Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter, with their party, steamed out of Honolulu harbor in their yacht, the Niagara, at about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon bound for Hilo and the sightseeing trip to the volcano of Kilauea. They are expected to return to Honolulu on Friday at the Cavalry Club for 60 days.

Although the visit of these distinguished tourists was extremely brief, they nevertheless were the recipients of considerable attention from their many friends here. From the moment of their arrival on last Friday morning until their departure their time was fully occupied, although the entertaining for the most part was informal.

Last Saturday Captain and Mrs. Edward Carpenter entertained them at dinner at the Country Club. On Sunday the party spent most of the day on Tantalus, while in the evening they entertained about 30 guests at a dinner-dance on board their yacht.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wilner entertained the party at luncheon on Monday, after which they journeyed to the beach, where the afternoon was spent in surfing. In the evening they returned to attend general and Mrs. Clarence R. Edwards' dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane entertained them at luncheon at their lovely country home, Anuimau, yesterday afternoon, from which they returned in time to depart for Hilo at 5 o'clock. Their friends here regret that their visit in this port was limited to such a very short time.

Among those departing on the Matsonia this morning was Mrs. Byron O. Clark, her daughter, Miss Miriam Clark, and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Ellsworth, who are accompanied by their four children. Mr. and Mrs. Clark came to the islands about 15 years ago and during their long residence here have surrounded themselves with a host of friends who regret exceedingly to see them go for it will undoubtedly be a number of years before they may return. They expect to make their homes in northern California, where both Mr. Clark and Mr. Ellsworth have purchased land. Miss Clark, who received her bachelor of science degree at the College of Hawaii this year, plans to do post graduate work at Berkeley next year, probably taking her master's degree. Her mother will remain in Berkeley with her during the college year.

Business will detain Mr. Clark in Honolulu for about a month longer after which time he will follow his family. A large number of their friends were at the boat to wish these well-known people "bon voyage" and happiness in their new surroundings.

One of the brilliant events of the week which has created considerable interest was the wedding at noon yesterday of Miss Charlotte Reichmann, daughter of Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Carl Reichmann, and Lieut. Livingston Watrous, U. S. A. The ceremony was performed by Rt. Rev. Henry Bond Restarick at St. Andrew's Cathedral before a large number of the relatives and friends of the couple.

The church was beautifully decorated in green and white. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast served at the Young Hotel was enjoyed by the bridal party and a few other guests.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Watrous departed on the Matsonia this morning on their honeymoon, which they will spend at the coast. A host of friends were at the wharf to see them off and the happy couple were almost buried beneath the leis and good wishes heaped upon them.

Miss Miriam Clark was the complimented guest at a card-evening last Saturday at which Miss Shirley Foster was hostess. At the end of a number of closely contested games the first prize was won by Mr. R. Chase Foster, while the consolation went to Mr. Roy McAdam. After the cards each guest was given a pencil and paper and asked to contribute one page to a going-away book for Miss Clark, who departed on the Matsonia this morning. Some of these farewell inscriptions and particularly the illustrations, were most amusing.

Those who were present to wish Miss Clark a "bon voyage" were: Miss Bernice Smith, Miss Francis Foster, Miss Dorothy Roab, Mrs. Charles Girdler, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Ellsworth, Mr. Bryan Girdler, Mr. Roy McAdam, Mr. Will Barnhart, Mr. William Morgan, Mr. Val Marcellino, Mr. Chase Foster, Mr. Ralph Girdler and Mr. Harold Starratt.

The members of the Cornell Club were hosts at a very informal and enjoyable dinner at the University Club on Monday evening given in honor of Mr. Chester J. Hunn, who is soon to leave Honolulu to make his home in Porto Rico. Although a number of the club members are absent from the islands, all those who were in the city were present at the dinner and enjoyed a very pleasant evening. Dr. A. L. Andrews acted as toastmaster, and Mr. Wilbur J. MacNeil presented Mr. Hunn with a souvenir gift in the name of the club. Several of the undergraduates who were present gave short talks on the recent activities at Cornell. During the dinner two records sung by the Cornell Glee Club were played on the phonograph, carrying each man present back five thousand miles to his alma mater, and arousing more than one pang of homesickness.

Dr. George Herbert was recently registered at the Bellevue in San Francisco.

Miss Vivienne Weeks of Oakland, who is a popular member of the younger set there, is to be a Honolulu bride in August, according to the following clipping:

One of the engaged girls who is receiving a large share of social attention this month is Miss Vivienne Weeks, the fiancée of Charles Wilson of Honolulu. Miss Weeks will sail in August for Honolulu, and immediately upon her arrival in the islands her marriage will take place, being an important society event of the season there. The popular bride-elect was the feted guest at one of the interesting parties of the week given by Mrs. Elizabeth Friedrich at her home in Berkeley. The affair was a luncheon, followed by a miscellaneous shower for a score of young friends. Besides being socially a favorite, Miss Weeks is well known in art circles, having earned considerable reputation with her oil and water color work. She is a daughter of Percy Weeks.—San Francisco Examiner.

