso Publishing Company in Honolulu, left last Monday for Honolulu, where he will make his future home and edit the company's newspaper.

Mrs. J. H. Brayton, wife of the Honolulu civil engineer, returned last Sunday from a pleasant visit in Honolulu. She was met here by her husband and the two remained in Hilo to spend Labor Day.

Miss Z. de la Nux, who is the teacher of a Kau school, is visiting friends and relatives in Hilo. She arrived here last Sunday after spending several weeks attending summer school in Honolulu.

Miss B. B. Taylor, supervising principal of the Kau schools, returned from Honolulu last Sunday.

The Burns club is giving an invitational dance in the Masonic hall on Saturday evening.

Dance for Stephen Desha. [Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

HILO, Sept. 5.—Perhaps one of the most pleasurable affairs in Hilo during the summer was the dance given in honor of Stephen Desha, Jr., last Monday evening. At least a hundred friends of the young man, who is soon to leave for the mainland to attend law school, were present. Care had been taken in making all the arrangements, the hall being prettily decorated with green ferns and flowers and the music for the dancing was exceptionally good. Cooling liquid refreshments were served throughout the evening to quench the thirst of the dancers.

The hostesses and hosts of the evening were the Misses Mundons, Miss Bernice Dwight, Misses Eliza and Ida Desha and George Desha.

The dance given in the armory last night, also in honor of young Desha, was largely attended and highly enjoyed, the dancing continuing until a late hour. A tidy sum of money was realized from the dance, which is to be presented to Desha as a showing of appreciation for the many times he has helped to make church and amateur theatrical productions in Hilo a success.

WOMAN IN TERRIBLE STATE

Finds Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Bellevue, Ohio.—"I was in a terrible state before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My back ached until I thought it would break, I had pains all over me, nervous feelings and periodic troubles. I was very weak and run down and was losing hope of ever being well and strong. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I improved rapidly and today am a well woman. I cannot tell you how happy I feel and I cannot say too much for your Compound. Would not be without it in the house if it cost three times the amount."—Mrs. CHAS. CHAPMAN, R. F. D. No. 7, Bellevue, Ohio.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has remedied many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and it may be exactly what you need.

The Pinkham record is a proud and peerless one. It is a record of constant victory over the obstinate ills of woman—ills that deal out despair. It is an established fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored health to thousands of such suffering women. Why don't you try it if you need such a medicine?
