

DAILY BULLETIN

SATURDAY, JULY 6, 1889.

Dr. G. Herbert's q m Darling, 6 yrs 3
Ivanhoe Stables' b m Miss Fournier, 3 yrs 4
Ah Mi's bl g Jack, aged 5 4
Ivanhoe Stables' pinto g Billy, 5 yrs 6

When the flag fell Hana Girl, ridden by Cal Leonard, took the lead and never being headed, won easily by a length and a half. Time 58 seconds.

9-Waihee Purse $50. Trotting Race, to harness, 1 mile heats, best 2 in 3, free to all.

H. G. Treadway's b g Sleepy Sam, 1 2 1
J. H. Stelling's b m Lottie C... 3 1 3
Waikapu Stables' g Dick... 2 0 2
Time 3:14, 3:26, 3:08.

First heat-Sleepy Sam, well driven by Mr. Treadway, held the lead throughout, passing under the wire an easy winner.

Second heat-Sleepy Sam again took the lead at the word go, and held it until about 200 yards from the wire, where Lottie C passed him and finished first. Dick, who was driven by J. Avery, pulled up after going half a mile.

Third heat-The Judges allowed Dick to run in this heat and H. J. Agnew to drive him. Sleepy Sam held first position throughout, beating Dick easily by two lengths.

10-Novelty Race-Purse $60. Running Race, 1 mile dash, for Hawaiian bred horses, 1st quarter, 2nd quarter, 3rd quarter, 4th quarter.

Ivanhoe Stables' g Jerry, aged, 120 lbs. Bell 1
Waikapu Stables' gr h Troubadour, 2 yrs, 75 lbs. Joe Uu 2
C. B. Miles' b g Capt. Jack, 4 yrs, 123 lbs. Noble 3

Captain Jack carried five pounds overweight. A false start was made, but Troubadour went away in earnest, his diminutive jockey being unable to pull him in until he had run a little over three-quarters of a mile.

When Troubadour passed the wire he swerved a little and knocked over Messrs. Broad and von Tempisky, but they were not hurt. At the word go Capt. took the lead with Jerry second. Before the first quarter was reached Jerry passed Capt. Jack, and he and Troubadour passed the half mile level. A little farther on Jerry took the lead and eventually won the race by one and a half lengths. Troubadour, whose extra running evidently told, was second, fifteen lengths ahead of Captain Jack. Time 2:24.

11-Corinthian Race-Gold Medal-Entrance Fee $10. Running Race, 1 mile dash, free to all, owners to ride, welterweights.

Mr. E. Omsted's b g Tommy the Scrub, aged, 148 lbs. Owner 1
Dr. G. Herbert's gr m Darling, 6 yrs, 148 lbs. Owner 2

Mr. L. M. Vetlesen's Manuwal was entered, but that gentleman was not well enough to ride. Tommy the Scrub got the best of the start, but was passed after fifty yards had been run, by Darling. Passing the wire both horses were together. A quarter of a mile from the wire Tommy the Scrub took the lead, and coming along won the race by a full length. Time 2:34.

12-Manna Cup-Purse $100. Running Race, 1 1/4 mile dash, for all Hawaiian bred horses.

Waikapu Stables' gr h Conspiracy, 4 yrs, 113 lbs. Leonard 1
Ivanhoe Stables' br g Ivanhoe 5 yrs, 117 lbs. Bell 2
Waikapu Stables' b h W K P, 3 yrs, 115 lbs. Kona 3

W K P carried 13 pounds overweight. After two false attempts they got away to a fair start. Conspiracy taking the lead, Ivanhoe Jr. lost. After half a mile had been run Ivanhoe Jr. passed W K P and went up to Conspiracy, but the latter, well ridden by Leonard, shook him off, and eventually won the race easily by four lengths. Ivanhoe Jr. pulled up lame. Time 2:28 1/2.

13-Mule Race-Purse $25. Running Race, 1/4 mile dash, free to all, catchweight.

Ivanhoe Stables' Nigger 1
L. von Tempisky's Kula Boy 2
This race caused much excitement. The Kula Boy party had every confidence in their animal repeating previous successes, but he did not, for Nigger ridden by little Joe Uu took the lead, and kept it to the end winning in the easiest manner. Time 1:16.

A FEW STRAY NOTES. More hospitable people than those residing on Maui, could not be found anywhere.

Everyone present at the celebration was loud in praise of the playing of the detachment of the Hawaiian band. The boys did themselves credit.

Major Cornwell's kahuna occupied a seat in the grand stand. Mr. Henry G. Treadway makes a model clerk of the course. He does not allow anybody on the track during a race.

Mr. A. F. Hopke, U. S. Consular Agent, was voted to be the handsomest man on the grounds. The sum of $629 was taken during the day for admission to the grounds.

Mr. C. H. Broad is the owner of the Ivanhoe Stable's stock. He did well through the day.

