PLANS TO SIDETRACK BRYAN ARE WELL LAID

Men Who Were Behind the Parker Movement in 1904 Favor Chandler as Head of Democratic Ticket

Washington, Sept. 24—Politicians who were responsible for the promotion of the movement in support of President Roosevelt, who has since been dropped by the Republicans, are said to have developed plans to side track Bryan at the Democratic convention. Judges and others have handled the press and have not been taking any chances.

In the first place, they are all determined to make sure of winning the support of the presidential candidates, and to that end they have been working hard and have not been taking any chances.
