

HAWAII SISAL BEST FOR ROPE

Coast Cordage Company Prepares Local Product to Hemp.

Hawaii has gained another foothold in the world of commerce with a commodity native to these islands, and, not according to reports alone, but to the standing of the article itself in a manufactured state, it will soon rank with sugar, pineapples, bananas and coffee. It is Hawaii's island-grown sisal.

Captain Charles Chittenden, representing the Tubbs Cordage Company of California, is in this city making a thorough investigation regarding sisal and its production. The Tubbs Cordage Company has been taking all of the product in the sisal line that Hawaii has seen fit to produce so far, and has been manufacturing the same into cordage of all kinds and sizes. According to the statements of Captain Chittenden, sisal has been found very much superior to the hemp raised in Manila for the making of rope of all kinds. In the tests of strength that have been made between the two commodities, sisal has stood a much more severe strain. It makes up much smoother than hemp and, with proper care, will outlast a Manila-made rope to twice the life of the Manila hemp.

Captain Chittenden brought down with him a cowboy lasso that was made by the firm he represents from Hawaiian sisal, and it certainly is a thing of beauty along that line. He states that the cowboys on the Coast are much taken with the new rope and are much in favor of it.

The lasso brought here has been placed on exhibition in one of the windows of the Inter-Island steamship company. It is fifty feet long.

PARTY IS GIVEN ON DELEGATE'S BIRTHDAY

Col. Sam Parker's Home Scene of Merrymaking to Honolulu.

In honor of the birthday of Prince Kuhio, Delegate to Congress, a luncheon was given yesterday at the Pearl Harbor home of Colonel Sam Parker, the guests being taken to the harbor from the city on the launch Kulanani II. A large number of legislators as well as other prominent citizens responded to the invitation, and the luncheon was a notable one. About fifty were present. The launch left Honolulu at 10 o'clock, taking guests making the trip down by automobile.

Part of the morning was spent by the guests in looking over the progress of the drydock construction at the harbor, after which they adjourned to the Parker home, where the luncheon was served on the long table.

REV. URCH PREACHES AT M. E. CHURCH

The pulpit of the Methodist church was occupied yesterday forenoon by Rev. Urch of the First M. E. church of Oklahoma, and the service was exceptionally interesting.

The visiting pastor is a speaker of considerable force and holds his audience with every word. He is now on his way to Singapore where he has been sent on a special mission.

The evening service was one of farewell to R. S. Gault and Frank Lee. There was special music at this service, and Mr. Gault and Mr. Lee each gave a short address.

Pastor Smith, in his closing remarks, expressed sentiments of regret that these two young men should have to leave the church for the work of these two in Christian work has been very great and has been appreciated by the people of Honolulu.

COMMITTEE LOOKS OVER PROPOSED PARK

Chairman Alfonso and the other members of the House Committee on public lands and internal improvements took a trip Saturday afternoon by auto out to Makiki Valley to see the site of the park proposed in a bill introduced by Representative Marechaline, of Oahu. Two hours were spent in looking over the site, the committee going to the top of Mt. Tantalus and getting a view downward. A great deal of the land does not look as if it were available for anything but park purposes.

TOM M'TIGHE PASSES AWAY

"Irish Consul," One of City's Best Known Characters, Dies Suddenly.

Thomas F. McTighe, one of the best-known men in Honolulu and the best-loved, died yesterday afternoon at 3:29 o'clock at his home on Young street, from hemorrhaging of the bowels. He had been ill less than two weeks. Funeral services took place at 1 o'clock this afternoon from the family residence, and after a brief service the body was taken to the Catholic mission, where services were held at 1:30, the body afterward being taken to Pearl City for interment.

