Elks of Keokuk Observe Their Memorial Day With Other Lodges of Order Over the Country.

ARE LARGELY ATTENDED

Members and Friends Join in the Services and Listen to Eloquent Memorial Address.

The national memorial day of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks was fittingly observed by the Keokuk lodge with services in the Elks hall yesterday afternoon. The brothers of the order had assembled and were seated together, and large numbers of friends of the deceased members of the lodge were present at the servi-

The services opened with music rendered by Prof. Ira S. Christy's orchestra, "The Spirit of Independence." The instrumental music was followed by a song by Mrs. E. Marder's choir, "The Heavens are Telling."
