ROOSEVELT REFUSES TO ANSWER MR. BRYAN
FLEET GOING TO MAGDALENA BAY

ROOSEVELT NOT TO TAKE STUMP

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 30.—A statement was given out from the White House today that President Roosevelt will not take the stump in behalf of Candidate Taft.
The President will also refuse to answer Mr. Bryan's latest charge that he refused to submit Haskell's case to a tribunal and challenging him to make public the items of the 1904 Republican campaign fund.
Mr. Roosevelt declares that Bryan's charges and challenge are purely a personal attack and involve no serious issues.

WILL ENTERTAIN COAST VISITORS

Will See Pearl Harbor Aquarium, Town And Pali

The representatives of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce who will arrive here in the Tenyo Maru tomorrow on their way to Japan, where they go as the guests of the Japanese Government, will be given excellent entertainment during their stay here, plans for this being adopted at a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce held this morning.

J. P. Cooke, who occupied the chair, opened the meeting with a statement that the business at hand was the making of plans for the entertainment of the Tenyo visitors. Clarence Cooke, who had been acting with L. T. Peck, reported that twelve autos would be secured for the use of the party. It had been decided that when the Maru was sighted the vice president and the secretary should meet the party in a launch with leis. The guests could be taken to the Young Hotel in tallies.

At 8:30 the party should be taken in autos to the Pali, thence back through town to the Aquarium. They could then go in special cars in the 11:05 train to the Peninsula, where luncheon would be served. The visitors would then be taken about Pearl Harbor in the Iroquois and (Continued on Page 6)

IS JACK McVEIGH NEW PRESIDENT

Kalauokalani Says Talk Has Become General

Is Jack McVeigh, superintendent of the Leper Settlement at Molokai, to be the next President of the Board of Health?

D. Kalauokalani Sr., a member of the Board of Health, came in to the Territorial offices this morning to find an answer to the above question, claiming that he had heard it generally spoken of around town. McVeigh's name has been mentioned several times in connection with this office, though it is hardly probable that he would accept it, as the salary he now receives exceeds that paid for the Board of Health president and the statute provides that one specific salary is all that a Territorial official may receive.

Secretary Mott-Smith was asked about the matter this morning, but he had heard nothing about it.

PRINCESS ASKS CHILDREN'S GUARDIAN

Princess Kawananakoa has filed a cross-petition to the one filed by the executors of the estate of the late Prince David in the matter of the guardianship of the two minor children, Kalakaua and Liliuokalani. In the first place, the Princess alleges in her cross-petition that the provisions of the will give to Kalakaua the greater portion of the estate, which consists in the main, of 50 per cent. of the capital stock of the Kapiolani Estate, Limited.

The Princess alleges that Cupid owes the other 50 per cent., and that he and John Colburn, as manager of the Estate, want the control of the Estate, and it is for their interests that the alleged will of the late Prince be sustained. She says that for more than six months previous to his death, David repeatedly asked for a true accounting of the affairs of the estate, but that it was refused him by the two, Cupid and Colburn.

She states that the Estate is now heavily involved, and she asks that Mrs. A. Campbell-Parker, grandmother of the children, be appointed guardian of Liliuokalani. She is satisfied with E. M. Watson as guardian of Kalakaua.

Candidates Of Kauai

- Senator J. S. CHANDLER. Representatives J. H. HALEMANU, J. M. MIKAELE, D. KAIALAU, G. W. KANEALII. Supervisors C. W. HUDSON, Hanalei, M. K. KANIKANIHIA, Lihue, W. B. NAIMU, Kekaha, D. KALAWAIA, Kapaa.

The above are the candidates selected by the Democratic County convention of Kauai, which was held at Lihue last Saturday. The names of the deputy sheriffs nominated have not yet been received by the local Democrats, who got the above in a letter today.

The Democrats consider that Chandler, who has done much towards organizing the party on the Garden Island, stands a good show of being elected, as he is running against Mauder Fairchild of the Mahee Sugar Co., and they figure that the people of Kauai are about ready to rebel against the plantation influence. They also think that some of the other candidates may come out on top on account of the fact that the Ricess have taken a number of nominations on the Republican ticket, and this, they feel, will incense the people against the family compact, though what tangible facts they have to rely on for this belief does not appear clear.

Colonel Sam Parker and Joe Cohen were among the interested spectators at the Home Rule convention last night.

The delegates of the Home Rule party were dined yesterday afternoon at the Boston restaurant on Hotel street.

