Jack Johnson Barred.
(United Press Leased Wire Service.)
ST. LOUIS, Dec. 12.—Luther McCarty will never enter the ring with Jack Johnson. In a telegram here today Bill McCarty, manager of the conqueror of Jim Flynn, declares that he could get backing for any amount that McCarty could defeat Johnson, but he has barred colored fighters.

CITY NEWS.

—First Christian Church. Bazaar and market, Saturday. Sale 3 p. m.—Adv.

—An Ewers-McCarthy Co. suit or overcoat, will be appreciated.—Adv.
—Main street merchants are becoming desperate over the filthy condition of the street and the affect it is having on trade. Something should be done to put the street in a cleanly condition.

—Pucketchuck Lodge No. 43 meets every Friday night at 8 o'clock. All members requested to be present. By order of Noble Grand, Geo. Immegart, secretary. Work in the third degree.—Adv.

—Ewers-McCarthy Co. the Christmas store for men and boys.—Adv.
—The fire department was called to Third and Exchange streets late yesterday afternoon. They merely found the soot burning out of a chimney and it was not necessary to throw water. There was no damage.

—Look! Best Springfield lump coal $5.50 per ton J. C. McManus Construction Co. Phone 215.
—It was reported before the recent election that Mayor Elder had made the statement that he intended to resign no matter how the election affected his candidacy. It is sincerely hoped that he will have Main street cleaned before resigning.

—Nicely boxed bright, fresh, snappy, exclusive designs, in holiday haberdashery, at Ewers-McCarthy Co.—Adv.

—Willbat, the ladies tailor, 1105 Main street. Bell phone 1041.—Adv.
—If you wish to make a suitable Christmas present, one that will please the recipient and remain in the home for many years as a source of pleasure and enjoyment, buy a copy of "The Fortunes of the Landrags," "The Red Button," or "The Secret of Lonesome Cove," or all of these. They are published by the Bobbs-Merrill Co. of Indianapolis, Ind., and are among the late books and best sellers. They make nice Christmas gifts.

—Take advantage of Ewers-McCarthy Co.'s experience in selecting his Christmas present.—Adv.
—Before buying Christmas presents let us suggest a lap robe, auto blanket, whip, set of harness or saddle for him. Sherwood sells them.—Adv.
—Keokuk lodge No. 256 A. O. U. W. held a fine meeting last night with a good attendance. There was plenty to eat and the members were loath to go home even at a late hour. J. A. Branson, recorder, says that the members that were not out missed a jolly good time.

—You will find every new idea in Ewers-McCarthy Co.'s holiday stock.—Adv.

—While you are thinking about that Christmas present did it ever occur to you that the best Christmas present is the one that is substantial, one that has a value to it that will not only keep but increase? Well, think about it and then go buy some of those Highland park lots and make Christmas presents of them to the ones you want to protect and please. Let J. A. Roberts, 420 Main street, tell you about the lots. They are beautiful river view locations.—Adv.

—Ewers-McCarthy Co., the store of the Christmas spirit.—Adv.

—Fine dressed chickens and choicest roasts of beef, lamb and pork. — your Sunday dinner at Jos. Haubert's, 709 Main street.—Adv.

She Can Handle Him.
(United Press Leased Wire Service.)
ST. LOUIS, Dec. 12.—Jack W. E. Barnett, aged 42, and 39 inches tall, was granted a license here to marry Miss Dorothy Warfield, 19. Barnett weighs just 24 pounds. Miss Warfield weighs 120. It was announced that

Mrs. H. L. Morris, seven feet, four inches tall, and weighing 126 would be matron of honor at the wedding.

Barnett had to be lifted up to the window to sign the application for his license and when standing on a stool his head was about on a level with that of his prospective bride.
