LOCAL NOTES.

The W. G. Hall arrived this afternoon.

Joseph Hoanopele has an administrator's notice in this issue.

The kite-flying season is almost ended. Telephone lines are correspondingly pleased.

The McGrew divorce case will be heard tomorrow before Judge Cooper.

There was a fire in the forests on the westerly side of Nuuanu pali, last night.

The Board of Health claim that the Wilder S. S. Co. is charging them too much for freight.

Those obnoxious vines still hang over the wall of the Bishop residence on Emma street.

The water in the Nuuanu streamlet has at last become stagnant, in many places.

The case of J. Coulter, the alleged highway robber has been continued till Monday in the District Court.

L. J. Levey held a large cash sale at his auction rooms this morning. A large number of buyers were present and bids were lively.

The creditors of Marcus R. Colburn will meet tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 p. m. at the Chamber of Commerce.

The members of the Amateur Athletic Club had football practice last evening and showed much good work.

J. E. Gomez the jeweller, has obtained a verdict, from a jury of $500 damages, in his libel suit against the 'Tiser.

'Diana Lodge' is the appellation which Major Wolters has given to his handsome residence on Thurston Avenue.

The band concert at Makee island last evening, was well attended and the various numbers on the programme were well performed.

Mr. S. M. Damon stated yesterday in the Councils, that "they were drifting too rapidly toward oligarchy rule," and then he smiled.

The Councils met yesterday afternoon and decided that more money of the people, who bear taxation without representation, should be spent.

The sinking of the artesian well at the Hospital grounds is progressing rapidly. Mr. Mc Caudless reports having reached a depth of 250 feet already.

It is believed that one of the accomplices in the Pali robbery, if turned up in the dock would be easily recognized by Detective Larsen as an old acquaintance.

Mrs. M. M. Thirde, the lady exponent of Theosophy, will give a lecture this evening in the Theosophy hall, corner Nuuanu and Marine streets, at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

Charles Hammer, a well known resident, has been arrested on a charge of malicious mischief, i. e. the poisoning of a valuable dog belonging to C. Bergerson, the sewing-machine agent.

We will all be there. Where? Why, at the Schutzen Club Masquerade Ball, Monday, September 3, 1894. Everybody is going. Are you?

One of the not twin Quinns is going to the coast. This one is James C, a retired politician, and the wish is expressed by his many friends that he may have a safe passage both ways.

Hongkong opium is now quoted at $20 per lb and common opium at $11 per lb, said quotations indicating that this city and the other islands, is more than supplied with the dope.

Dr. Herbert one of the prominent physicians of Honolulu stated yesterday, to the members of the Board of Health, that, "the virus lately imported was not good and efforts at vaccination were not successful."

IF YOUR HORSE OR DOG is sick send them at once to 205 King Street. The only Veterinary Infirmary in the Republic fully equipped with modern appliances and skillful attendants. aug-1m

Col. Jim Sherwood held a reception at Long Branch last evening, and a plethora of guests was present. The services are to be continued this evening and all day tomorrow. The Colonel feeds the hungry and clothed the naked.

Amy Roe, a daughter of William Roe an employee of the Honolulu Iron Works fell down one of the slopes of Punchbowl Hill, and besides other injuries she broke the right forearm. Dr. Cooper was called and attended the injured girl and she is now doing as well as can be expected.

A farewell reception was given at the Lyceum last evening to the Rev. Yamamoto who leaves by the steamer Australia, for San Francisco. Miss Carrie Castle and Mrs. Clarence Crabbe had the superintendence of the pleasurable affair and the occasion was made a most happy one for the honored guest.

'Jim' Quinn, the popular livery-stable man, who leaves tomorrow for the Coast, where he will enjoy a two-months vacation has been in 'harness' for eight years without missing a single day's work. A pretty good record in this climate! Manuel Reis will attend to his business during his absence.

The young Hawaiians Institute is progressing well towards permanent organization. Aid and assistance is being given by Messrs P. C. Jones, W. O. Smith, W. R. Castle and others and the members themselves are, at present, full of enthusiasm. Meetings are held at the Y. M. C. A. Hall and a welcome is offered to all young Hawaiians who desire to become members.

A LOYAL MULE.

It is pleasing to record some exhibition of loyalty towards the mighty self-elected president of the alleged republic of Hawaii. None of his two-legged "subjects" seem to be willing to honor and cherish him—except they draw a government salary, and the ungrateful Hawaiians who do not seem to appreciate the patriotism and unselfishness of "their" $1000-a-month-president are sharply rebuked by a loyal mule pulling one of Smith's busses, which goes down on its knees every time that it passes the presidential mansion on (Whoa!) Emma street.

Can't See It.

The case against Arthur White, was again called in the Circuit Court this morning, but it was shown that the defendant is still unable to appear in Court, and is prudently becoming less able, from day to day. When Dr. Brodie was examined, a few days ago as to defendant's condition, he testified that White's eyesight was seriously affected. It is understood that the features of Mr. White's ailment has now become so serious that he is unable to see the justice of his prosecution, while his companion in enterprise goes free.

Slight-of-Hand.

A box full of Opium. Two custom-guards, full of vigilance. A disappearance of dope—full of mystery. The days of miracles have not ceased. And Mr.—smiled.

Washington, July 30.—Owing to the delay of John D. Kernon in reaching Washington, the meeting of the commission to investigate the cause of the recent railroad strike did not take place today. The commission will convene at 10 o'clock tomorrow.

LADIES' COLUMN.

This something for nothing article, we had in last week has demonstrated three things.

FIRST, that a good many people want something for nothing and SECOND, the vast difference there is in the ideas of values—the guesses made, ranged from $150 to $2,000, while the nearest guesser Miss Lena Bruns, who wins the Dress Pattern, was $300 under the value of the goods; and the second best guesser Mrs. Harry Lewis was $310 over the value, winning the second prize.

THIRD, that the real judges of values snap up bargains, when a real bargain is offered. 1682 people entered our store last week, of which 1563 made purchases, because, they found what they wanted at satisfactory prices.

This week, Embroideries, Laces, Fedora real Torchon Valenciennes, Black Spangled and Beaded Laces in latest novelties will go; also, we want to call your special attention to LADIES RIBBED VESTS in COTTON at 10 cents, 12 1/2 cents, 15 cents and 25 cents; these have only to be looked at to cause you to buy them. Fine pure white and Egyptian Lisle at 75 cents. All wool Ribbed Vests in white and natural colors. Silk Ribbed Vests, and Merino Ribbed Vests. These goods we carry in low neck—no sleeves; high neck, 1/2 sleeves, they are beautiful and new goods.

The Australia has brought us no end of new things, that we will mention next week.