A very quiet wedding which was the culmination of a Hawaiian romance took place yesterday at five o'clock when Miss Louise Herring of Brooklyn, New York, became the bride of Mr. Ralph A. Cuthbertson. The ceremony was performed at St. Andrew's cathedral by Canon Ault in the presence of a few relatives and friends.

After the wedding the bride and groom, accompanied by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herring, and several friends, motored out to the Moana hotel where a delightful wedding supper was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbertson left for a brief honeymoon in the country after which they will return to Honolulu to make their home. Mr. Cuthbertson, who is an expert in the Star-Bulletin photo illustration department, has been a resident of Honolulu for some time, living at the Anahau hotel, and it was here that the happy couple first met when Miss Herring was on a visit to the islands last winter in company with her mother.

Covers were placed for: Miss Cordelia Walker, Mrs. William Walker, Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Mrs. James Judd, Miss Amy Greenwell, Miss Helen Alexander, Miss Nora Sturgeon, Mrs. Robert Elgin, Mrs. Alfred Castle, Mrs. Ernest Ross, Mrs. Stubbs, Mrs. Arthur Wilder, Mrs. Herbert Dowsett, Mrs. William Williamson, Miss Harriet Hatch, Miss Alice Cooke, Mrs. Arthur Mackintosh, Mrs. Frank Armstrong, Mrs. Harold Giffard, Mrs. Albert Judd, Mrs. Arthur Wall, Mrs. Montague Cooke, Miss Margaret Walker, Mrs. Ferdinand F. Hedemann, Mrs. E. Faxon Blahon, Miss Bernice Hartwell and Mrs. Sorenson.

Among the parties journeying to the country for a few days was a group of young people who "hiked" over the Pali on Monday to spend four or five days at the Theodore Richards bungalow at Kaneohe. They are enjoying a very jolly outing—swimming, fishing, boating and various games, passing the hours most pleasantly. They expect to return the latter part of the week and if the Pali "short-cut" seems too steep, they will take one of the stages back to town. The party, which is being chaperoned by Miss Winterfield and Miss Markay, consists of Miss Rachel Woods, Miss Ruth Stacker, Miss Inez Gibson, Miss Madeline Chapin, Miss Mildred Chapin, Miss Dorothy Winter, Mr. Howard Johnstone, Mr. Joe Smith, Mr. Ralph Greiv, Mr. John Warren, Mr. Albert Bush and Mr. Campbell Crozier.

ple who made up the party were: Miss Louise McCarthy, Miss Virginia McCarthy, Miss Margaret McCarthy, Miss Abbe Lucas, Miss Psyche Berry, Mr. Campbell Crozier, Mr. Elmer Crozier, Mr. Shirley and Mr. Albert Bush.

Mr. Herman Focke's picnic at Ahuimanu last Saturday afternoon was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the week. Owing to the condition of the roads on windward Oahu the trip had been postponed a week and on Saturday the merry parties motored to their destination without mishap.

The affair was given in honor of Mr. Paul Hasson, Mrs. Focke's nephew, who has recently arrived from Africa.

A pretty wedding took place at 8 o'clock on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Andrews, 743 Wylie street, when Miss Carolyn Estelle Case became the bride of Mr. Samuel Willis Nalls. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. A. Ebersole in the presence of a few relatives and friends.

Mr. Rupert Matthews acted as best man for Mr. Nalls and Mr. Andrews attended the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Nalls have departed on their honeymoon and will be at home in Honolulu after September 1.

It seems that quite a number of California's young "newly-weds" are paying Honolulu the compliment of coming here to make their permanent home. One of the most recently married couples to decide to live here is spoken of in the following clipping:

Adeline Trautner became the bride of Leland D. Webb of Larkspur at a quiet home wedding yesterday. After a short honeymoon in southern California Mr. and Mrs. Webb will journey to Honolulu where they will make their future home.—San Francisco Bulletin.

A recent engagement, which is of considerable interest to Honoluluans, is that of Miss Irma Ballentyne daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cjnton Graham Ballentyne, to Mr. Clifford Watson White of Cashmere, Washington. Miss Ballentyne has just returned from a two-year visit spent in the Pacific northwest to surprise her many friends here with the news of her engagement.

The date of the wedding has not been definitely set as yet, but it will probably be some time during the winter.

Among those who entertained informally during the past week was Miss Grace Bredhoff, who was hostess to a few of her friends on last Friday afternoon. The time was pleasantly passed at cards, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Miss Jannatt Sharp, Miss Bernice Halstead, Miss Helen McLean, Miss Ramona Moran, Miss Margaret Thurston, Miss Thelma Murphy and Miss Bredhoff.

Mrs. Olaf Sorenson was a charming hostess on last Friday afternoon when she entertained at luncheon at the country club in honor of Miss Cordelia Walker, whose engagement to Mr. Carl Dunkhase was recently announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hopkins regrettably to learn of her recent illness which has extended over a period of three weeks or more, and hope she will soon be able to resume her place in social affairs.

