THURSDAY JUNE 4, 1908

Col. Sam Johnson resigning his public duties leaves a vacancy that shows him to be a pretty large-sized man.

Lahaina having risen from its fallen glory to a place for warships to assemble, might celebrate by "sprucing up" its waterfront.

Now that Col. Sam Johnson has joined the ranks of private citizens, he might give the public a few words on how things should be run.

Sacramento police are very easily satisfied. After finding a man for whom excited inquiries are made they are quite willing to allow him to remain.

Is the money that is coming to Hawaii as a result of its industrial prosperity being expended and invested to further promote the community progress?

It is to be hoped that the success or failure of the National Guard of Hawaii is not dependent on one man. Patriotic unity should be the tie that binds such an organization.

Don't forget that Honolulu wants the combined sixteen battleships of the Fleet, and should be able to get them without robbing Maui of any of the good things planned for that island.

The chief howler and greatest enthusiast on the Lee Let case is now doing its utmost to crawl out from under and deny all responsibility for or connection with the matter before the courts.

If the peace that reigns on the Stock Exchange is an evidence of the people saving their money and putting it in the banks, we may know that the energizing force of good times will soon be felt.

May it not be possible that the divorcement of the garbage and road departments will be deemed advisable? Or was the defense of the department combination based on purely non-political grounds?

President Roosevelt's fall with his horse is a mere incident for such a strenuous leader of the people. He always keeps the public on edge, with either the danger of breaking his own head or that of someone else.

Our Fleet Committee is getting along splendidly, thank you. After one or two more sessions to establish mutual understandings the completed program will roll out so smoothly that the discussion will be forgotten—as it should be.

We believe that Brother Richards gets very much twisted at times on what is right and what is wrong. And having the documents to support our contention he is not far removed from those for whom he acts as agent.

Pretty soon the fact that Honolulu newspapers publish the result of a 100-to-1-shot horse-race will be heralded abroad as proof of the low moral standards of the town. A "hundred-to-one-shot" means that someone, many indeed, gambled.

The most dangerous foe of the moral issue in politics is the fanatic who runs amuck in its support.—Advertiser.

Doubtless speaking from experience. But hypocrisy is the issue with which the abusive paper has always allied itself.

Where is Chief of Detectives Taylor's commission? Has it been stolen? And, if so, did Cathcart or Milverton or some Chinese gambler, make way with the previous document. Unlike the "depositions" that "disappeared," it may be stated on information and belief that Taylor's commission is not an invention.

There is as much, and more, justice in the campaign of Thwing and Richards as there ever was in the campaigns of personal malice and misrepresentation that mark the record of the organ by which they are now deserted.

Hawaii's College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts will probably have to take the "knocks" that have been bestowed on similar institutions in every State of the Union. It is well to bear in mind, however, that the students of no other colleges have so quickly made good or exercised such a broad influence on the development of the country. This will be the record of Hawaii's college.

GUESTS AND THE PEOPLE.

No, it is not surprising when a suggestion, that the people of the city of Honolulu should pay some particular attention to Secretary Garfield through their local municipal officers, meets with one immediate response that Secretary Garfield's visit should not be accompanied by "other tomfoolery enacted for the purpose of bringing some small-fry politicians into view."

The surprise would have been occasioned by a decent recognition of Honolulu's municipal community life. The Chamber of Commerce and the business bodies can always be depended upon to do the honors of special events, and they will no doubt offer the best to be had in this instance.

The time should come and come it will in the not far distant future when the community as represented by its citizens, "the people," will cease to occupy the attitude of subjects under a vicerey.

It is as much the duty of the people through municipal officers to assert themselves when entertaining public guests as it is to look after roads, bridges, and the pay of police, spit on the floor, or talk politics. This does not appeal to the centralized idea of controlling a subject race and citizen-subjects, but it is, nevertheless, the American plan—and on the American plan Honolulu must develop.

DIVORCE COURTS AND MINISTERS.

The Ministerial Union and the Civic Federation have succeeded in getting their organizations into the lime-light by their declared efforts to "reform" this man's town.

Agents of the Federation and the Union have been particularly busy of late in violating the community sense of what should be, and challenging the exponents of common

BETHEL ST. CHURCH WORKERS RE-UNITE

A reunion of Christian workers who once were connected with the old Bethel street church was held on the cars of the Oahu Railway & Land Co. at the depot this morning, previous to going down the line under the personal supervision of B. F. Dillingham. The party was gotten up by Mr. Dillingham, who was one of the most active workers in the old Bethel street church. Invitations were extended by him to those with whom he had worked for the upbuilding of Christ's Kingdom.

Mr. Dillingham received them at the depot and assigned them to seats especially provided for them on special cars. On the observation car was hung the picture of the old Bethel street church, surrounded by malle and the church colors. Mr. and Mrs. Dillingham had as their guests on this car Judge A. S. Hartwell, Miss Hartwell, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ables, Mrs. W. A. Kinney, Master Kinney, M. P. Robinson, Rev. Bradford Lewett, Rev. O. H. Gulick and wife, Rev. John Gulick, Mr. and Mrs. Renton and two children. On the other special cars were: F. W. Damon and family (6), Fred Damon and wife, Mrs. Ned Damon, Mrs. Parmelee and daughter, Mrs. Emily, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Conkling, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Williams, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. Wright, Rebecca Thompson, Mrs. King, Mrs. Rose and sister, Fred Whitney and wife, Mr. Hatch and wife, Herrick (2), Mrs. Wicke, Geo. Ashley, Tom Lucas and daughter, Mrs. Hustace and daughter, Mrs. Sayers, Mr. and Mrs. Soper, Anna Shaw, Mrs. Goo Kim, Mrs. Voeller, Mrs. Cole, Mr. Voeller and family (10), Montana, Mr. Allen, Mrs. Lee-jain (2), Lawrence Robertson, Mrs. Lucas Dunton, Mrs. (Dowsett) Kirk-aldy, Mrs. Andrew Brown, Mrs. Miller, Miss Hempstead, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Woolf (Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Frazee, Miss Crane, Mrs. Lyman, Mrs. Pratt, Mr. Green, Ida Campbell, Addie Campbell, Arthur Alexander Dr. and Mrs. Monsarrat, B. F. Dillingham and wife, Walter Dillingham, Dr. Pratt, Mrs. S. E. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Peterson and daughter, Mrs. Love and Mrs. Burney.

The party will first go direct to Wahiawa to see the pineapple field and factory. From there it goes down to Haleiwa, where a special luncheon has been prepared by Mr. Dillingham for his guests, returning to Honolulu this evening.

DANCE AT MOANA ON SHERMAN'S ARRIVAL

On the evening of the arrival of the transport Sherman from the Philippines, there will be a special transport dance given at the Moana hotel.

The Sherman is bringing the 1st Infantry, in command of Colonel Pauling, and the regimental band will be aboard. Arrangements have been made by the management of the Moana to have the band play in the evening, before the dance.

It is stated on good authority that this is the last body of soldiers that will pass through Honolulu on any transport for two years, and the Moana will endeavor to make the occasion memorable for all who attend.

Army and Navy folk and all friends of the Moana are cordially invited to be present.
