

Y. W. WORKERS START CAMPAIGN WITH GREAT ZEST

If the Y. W. C. A. workers continue to show the enthusiasm in the remaining days of the campaign to raise $45,000 as they did this morning, then the "Over the Top" slogan will be realized in every sense of the word.

The association lobby much resembled a busy day on the stock exchange, as every minute the various workers were coming in and out reporting on the results, and as the reports were made another card was given out and the campaign continued.

Receiving election returns on a busy night in a newspaper office never excelled the rush which was evident around the campaign headquarters this morning. Two long tables were arranged across one corner of the lobby, and the typewriters and card index workers were unusually busy. Everything was handled in a thorough manner.

The campaign was ushered in at 8:30, when about 75 women began their campaign to raise the big war fund for the Y. W. C. A. Automobiles were donated by Mr. and Mrs. Westervelt, Mrs. Frank Atherton, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooke and Mr. and Mrs. Montague Cooke.

One of the campaign workers said this morning that she hoped that the businessmen of the city would realize the necessity of contributing to such a fund. On the mainland the Y. W. C. A. has taken a strong stand for association activities and only in Honolulu has the Red Cross been taking care of the major branch of war work.

"We will need at least three or four contributions of $500 each to raise the entire fund," said one of the captains today. "Altogether $20,000 will be needed to carry on our share of the war work, and this money will go direct to the American nurses who are laboring in France."

Yesterday afternoon the women who are interested in the campaign met at the home of Mrs. John Waterhouse, who graciously opened her residence to the workers. Talks were made by Miss Martha Chickering, Miss Grace Channon and Mrs. Walter Frear. Mrs. Charles Fitts, chairman of the finance committee, explained the technical details of the campaign. The captains of the various teams who began the campaign today are as follows:

Miss H. J. Forbes, Mrs. A. W. T. Bottomley, Mrs. W. C. Hobbs, Mrs. John Guild, Mrs. W. J. Forbes, Mrs. R. D. Williams, Mrs. Elizabeth Mackall, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Alice Hopper, Mrs. Charles-Hustace, Mrs. C. F. Chillingworth and Mrs. R. G. Moore.

OUTDOOR CIRCLE MEETING

The last monthly meeting of the year will be held by members of the Outdoor Circle at the residence of Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey, Honolulu and Victoria streets, at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The first business of the meeting will be the nomination of officers, followed by reading of several reports of committees and other routine business.

Miss Chickering will deliver a short address. As this is the last meeting of the year all members have signified their intention to be on hand. It is not known just what officers will be nominated, and this will be one of the subjects brought up for discussion before the business of nominating this afternoon.

At the Wednesday afternoon musical on the Young roof garden under auspices of the Outdoor Circle, Baby Fidler will dance, in addition to the exhibition by Ivan Bankoff and Aimee Massard. The entertainment will last from 8 to 9 and women are requested to bring their knitting. The proceeds from the sale of tickets will be devoted to the community Christmas tree.

MASONS ELECT OFFICERS

AN OPERATION AVERTED

Philadelphia, Pa.—"One year ago I was very sick and I suffered with pains in my side and back until I nearly went crazy. I went to different doctors and they all said I had female trouble and would not get any relief until I would be operated on. I had suffered for four years before this time, but I kept getting worse the more medicine I took. Every month since I was a young girl I had suffered with cramps in my sides at periods and was very irregular. I saw your advertisement in the newspaper and the picture of a woman who had been saved from an operation and this picture was impressed on my mind. The doctor had given me only two more days to make up my mind so I sent my husband to the drug store at once for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and believe me, I soon noticed a change and when I had finished the third bottle I was cured and never felt better. I grant you the privilege to publish my letter and am only too glad to let other women know of my cure."—Mrs. THOS. MCGONNIGAL, 8432 Hartville Street, Phila., Pa.

NEW FORCE TAKES CHARGE OF M.-B.

Three sugar companies, Onomea, Pepeekeo and Honoumou, announced this morning on the Honolulu Stock and Bond Exchange the decision of directors to commence payment of dividends in 1918, but the announcement had no effect on the stock quotations. Onomea and Pepeekeo will pay a dividend of .40 per share on January 20 and January 15 respectively. Honoumou will pay a dividend of 30 cents on January 5.

The remainder of the sugar stocks with one exception remained firm but inactive. The exception was Ola which slid to $5 at which 250 shares were sold. The fact that the company has decided not to declare any more dividends for some time is believed to be the cause of the slight slump.

In the unlisted securities, 3975 of Montana Bingham were sold at 47 following an address to the members of the exchange by C. G. Ballen'ne, president and manager of the company, who read a telegram from S. M. Soupcoff, mining engineer in charge of the development work in the field, to the effect that recent work on the property had disclosed an ore body carrying native copper and other values and that two shifts were now on the job at the mill.

The message addressed to Mr. Ballen'ne was as follows: "Development of Montana-Bingham recently disclosed ore body carrying native copper and other values. Have superseded Higgins and staff by Linke, one of our own mining managers. Everything developing in good shape, especially with reference to upper workings in Fortuna. Mill and mine workings two shifts."

Mineral Products suffered a relapse, while Engels Copper remained firm. Considerable Madera was sold at 35, the opening up of the mill yesterday being the cause of the firmness of the stock.

SOLDIER EXONERATES POLICE OF INSULTS

Investigation today of the fight which occurred between two men on Waiatae road near Twelfth avenue, Kaimuki, Saturday night, concerning which allegations were made by an individual that two Honolulu police officers swore at him and refused to stop the fight, revealed the fact that it was a soldier who made the remarks to the civilian. The soldier appeared at the investigation conducted by Sheriff Charles Rose this morning and told the police chief that it was he and not the policeman who had made the alleged insulting remarks to the autist who wanted the fighting stopped. The autist complained through the columns of the morning paper that he was insulted by the police and that they had refused to do their duty. The motorist is as yet unknown to the police, but instructions will be issued, it is understood, to make a search for him and let him tell his version of the affair before the police officers and soldier.

HOSPITAL'S INTERNES CALLED TO COLORS

It was announced today that the three internes at the Queen's hospital have been called into government work thus handicapping the institution by the lack of their services.

The trustees of the corporation have applied to the Hawaii Medical Society for assistance and it is likely that new internes will be forthcoming within a few days. The taking over of the internes by the government leaves only the nurses and resident physicians to care for the patients.

WHAT ONE MAN THINKS ABOUT HOLIDAY GIFTS

Quite a crowd had congregated the other evening in front of the show window of The Hub Clothiers, on King street, opposite the Union Grill. A man was pointing out a suit in the window to his wife, and what he said is typical of the Christmas spirit that is prevalent this year. "Don't buy me any junk," he said, "I've got to meet the Liberty Bond instalments, expenses have doubled all around, and nothing would give me more pleasure than a new suit of clothes bought right here at The Hub where prices appear to be reasonable and quality very good."—Adv.