McTighe was known to everyone as "Tom," and was called "The Irish Consul" as an affectionate nickname. He was born in Ireland July 18, 1861, came to Hawaii in 1886 in a Lecturers' immigrant ship, and after some employment at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel as clerk and manager, became associated with MacFarlane & Co. After seven years here he entered the retail liquor business on his own account, and after purchasing the interest of a partner, Genoa, took over the entire control of his well-known place of business on King street. He was one of the city's characters, and the approach of St. Patrick's birthday was always heralded by some unique souvenir sent around by "The Irish Consul," the one this year being a small green lapel flag with an Irish harp as an emblem.

A number of his friends and members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians acted as pall-bearers at the funeral service today—John Hughes, John Walker, Henry Gehring, P. E. Dillon, Tom Smith and F. D. Creedon, president of the A. O. H. He leaves a widow and five children. The eldest son will assume management of the business.

KAUAI PAPER WILL BUILD NEW PLANT

Garden Island, Burned Out With Entire Loss, Getting New Equipment Now.

The "fire edition" of the Garden Island, of Lihue, Kauai, came in from Kauai on the mail yesterday, and shows that the management of this paper is aggressive and determined. The paper is a small, six-page folder but the spirit expressed in a few words on the front page "Success is never won on the first lap, but at the tape," breathes through the whole issue.

By courtesy of the Kanai Shipco, the Garden Island is allowed the use of this paper's plant. Concerning its future, the editor of the Garden Island has this to say:

"The question of a new and bigger Garden Island was definitely settled this morning by a meeting of the stockholders who authorized an expenditure sufficient to erect a new building and furnish it with a complete up-to-date job and newspaper plant. Our manager is now in Honolulu purchasing the new plant, a part of which arrived this morning. We are exceedingly grateful to our many patrons for their expressions of sympathy which to a great extent have given us courage to continue our efforts in supplying Kauai with a live newspaper. We were particularly impressed with the many expressions of condolence received from school children.

In the new and better Garden Island, the school children can rest assured that their interests will be well looked after. The fire occurred at 1 o'clock Sunday night, and when discovered, it had progressed so far as to make it impossible to get near the building. The loss amounts to nearly five thousand dollars with no insurance. The Daily Record has not missed an issue and the weekly is delayed owing to shortness of type in the Kanai Shipco office, from which both daily and weekly editions will appear until our new plant arrives.

Weekly Bulletin $1 per year.

OPPOSE SUNDAY PICTURE SHOWS

Churches of the City Declare Against Passage of Quinn Bill.

United opposition was voiced yesterday in the churches of the city to the passage by the Territorial Legislature of the Quinn Sunday theater bill, which would open the vaudeville and moving-picture houses of the city on the Sabbath if the supervisors approved.

At the Episcopal cathedral a resolution was passed at the meeting of the vestry, declaring opposition to the bill and requesting Bishop Restarick to ask the men of the congregation to write to Senators and Representatives expressing their objection to interference with the existing laws.

At the other Protestant churches throughout the city, resolutions were presented and adopted, declaring against the opening of the shows on Sunday. A paragraph was added reading as follows:

"We do also petition for the passage of House Bill No. 140, which guarantees to barbers a Sunday rest."

Bishop Liberty of the Roman Catholic church states that he is opposed to Sunday opening, and that the influence of theaters running on Sunday would be altogether bad.

The actors do not regard the idea of working on Sunday with much pleasure, and a number of performers now appearing locally have expressed themselves as being opposed to the passage of the Quinn bill.

J. T. Scully, manager of the Honolulu Amusement Company, contends that no harm will be done by the Sunday theaters, declaring that the present bill leaves the opening to the discretion of the boards of supervisors. The bill in question was introduced in the Senate by Senator Ed. Quinn of Oahu and passed the upper house, the only vote against it being cast by Senator David K. Baker of Hawaii.

FAMOUS SINGERS OF OLD WORLD COMING

W. D. Adams, manager of the Hawaiian Opera House, announces that the famous Sheffield choir is coming here in May. It is expected to arrive on May 17 and to give at least one performance. The choir is composed of 200 voices, and it may be difficult to find a suitable place in the city for the concert.