HOUSE IS HAUNTED; GIRL IS INNOCENT

Pecaricks Say So, Finding Ghosts Were There Formerly

The house is haunted, and Esperanza Gonsales has nothing whatever to do with the ghost.

This is the conclusion which has been reached by Mr. and Mrs. Pecarick, whose house on Punchbowl was the scene of weird happenings last week. They have now had sufficient time after the excitement to figure the matter out calmly, and have also been making a little investigation of their own, as a result of which they feel convinced that the fault lies with the house and not with the young girl, who was generally believed to be at the bottom of it all, either because she was a medium through whom restive or festive spirits acted, or, according to the belief of others, because she was having a little fun on her own hook.

This forenoon the Pecarick family was busy packing up its household goods, it being its intention to remove the lares and penates to a more quiet place.

"It is the house, it is the house, and not Esperanza who made all the trouble," they asserted, and the girl's mother, who stood by, nodded frantically. She explained that the girl was the sole support of herself and family, as her husband was in the hospital, and she had herself just recovered from a serious illness. She asked with tears in her eyes, that a statement be made in the paper to the effect that Esperanza was not the (Continued on Page 2)

RAILROAD HELPER KILLED BY ENGINE

Slipped From Tender and Fell in Front of Locomotive

Hinokuma, a Japanese, was this morning killed by accident in the yard of the O. R. & L. Co. He was employed by the company as a helper in the roundhouse, and met his death while in the performance of his duties.

It appears that an engine, driven by Night Hostler Olsen, was backing up the track, when the deceased tried to jump on the rear part of the tender. In doing so he stepped on a valve, which turned under his foot, and he fell on the track directly in front of the moving engine. The locomotive was quickly stopped, and it does not appear to have gone right over him. Still his side was crushed so badly that he died about twenty minutes afterwards.

Hinokuma had been in the employ of the O. R. & L. Co. for several years, and had saved up some money. He had planned to go back to Japan within two or three months. He leaves a wife but no children.

Make War On "Big Four" Evils

A Council for Hawaii, formed for the purpose of warring against the "big four" evils of intemperance, impurity, Sabbath-breaking, and gambling, and affiliated with the International Reform Bureau, has been called into existence. The council is headed by Rev. Doremus Scudder and Rev. E. W. Thwing is its secretary.

It is proposed to make this council but a part of a movement which has been widely organized of late years. The International Reform Bureau, with headquarters at Washington, D. C., proposes to unite all creeds in the work of sociological betterment. Sunday baseball, prize fights, saloons, bridge as a social pastime with a financial feature, and many other of the amusements and means of worldly pleasure which beguile the heart of man for a while, come under those four general kinds of sin against which the council is to militate, and which are termed "four sides of one frowning fortress, that all good citizens should attack on all sides."

The members of this council are: Rev. Doremus Scudder, D. D., pastor of the Central Union Church, Honolulu, chairman; Hon. W. R. Castle of Castle & Withington, attorneys-at-law, vice chairman; Hon. Richard H. Trent, Oahu County Treasurer; Percy L. Horne, president of the Kamehameha Schools, Honolulu; W. A. Bowen, Theodore Richards, and Rev. E. W. Thwing, secretary of the council.

Rev. Thwing takes this position, though he contemplates going to China shortly, to take up mission work there. He says that he will not leave this place until the matter of the charges which he brings against United States Attorney Breckons is settled. He thinks this will be in about a month. Incidentally, Rev. Wilbur F. Crafts Ph.D., who is superintendent and treasurer of the International Reform Bureau, has interested himself to some extent in the Washington end of the Breckons matter.

How Candidates May Accept Endorsements

"It is gratifying to have so many of our candidates endorsed by the ephemeral organization, the party of a day, but it should be distinctly understood by the Laborites and people in general that the Republican nominees are still Republican candidates on the Republican ticket, and they can accept no endorsement without qualification. They can express thanks for the endorsements, but they must at the same time say that they are still Republican candidates and will work for the straight Republican ticket."

This was the view expressed this morning by Chairman A. F. Judd of the County Committee in reference to the endorsements which the fused Home Rule and Labor parties gave to a number of Republican candidates at the convention yesterday. Various sentiments have been expressed by different parties today as to what stand should be taken in the matter, some being radically opposed to accepting these endorsements, although there seems to be no valid reason to take such a radical step, which would surely cost the Republican candidates many votes. The views expressed by Judd will undoubtedly be shared by most of the leaders of the party.