Friends of Mrs. Frank Hopkins regret to learn of her recent illness which has extended over a period of three weeks or more, and hope she will soon be able to resume her place in social affairs.

French investors lost 556,000,000 francs ($112,000,000) during the last six months on depreciations.

Mr. Chitty entertained at auction on Friday at the Cavalry Club for 60 days of the ladies of the garrison.

Friday Lieutenant and Mrs. Glassford's guests at dinner were Captain and Mrs. Frankenberg.

Wednesday the Cavalry Artillery Auction Club was entertained by Mrs. Glassford.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison entertained very delightfully on Wednesday evening for a number of music lovers. The evening was spent in enjoying Mrs. Potter's beautiful voice, both in solo and with Lieutenant Samuelson's accomplished obligato, Mrs. Harrison rendering graceful accompaniment. Miss Harrison and Lieutenant Daly sang several duets. The guests were Captain and Mrs. McCaskey, Lieutenant and Mrs. Daly, Miss Katherine Daly, Lieutenant and Mrs. Potter, Lieutenant and Mrs. Glassford, Miss Dorothy Forsyth, and Lieutenants Fales, Sattler and Samuelson.

Thursday, Mrs. Charles Baker was hostess at a five table auction party. Those present were Mesdames Willcyng, Holcomb, Warren, Renzlehausen, O'Shea, Dixon, Chitty, Parker, Kennen, Hall, Cassels, Short, Beach, Wells, Harrison, Jordan, Siner, Miss Ellis and Mrs. Hofgaard of Honolulu. A set of three Japanese bowls were given to each of the five ladies winning at her table: Mesdames Willcyng, Dixon, Cassels, Hall and Siner.

Mrs. McCleave entertained the ladies of the 25th garrison at dinner and bridge on Monday evening. The guests were Mesdames Kennen, Reichman, Miss Reichmann, Mesdames Gose, Butts, Hunt, Caldwell, Mitchell, Wygant, McAfee, Lamb, Taylor, Mapes, Meals, and Higgins. The rubber game was played at each of the four tables, a pair of dainty silk stockings being the prize at each table.

Captain and Mrs. Frankenberg gave a pretty dinner on Monday evening for Captain and Mrs. Browning and Lieut. and Mrs. Potter. The table presented a dainty appearance with its centerpiece of pink flowers.

Major and Mrs. Harrison entertained very delightfully on Wednesday evening for a number of music lovers. The evening was spent in enjoying Mrs. Potter's beautiful voice, both in solo and with Lieutenant Samuelson's accomplished obligato, Mrs. Harrison rendering graceful accompaniment. Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbertson left for a brief honeymoon in the country after which they will return to Honolulu to make their home. Mr. Cuthbertson, who is an expert in the Star-Bulletin photo illustration department, has been a resident of Honolulu for some time, living at the Anahau hotel, and it was here that the happy couple first met when Miss Herring was on a visit to the islands last winter in company with her mother.

Dainty baskets filled with fragrant roses and decorated with generous bows of tulle formed effective centerpieces for the tables, while at each individual place was an old-fashioned corsage bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison entertained very delightfully on Wednesday evening for a number of music lovers. The evening was spent in enjoying Mrs. Potter's beautiful voice, both in solo and with Lieutenant Samuelson's accomplished obligato, Mrs. Harrison rendering graceful accompaniment. Miss Harrison and Lieutenant Daly sang several duets. The guests were Captain and Mrs. McCaskey, Lieutenant and Mrs. Daly, Miss Katherine Daly, Lieutenant and Mrs. Potter, Lieutenant and Mrs. Glassford, Miss Dorothy Forsyth, and Lieutenants Fales, Sattler and Samuelson.

Thursday, Mrs. Charles Baker was hostess at a five table auction party. Those present were Mesdames Willcyng, Holcomb, Warren, Renzlehausen, O'Shea, Dixon, Chitty, Parker, Kennen, Hall, Cassels, Short, Beach, Wells, Harrison, Jordan, Siner, Miss Ellis and Mrs. Hofgaard of Honolulu. A set of three Japanese bowls were given to each of the five ladies winning at her table: Mesdames Willcyng, Dixon, Cassels, Hall and Siner.

Mrs. McCleave entertained the ladies of the 25th garrison at dinner and bridge on Monday evening. The guests were Mesdames Kennen, Reichman, Miss Reichmann, Mesdames Gose, Butts, Hunt, Caldwell, Mitchell, Wygant, McAfee, Lamb, Taylor, Mapes, Meals, and Higgins. The rubber game was played at each of the four tables, a pair of dainty silk stockings being the prize at each table.

Captain and Mrs. Frankenberg gave a pretty dinner on Monday evening for Captain and Mrs. Browning and Lieut. and Mrs. Potter. The table presented a dainty appearance with its centerpiece of pink flowers.
