

HUMBUG.

It is a comic sight to see the valiant republicans and their organs shaking hands with themselves and blowing their own little tin horns in notifying the world of the intense courage and bravery which possess them.

DANGER AHEAD.

The superintendent of public works or whoever has charge of streets, buildings etc. is very derelict in his duties if he is to blame for the manner in which the water main is being laid on Beretania street.

And if Beretania street needs to be widened Fort street, is in the same condition. Yet, we see a building which will be used for Chinese and Japanese stores being erected on the corner of Fort and Beretania streets.

The Advertiser in its usual brazen manner comes out and tells the people that Mr. S. B. Dole was elected president of Hawaii for six years by the "people."

The Ilianiwai baths have got the best accommodations, the best water, the best tramcars and buses, and Bartlett is the best host.

THE LIGHTNING DETECTIVE ON THE STAND.

The Game Not All Bagged!

The court room in the district court was filled again this morning. After all seats were occupied the police prevented the crowd from rushing in, a measure to be highly commended.

The charge was read and it states that Bush, Nawahi, Crick and Weed have conspired during the last six months to levy war against the Republic of Hawaii.

I reside in Honolulu and am a police officer in the secret service. I have held that position since November 1893. I was employed by the marshal, and have reported to him as occasion demanded.

The conversation which took place on August 22 of this year. On that day Crick told me that blood will yet have to be shed to settle the question of the Republic.

ed from gathering. Then an attack on the palace and station house. I suggested that the station house was well protected and guarded, but he said that somebody had to be killed and that doors and windows could be opened with explosives.
