DILLON SAYS "LIAR."

Is at Once Suspended from House of Commons.

London, March 20.—One of the liveliest scenes witnessed in the House of Commons since the palmiest days of the Irish Nationalists ended this afternoon with the suspension of John Dillon. During the discussion of the South African affairs the Liberal leader, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, vigorously protested against the Government's conduct in uttering "malignant slanders" in calling the Liberals "pro-Boers." These slanders, Sir Henry said, were used for party purposes. The Government, which had been going from blunder to blunder, claimed immunity from criticism, and if this continued it would follow "the precedent of the evil days of the American war."

Chamberlain, proceeding, referred to the Boers who are fighting on the British side, when John Dillon (Irish Nationalist) interjected, "They are traitors!" on which Mr. Chamberlain retorted: "The honorable gentleman is a good judge of the traitors."

A scene of great confusion ensued. When order was partially restored, Dillon demanded a ruling on Chamberlain's words.

The Speaker said: "An honorable member spoke of soldiers serving under the British flag as traitors. I deprecated the interruption, and I deprecated the retort of the other member."

Dillon then said: "I will tell the right honorable member that he is a damned liar."

A dead silence followed this remark. Such unparliamentary language seemed to stun the house.

The Speaker invited Dillon to withdraw the expression, but the latter said:

"I will not withdraw."
"Then, I must name you," said the Speaker.

The Government leader, A. J. Balfour, then said: "I beg to move that Mr. Dillon be suspended from service in the House."

The motion was carried by 248 to 48 votes.

Dillon immediately, by direction of the Speaker, left the House, amid wild Nationalist cheers, and Chamberlain resumed his speech.

Dillon's suspension, under the present rules, cannot exceed a week. His offense would have been much more severely dealt with had the new rules been in force.

MR. HETTY GREEN DEAD.

Nursed to the End by the Woman Who Saved His Fortune.

New York, March 19.—Edward H. Green, the husband of Hetty Green, said to be the richest woman in America, died at Bellows Falls, Vt., today, aged 80. Since last October he had been tenderly nursed by his wife. Green was a pioneer in the East India trade and accumulated millions.

Nearly fifty years ago he married Harriet H. Robson, who had $9,000,000 inherited from her father. Green went into speculation and neglected his business. One day it came to Mrs. Green's ears that her husband was on the verge of bankruptcy. His Quaker spouse took the reins in her own hands to save him. She was shrewd and energetic, and succeeded in saving her husband from utter ruin. The taste of the financial whirl was so fascinating that she has been at it ever since. Next to strife for wealth her most strenuous occupation has been dodging tax collectors. Mrs. Green often said her natural calling was that of a nurse, and the tender care of her aged husband bore her out in the claim.

C. P. HUNTINGTON GENEROUS.

Loaned Millions of Dollars to Friends and Strangers Without Security.

New York, March 19.—The Tribune will say tomorrow: The Collis P. Huntington estate, now being inventoried by the State tax appraisers, acting with the executors, Charles W. Tweed and Isaac W. Gates, will amount to about $28,000,000 or $29,000,000. The transfer tax will approximate $800,000. This is the unofficial information about the schedule of property left by Huntington.

The report of the State appraisers will not be filed for several months. It is understood that the delay is due in large part to the overhauling of claims and notes against friends of Huntington. These amount to an astonishingly large sum, it was said, and are in such shape that it is difficult for the executors to tell how much they are really worth. The major items in the schedule of assets have been known for a long time.

The executors paid to the State last fall $700,000 in part satisfaction of the transfer tax, thus securing a rebate of $35,000, which was clear gain to the estate.

BUSY WITH PREPARATIONS.

Great Difficulty in Finding Houses in Which to Entertain Princess.

London, March 18.—Half a million of London's poor will be the guests of King Edward during coronation week. His majesty notified the Mayors of the metropolis today that the sum of £30,000 was placed at their disposal, and he invited them to make the necessary arrangements to entertain the very poor to the number of 500,000 at a dinner in celebration of his coronation.

