FORT SHAFTER'S THANKSGIVING IS ENJOYABLE EVENT

Ancient Ceremony Dating Back to Feudal Days Follows Church Service

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
 FORT SHAFTER, Dec. 1.—Thanksgiving Day was certainly well observed at Fort Shafter and in many ways. Chaplain William Reese Scott held the early service in the post library in honor of Saint Andrew's Day and Thanksgiving Day, which had fallen on the same holiday, at 7:30 a. m. At 10 a. m. all the buglers of the garrison sounded "church call," which announced the commencement of the public Thanksgiving service held in the Fort Shafter theater for the entire post in obedience to the proclamation of the president. At this service, which was largely attended, a beautiful program was given, each worshipper, containing the hymns and the program of the ceremonies.

The service closed with the benediction, and the wonderful singing of America, and the band played "The Star Spangled Banner," each person present stood at attention as a tribute to the nation and the nation's God and thus the service closed.

The ancient custom of visiting the barracks to greet the commands took place, a custom which dates back to the old feudal days, when the feudal lord dined with his retainers. Many of the barracks were daintily and artistically decorated with evergreens and bunting, and the tables were tastefully prepared with the dainties and viands appropriate for the day; notable among the decorations should be mentioned those of D Company, 3rd Regiment Engineers, I and K Companies, 2nd Infantry, which had required much time and labor to prepare, but which repaid the efforts of those in charge in the beauty of the mess halls and the delight of the men.

Practically every organization had a printed menu, while several of them, I Company, C Company and M Company, had prepared small booklets which contained the menu for the three Thanksgiving Day meals, the names of the officers and non-commissioned officers of the companies, the roster of the present organization, and a historical synopsis of all campaigns and battles in which the organization had taken active part, which made a keepsake for the men worthy of the day.

Headquarters Company, the Machine Gun Company, Company D, 2nd Infantry, Company F Engineers and Signal Corps, Q. M. and Supply Company, and Company A, 2nd Infantry had prepared beautiful menu cards decorated with scenes of interest and reminiscence; Companies G and E, 2nd Infantry, ornamented their tables with Chinese napkins on which were printed the bill of fare.

D Company, 2nd Infantry, as a remembrance of the happy day presented each man with a beautiful napkin souvenir containing the words of the song "Hail to the Second," composed and dedicated to the 2nd Infantry in 1914 by Chaplain William Reese Scott. All in all, it is conceded by everyone that Fort Shafter never enjoyed a happier day and one for which the was greater need and cause for Thanksgiving.

MISS DOROTHY TRUE OPENS EXHIBITION OF PRINTS AND ART OBJECTS

Today at Lanikaea Miss Dorothy True is hostess at a tea. A large number of guests have been bidden to come and view the oils and water color pictures that will be on exhibition. Miss True represents the firm of Vickery, Atkins & Torrey of San Francisco and the works of art are from men who stand very high in the art world. Several of the pictures are from men who have been associated with the Glasgow School of Art and also the Dutch school.

Charged with the commission of a statutory offense, Angila Austro and Vincente Gorona were acquitted by a jury in the federal court Wednesday.

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

THANKSGIVING IN HONOLULU IS DAY WIDELY OBSERVED

Thanksgiving was observed throughout Honolulu on Thursday with special services in the churches and luaus and special dinners at schools, hospitals and other institutions. A union service with a special musical program was held at the Methodist church and largely attended.

Luaus were held at the Castle Kindergarten and at the Girls' Industrial school, and at the city jail an informal Thanksgiving Day service was conducted under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. The address was delivered by C. J. Day, the remainder of the program including singing and the reading of the president's proclamation.

About 400 children gathered at Atkinson Park during the day and enjoyed games, races and other amusements. Ice cream cones were freely passed around. An attractive Thanksgiving service was held at the territorial prison under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., music and entertainment numbers being on the program.

Nearly 50 baskets of food were delivered by the nursing department of the Palama Settlement on Wednesday. At the Kakaako mission yesterday 285 children of many nationalities enjoyed a bounteous Thanksgiving dinner, including turkey, mince pie, ice cream and candy. Thirteen families in the neighborhood were provided with dinners by the mission.

RHEUMATISM AFTER HIS DAY'S OUTING

Hunting Trip on a We Day Brings Painful Resus

Once upon a time Charles Mullen, of Philadelphia, went hunting on a dismal rainy day, and long exposure to cold and wet brought on severe attack of rheumatism. He was confined to his home.

A friend recommended Sloan's Liniment, citing his own case as evidence of its effectiveness. Mullen bought a bottle and applied it to his aching limbs. Soon improvement was noticed and he was able to return to his home.

Bergstrom Christmas Talks
 No. 2

The Piano

FROM the very beginning of the great era of piano manufacture—starting with the quaint, sweet-toned squares which were the expression of a great stride toward an ideal that would be worthy of the art of music—it can be seen that the pianoforte was to be an instrument that would mold the human soul into a good thing.

That success has crowned the efforts of the geniuses of the ante-bellum era is evidenced by the magnificent instruments that are on the market today.

A Mason & Hamlin Fano or a Weber Piano, would be the gift ideal for Christmas.

Will you come to Aeolian Hall and let us demonstrate the qualities of these marvelous instruments?
