A meeting of the different fraternal organizations in the city was held last evening for the purpose of making arrangements for memorial services for the departed members of the different orders. It was decided to hold the exercises on Sunday, June 7th. The arrangements for the program had not been completed at the time of going to press, but will appear in the next issue of this paper. The Foresters held a dance at the St. Rose of Lima school Friday evening of last week, which was enjoyed by a large number of people. The music for the occasion was furnished by the Froquois orchestra. Those from a distance in attendance were: Ray Van Meter, Will Murphy, Donald Liscomb, Miss May Grady, Miss Gen Burk and Miss Lena Mungen, all of Dunlap. Mrs. Hattie Moore-Mitchell, dean of women at Drake university, stopped off between trains in Denison Saturday. Mrs. Mitchell delivered the commencement address at Vail Friday evening and took occasion to stop off here to visit friends. She was to have delivered the commencement address at Dow City, but while here received a telegram stating that her mother was very low and so she will not be able to fill the Dow City engagement. The members of the graduating class of the Defiance schools came to Denison last Saturday to have the class picture taken at the Ferguson studio. The class is composed of twelve, and was accompanied to Denison by T. L. Cook, the superintendent. Those in the party were: Misses Gladys Knuss, Bernice Legge, Mabel Mitchell, Agnes Scott, Bertha Schlenzig, Esther Rowerts, Magdelene Hulsegus, Rose Egler and Messrs. The voting places in the city are as follows: First Ward: Hotel Denison. Second Ward: Secretary's office in New Germania Opera House. Third Ward: Mayor's Office in City Hall Building.

SOCIAL NOTES Mrs. Lottie Ley gave a beautiful card party on Friday evening. The pleasant home was lavishly decorated with lilies of the valley and bouquets of the same dainty flowers were presented to each of the guests. Five tables were arranged for the game, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Very delicious two course refreshments were served after the game. Mrs. Parr and Mrs. Ola Kemming assisting. Mrs. Weeks, of Omaha; Mrs. Fletcher, of Aberdeen, S. D., and Miss O'Connor, of Whitewater, Wis., were out of town guests. The Penelope club will be entertained by Mrs. Chas. Kemming on Thursday afternoon. Two of the Denison young ladies who teach in Goodrich township, Miss Marie O'Connor and Miss Hazel Aebischer, gave a picnic Friday, as it was the closing day of their schools. All the pupils and their parents were invited and over fifty enjoyed the pleasant time and delicious refreshments. The P. E. O.'s held the last regular meeting for the year at the beautiful home of Mrs. B. J. Sibbert on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Parr sharing the honors as hostess for the meeting. The delegates to the grand chapter meeting, Miss Balle and Mrs. Lizzie Patterson, gave very interesting reports which were full of inspiration for the members. It was decided to buy for the hospital, with the money raised by the lecture recently given for that purpose, three fine white maple dressers and sash curtains for the entire building. A special meeting will be held on next Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Parr to make the curtains and have them all ready to hang. The society is very much interested in the hospital and desire to be of assistance in every way possible to the nurse, Miss Buck, who is putting forth her best efforts to make the institution a success from every standpoint. Mrs. B. F. Phillbrook took advantage of the presence in Denison of the grand-officers of the order of Eastern Star, two of whom gave an elaborate breakfast in their honor on Friday at 12 o'clock. The present executive officers of the local chapter were included in the invitation. The table decorations were valley lilies and violets, the places being indicated by dainty violet cards and the breakfast served in four courses. The distinguished guests left on the afternoon train for their respective homes. On Tuesday evening Mrs. Jacob Sims entertained her Sunday school class in honor of the seven members who are among this year's graduates. Covers were laid for twenty, the guests of honor seated at one long table decorated with the class colors in green and white. Streamers hung from above the center of the table to each place, where they were held by small crystal candle sticks tied with green and white ribbons. Places were indicated by tiny diplomas, rolled and tied with the class colors, which, on being opened, were found to contain requests for the performance of certain stunts. An elaborate four course dinner was served in which the schemes of the class colors was carried out in every detail. At the close of the dinner the honored guests received for commencement gifts, hand painted scenes appropriately framed. Miss Irene Stab, of Wall Lake, was an out of town guest. The Woman's club had an especially enjoyable meeting on Monday at the club room. It was the last meeting of the year and was made a social affair, each member inviting a guest. About forty ladies enjoyed the pleasant afternoon. A ball throwing contest caused much amusement, several ladies tying for high score. After some rivalry and several tests, Mrs. Phillbrook captured the prize, which was the pretty table set that had served as a target during the game. Very nice refreshments were served and all voted it a perfectly lovely affair. Mrs. Chas. Powell, of West Side, and Mrs. Chas. Hart, of Sioux City, shared in the pleasures of the afternoon. The Friday club will hold its last meeting for this season this week and the annual picnic will occur a week from Monday at the Normal college grounds. A dozen ladies dropped in on Mrs. P. N. Ory Thursday afternoon to help her celebrate the anniversary of her birth. They came well filled lunch baskets and after a delightful afternoon, spent in sewing and social conversation, the large dining room table was set and all partook of the bounteous supper. The occasion was most enjoyable one and all wished Mrs. Ory many more such anniversaries. Mrs. John Rachwitz celebrated her birthday on last Thursday and invited in a number of neighbors and friends for supper. The table was prettily decorated for the occasion and places were set for fifteen. An elegant two course supper was served, after which the guests indulged in card games and music, and it was not until a late hour that they departed for their homes, all wishing the delightful hostess many more birthdays. Mrs. Adam Schneekloth entertained the Priscilla club last Thursday afternoon at her pleasant home in North Denison. As it happened, Thursday was the anniversary of the hostess' birthday and the occasion was thus all the more enjoyed. A number of outside friends were invited in to help celebrate the event. Delicious refreshments were served during the course of the afternoon. Mrs. Alfred Wright entertained twelve gentlemen at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mr. Wright. The guests were invited for a 7 o'clock dinner and a delicious five course dinner was served. The hostess was assisted by Miss Minnie Rinnsland and Miss Margaret Clark. After dinner the gentlemen spent the evening playing cards and it was not until the wee small hours of the morning that the party broke up. These stag dinners have been annual event at the Alfred Wright home for the past five years and the favored guests look forward to them with much pleasure.
