PAN-PACIFIC PAGEANT IS PICTURESQUE SUCCESS; MANY NATIONS REPRESENTED

A. H. FORD THANKS MEN WHO HELPED PAN-PACIFIC DAY

Unsung Work By Artists Responsible for Splendid Pageant

Alexander T. Ford, chief designee of the Department of Administration of the Pan-Pacific Pageant, thanked a number of men who worked for the success of the pageant.

The pageant, the second and best of its kind in history, was attended by the President of the United States, Mr. Theodore Roosevelt, and the Prime Minister of Japan, Mr. Yosuke Matsuoka.

THE SPECIAL EFFECTS OF THE PAGEANT

The pageant was a long succession of wonders. There were the immense dioramas, with their representations of different lands and cultures. There were the pageant floats, with their beautiful designs and use of color. There were the pageant acts, with their skillful and colorful presentation.

The pageant was a celebration of the beauty of all the lands of the Pacific, and a celebration of the people who live there.

Japan and Australia Featured in Pageant Floats That Won Attention

The pageant floats were designed to represent the different countries of the Pacific. The floats from Japan and Australia were particularly popular.

These floats were beautifully designed, with their use of color and their attention to detail. They were a testament to the skill and creativity of the artists who worked on them.

SPLENDID FLOATS PASS BEFORE BIG CROWD IN STREETS

A great crowd of people lined the streets to watch the pageant floats pass by. There were floats from every country represented in the pageant.

The floats were designed to be impressive and to capture the attention of the onlookers. They were a testament to the beauty and diversity of the lands of the Pacific.

DAILY PROGRAM OF CARNIVAL

All Auto Drivers Asked to Use Care

The Carnival, which was a part of the Pan-Pacific Pageant, was a popular event. It was a celebration of the art and culture of the Pacific.

The Carnival included a variety of events, such as parades, pageants, and dances. It was a great way to enjoy the beauty and diversity of the lands of the Pacific.

THOUSANDS VIEW SEVEN DIORAMAS

The dioramas were a popular feature of the Carnival. People of all ages enjoyed them. They were a testament to the skill and creativity of the artists who worked on them.

The dioramas were a series of scenes that represented different lands and cultures. They were a beautiful way to see the world and to experience new things.

PICKED MUSICIANS TO FURNISH MUSIC FOR DIRECTORS BALL

The direct costumes of the pageant were a testament to the beauty and diversity of the lands of the Pacific. They were a wonderful way to enjoy the art and culture of the Pacific.

The direct costumes were designed to be colorful and to capture the attention of the onlookers. They were a testament to the beauty and diversity of the lands of the Pacific.