the Hawaiian climate.

KAMANA was sentenced by Justice Hopkins this morning to pay a fine of $81 and $130 costs and be imprisoned six months at hard labor, for the larceny of a boat.

THERE is a bad hog caused by much heavy traffic at Queen and Alakea streets. It has existed a long time and many people wish its turn would come soon for repairs.

YOUNG people who have any notion of the newspaper business may hear something to help them to a decision by attending the informal talk at Y.
M. C. A. hall Monday evening.

TTHIS is the last day of the October term of the Supreme Court. The double sittings seem to have been successful this trip. Had only one jury sat at a time the calendar would have been very slightly reduced.

MR. Ben Hogan will give his great stereopticon show of select views from many parts of the world this evening.
Those who have attended previous ones testify that they have never seen them equaled. Y. M. C. A. hall at 8

THE rainfall for the month of October at the Government rain gauge at Punalou has been 4.64 inches, the usual average being 2.30. At the electric light works 7.74 inches. The month of October during the past 16 years has furnished 6 percent, and November 15 percent of the total annual amount.

At a meeting of the Hui Kalaiaina last night a protest was raised against the supplanting of Mr. J. A. Kahoonei (Akina) by Hon. R. W. Wilcox in the presidential chair. After a stormy discussion Mr. Wilcox acknowledged he had been mistaken in distrusting the former President's fidelity to the organization, and thereupon resigned the chair to that gentleman. Mr. Ka-hooinei resumed the chair and the meeting dispersed in peace.

"NUUANU street above Hotel street," was the place indicated by the telephone as having a fire after 11 o'clock last night. The engine of Mechanic Engine Co. No. 2 was there quicker than it takes to tell it, and Honolulu Engine Co. No. 1 was a minute or two behind the first, having a longer run from house. The cause of alarm was an exploded lamp in a Chinese house, and the lamp had been tossed out on the street before it set fire to anything.

CALEDONIAN CELEBRATION.

First Halloween Ball of the Scottish Thistle Club.

Beretania street Armory has been more profusely decorated, but never more tastefully and in accord with a particular occasion than last night.
The event was the first Halloween ball of the Honolulu Thistle Club. A high platform for the orchestra had been erected at the head of the hall.
This structure was draped with Hawa-ian, American and British flags, and on its front were a portrait of Queen Victoria and the Scottish standard (a rampant lion). The standard and the cross of St. George were on the wall at the other end of the hall. Flags of several nations were hung all around the walls. Pictures of scenes, buildings, statues, monuments, etc., in Scotland, were hung on the posts of the main hall, also on the walls of the dressing rooms, the frames being draped with Scottish plaids in different clan tartans. Flags in the marine signal code depended from the middle truss beam the length of the room.

People began streaming in shortly before eight o'clock, and continued to come until over 200 had assembled. Music started for an order of 14 dances shortly after eight, Prof.
H. Berger leading the full Royal Hawaiian Orchestra. The dances included the Highland scottische, Scottish and Virginia reels, and Patronella. A few extras were given and the large and happy assemblage hurried the hours with flying feet, scarcely anyone going home till the close at one o'clock. At intermission Mr. John G. Lumsden, arrayed in full Highland military costume, gave a fine exhibition of the sword dance. He was loudly recalled and in equally good style gave the Highland fling. Prof. Berger and band rendered many Scottish tunes in the course of the ball with the greatest satisfaction, notwithstanding that they had only two or three days' notice for practicing the unusual bars.

The refreshments were supplied and served by the Elite Ice Cream Parlors. Mr. Steiner managing the service in per-on. Ice cream and cake, lemonade and hot coffee, were available the whole night. Everything, in fact, passed off with the utmost smoothness. There was not a frown or the occasion of one throughout. The floor committee did their work with perfect agreeableness and tact. At the close of the last dance the company sang "Auld Lang Syne" with interlocked hands, making a very impressive finale.

Following is a list of committees who had charge of this successful first Halloween ball:

Reception—G. Sandeman, D. Logan, J. Pollock, W. Eddie, W. F.
Wilson.

Floor—D. Douglas (floor manager), J. G. Lumsden, G. L. Dall, R. More,
W. McKay.

Decorations—R. More, W. F.
Wilson.

George and the Honolulu Arion were

EWA MILL.

By kind invitation of Mr. J. N. S.
Williams, Manager of the Union Iron Works, a large party of merchants and representative sugar men took a trip to the Ewa plantation to-day to witness the inauguration of the sugar mill. Although the mill is not at present perfect, yet what part of the machinery was run gave a fair idea of its capabilities. The macera-tion rollers were put into motion and everything ran smoothly. The cane slicers were also given a run and worked with lightning speed. After an inspection of the mill, the workings being explained by Messrs. J. N. S. Williams, Robert More and Hughes, the party adjoined to the dining room where a collation was spread, and it need not be said that ample justice was done to the good things. The company returned to town about 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, all pleased with the promoters of the excursion and voting Ewa Mill a success and the Union Iron Works, who were responsible for the construction, a credit to Honolulu.