Every department of the King's household is busily engaged in the stupendous task of preparing for the coronation ceremonies. So very long is the list of foreign princes and ambassadors who will be present that the court officials are at their wits' end to decide how to dispose of his majesty's guests. Every available room in Buckingham palace and the other royal residences is already pre-empted, and the Lord Chamberlain is gladly availing himself of offers of many of the finest residences in London. The Belgravia and Buckingham Palace hotels have been requisitioned in their entirety, four houses in Grosvenor square have been taken and in addition the Lord Chamberlain has thankfully accepted the proffer of Dorchester House, lent by Captain G. L. Holford, the King's equerry; Chesterfield House, Harcourt and Wimbourne House.

The Maharajah of Jeypoor, one of the many Indian notables coming to the coronation, today chartered an Anchor line steamer to convey himself and his suite to England.

BOERS LIKELY TO BE SHOT.

Prisoners Taken in British Uniform Have Been Put to Death.

London, March 19.—In the House of Commons yesterday War Secretary Brodrick set at rest the rumors regarding Lord Wolseley's trip to South Africa by announcing that the former commander-in-chief had gone to Cape Town on an entirely private visit, without previously communicating with the War Office.

Regarding the Boers wearing British uniforms, Brodrick said all civilized nations punished such action with death. Boers captured wearing British uniforms were liable to be shot after trial by court-martial. Lord Kitchener in certain cases had already inflicted that penalty.

PRESIDENT SURPRISES MILES.

Report of a Stormy Interview in the Cabinet Room.

Washington, March 15.—President Roosevelt and General Miles have been at it again. Contrary to reports recently published, they have not made up their differences and resolved to be friends. In fact they are farther apart than ever. A few weeks ago General Miles called at the White House and remained some time in conference with the President. It was supposed then that there had been a pleasant talk. The facts are that General Miles called to say he forgave the President for the famous reprimand administered to him on account of his utterances in regard to the Schley case.

"For the time I did feel hurt by it," explained the Lieutenant-General, "but now I know it was not your work. It was a job put up on me by Root and Corbin. Corbin wrote it and Root carried it to you. I don't mind what my enemies do against me."

"Hold on," exclaimed the President. "That is not right. General Miles, I will state to you frankly that the reprimand of which you speak was my work, and I am fully responsible for it. It was prepared at my instance for the good of the service, and if you have complaints to make of anyone in regard to it you should make them to me."

This nearly took General Miles' breath away, but he recovered himself and made a spirited answer. The President retorted. For some minutes the atmosphere of the Cabinet room was at a high temperature. Then General Miles walked away and he hasn't been back since.

Cuban Reciprocity.

Washington, March 18.—The advocates of Cuban reciprocity scored a decisive victory tonight at the conference of Republican members of the House of Representatives, the proposition of Chairman Payne of the Ways and Means Committee for a 20 per cent reduction of duty, with the Sibley amendment, limiting the duration of the reduced rates to December 1, 1903, being adopted by a vote of 85 ayes to 31 noes. This result was reached at 11:30 o'clock after a protracted debate, followed by a series of exciting rollcalls.

The first test was when Payne concluded the speechmaking with a motion for the previous question on all pending propositions. This motion prevailed, 78 to 56. A vote was then taken on a substitute offered by Representative Dick of Ohio, in behalf of those opposing the reciprocity plan, offering in its stead a plan of direct payment to Cuba covering several years. This was defeated, 57 to 75. An amendment by Morris of Indiana to take off the differential on refined sugar was defeated, 50 to 72.

Situation in Ireland.

London, March 18.—The Vatican has received confidential news, says the Rome correspondent of the Daily Chronicle, of a serious situation in Ireland. The Fenians have for some month been engaged in an active propaganda with a view to organizing for a general rising. It is believed the Vatican will instruct the Irish clergy to hold aloof from the revolutionary agitation.

Rhodes Slightly Better.

Cape Town, March 20.—A bulletin issued at midnight last night said that Cecil Rhodes had taken nourishment; that he was slightly stronger, and that at that time he was sleeping.