Mr. W. A. McKay was the "speaker" of the judges' stand. Dr. Geo. Herbert in his riding costume was the subject of much admiration from the ladies.

Major Cornwell looked killing in a gray suit with innumerable badges on his left breast.

Mr. J. H. Stelling is said to be a "professional driver" from the States. His cap took the cake for neatness.

Fifteen bald heads were counted in the grand stand. What does this mean? Love M. Vetlesen! Why not? Suppose someone does.

THE BALL. In the evening a ball was given at the court-house, Wailuku, for which handsome invitations had been issued.

The interior of the room was very neatly decorated with streamers of stars and stripes and evergreens, and the floor had been prepared for dancing. At the front entrance hung several Chinese lanterns. The Hawaiian string band occupied seats at the upper end of the room and played for dancing in fine style.

The invited guests as they arrived were received by the reception committee, Messrs. H. G. Treadway, A. Barnes and G. H. Tweedie. The floor committee was Messrs. W. H. Cornwell, J. H. Stelling and L. M. Vetlesen. Among those present were noticed His Majesty the King, Hon. C. F. and Mrs. Horner, Maj. W. H. Cornwell, Capt. John Ross, Hon. John Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Stoltz, Miss Crittenden, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Mossman, Miss Mossman, Mr. R. D. Walbridge, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Chillingworth, Dr. Geo. Herbert, Misses E. K. and N. Daniels, Dr. A. A. and Mrs. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. J. Noble, Mr. and Mrs. E. Norrie, Capt. Wm. Davis, Misses Crook (2), Mr. Thos. E. Evans, Mr. David Center, Miss Richardson, Messrs. G. C. Potter, G. H. Tweedie, C. E. Coville, H. Z. Austin, C. Bosse, J. H. Stelling, H. G. Treadway, A. Barnes, and others.

The program contained fifteen dances as follows: lancers, waltz, polka, quadrille, waltz, lancers, polka, schottische, lancers, waltz, polka, quadrille, waltz, polka and waltz. At midnight a very nice supper was served, after which dancing was renewed and kept up with spirit until three o'clock in the morning.

The ball was a success in every way, thanks to the excellent arrangements by the committee, Messrs. H. G. Treadway, C. F. Horner and J. H. Stelling.

THE CONTEMPT CASES.

The Court Revokes its Disallowance of the Marshal's Return and Remits the Marshal's Fine.

Upon the opening of the Court at 10 o'clock this morning, the Marshal being before the Court, the Court said:

"The conclusion of the proceedings yesterday in the matter of the order committing the Attorney-General to twenty-four hours' imprisonment was, that as this had not been duly executed you would further report to the Court your further proceedings therein.

"But it appearing to the Court that the detention in the Station House for four hours was a partial execution of the sentence, and that it cannot properly be executed during several days in separate fractional periods of the term, which is one day of twenty-four hours;

"And, moreover, that the proper time for the proper execution of the sentence has now passed by, the further execution thereof is hereby ordered to be remitted, and this will be endorsed by the Clerk on the order of commitment.

"As for the fine imposed upon yourself, the Court takes into consideration the very difficult position you were in from being a subordinate officer of the Attorney-General. You stated that you were advised by legal counsel that the form in which you reported that you had carried out the sentence was a legal execution thereof, and it does not appear that you were in fact contumacious. The legal disobedience may therefore be condoned.

"The fine imposed is hereby ordered to be remitted, and the Clerk will so enter it."

Previously to this, at an early hour this morning, the Attorney-General again submitted to arrest, and applied for a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Dole. The writ was filed, and pending, when Judge McCully receded from his position yesterday, as above stated, thus rendering further proceedings under the writ impracticable. The following are among the authorities (which are all to same point) on the question of imprisonment, relied upon in support of the habeas corpus:

"Imprisonment is the restraint of a man's liberty."-2 Bishop's Criminal Law Section 659.

"Imprisonment is the restraint of a person contrary to his will.-Coke 2nd Inst. 589.

"Imprisonment may be in a place made use of for purposes of imprisonment generally, or in one used only on the particular occasion, or by words and an array of force, without bolts or bars, in any locality whatever."-9 N.H. 491; 7 Humph. Tenn. 49.

"Any forcible detention of a man's person or control over his movements is an imprisonment."-Church on Habeas Corpus, Sec. 272; Lawson vs. Buzines 3 Hart. (Del.) 418.

"Keeping a person in a house against his will, or his forcible arrest and detention in the street, is an imprisonment."-Church on Habeas Corpus, Sec. 272.

"The confinement of the person, in any wise, is an imprisonment; so that the keeping a man against his will in a private house, is an imprisonment."-4 Blackstone 136.

Counsel for the Attorney-General say the authorities are equally conclusive on the question of the right of the Crown prosecutor to nolle prosequi in any case in his discretion; but as argument on this point is now pending before the Court, counsel do not deem it in accord with legal ethics to present such authorities at this stage of the case.
