

LARGE CLASS IS TO BE GRADUATED

Program for Commencement at New Plymouth Has Been Completed.

(Capital News Special Service)

New Plymouth, May 5.—May 19 will be a gala day in New Plymouth. On that date, the largest class in the history of the New Plymouth schools will be graduated. The graduating class numbers 16 this year, eight boys and eight girls, as follows: Ella Peterson, Cassie Doherty, Marvill Blaydon, Zetta McIntire, Esther Johnson, Ella Peterson, Lucille Smock, Lodiska Miller, Elmer Swatman, Paul Hinchliff, Roy Baker, John Hainigan, Gerald Hamilton, Russell Ragsdale, Loy Meecham and Milo Phillips. The class play, "Valley Farm," which has been in rehearsal for some weeks under the able direction of Mrs. O. D. Carper, will be given on the evening of May 17 at the Pioneer opera house, and promises to be well worth seeing. On the evening of May 19 the commencement exercises will be held, at which time the members of the class of '16 and the eighth grade graduates will be given their diplomas. P. Monroe Smock will deliver the class address. Gerald Hamilton, who has distinguished himself as an actor of no small ability in a number of school plays, will deliver the valedictorian for the high school class, and Miss Zetta McIntire will deliver the salutatorium. A number of pretty affairs are being arranged for the graduates preceding and following the commencement exercises.

L. B. Hambleton of Oakland, Cal., was a guest at the home of Walter Burke this week, on his return from a visit to the eastern states. Mr. Hambleton at one time taught in the public school here, also in the Fruitland district. He is now connected with the Southern Pacific railroad at Oakland. Since his last visit here two years ago Mr. Hambleton notes many changes and states that it is to be regretted that passengers traveling over the Oregon Short Line cannot see this splendid fruit section, which in his opinion stands unrivaled, not only for its fine orchards, but especially for its many nice homes and well kept grounds.

If the combined efforts of the Literary club, Parent-Teachers circle and W. C. T. U. are successful, New Plymouth will enjoy the privilege of a free public library long before the approach of another winter. The Literary club, which has taken the initial step in the movement and has appointed a committee to confer with a like committee from the other organizations. With their help and co-operation it is hoped that a free public library for the people of New Plymouth and vicinity will be

HOW TO REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT OREGON MAN DIES IN IDAHO MINING CAMP

A SIMPLE, SAFE, RELIABLE WAY.

People who are over-burdened with superfluous fat, know only too well the discomfort and ridicule that over-stout people have to bear.

If you are carrying around five or ten pounds of unhealthy fat you are unnecessarily weakening your vital organs and are carrying a burden which destroys the beauty of your figure.

There is no need of anyone suffering from superfluous fat. If you want to reduce your weight in a simple, safe and reliable way, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise, here is a test worth trying. Spend as much time as you can in, the open air, breathe deeply and get from Charles L. Joy & Co. or any good druggist a box of oil of korelin capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself once a week so as to know just how fast you are losing weight and don't leave off the treatment or even skip a single dose until you are down to normal.

Oil of korelin is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, and helps digestion. Even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, footsteps become lighter, your work seems easier and a lighter and more buoyant feeling takes possession of your whole being.

Every person who suffers from superfluous fat should give this treatment a trial.—Adv.

an accomplished fact at no distant date.

Miss Marie Ackerman, chief operator at this point for the Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph company for the past five years, has resigned her position, much to the regret of New Plymouth people in general. Miss Ackerman has been efficient, courteous at all times and exceedingly obliging to the patrons of the company, which has been fully appreciated. Miss Ackerman becomes the bride of William Wardell, wire chief of the telephone company, the first part of June. Miss Gertrude Ackerman has been appointed to succeed her sister in the management of the office. She will be assisted by Miss Esther Sunder and Miss Margaret Ackerman.

Miss Woodlands entertained the Kensington club at the home of Mrs. Drysdale Monday evening. Music, humorous readings and a salty lunch rounded out the evening most delightfully. Twelve young ladies were present.

W. W. Wheaton returned home Wednesday morning from Weiser, where he has been confined in the hospital with spotted fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Campo are the happy parents of a young son, who was born on Sunday.

AN APPRECIATION.

(A. J. Norris.)

To every man there comes a time when the family and community standing amid the shadows that separates them from him, take stock of what he has been to them and what they have lost.

So in the passing of S. R. McLeren, the family has lost a kind and devoted husband and father, the G. A. R. a brave comrade and defender of the flag, the state a worthy citizen and the community a good, pure, true and honest man.

A mere boy at the outbreak of the civil war, he was among the first to join a Vermont regiment in defense of his country. After active service and honorable discharge, he followed the lure of the west which led him to Marshalltown, Ia., where for 14 years he filled responsible public positions, first as clerk of the court, then as treasurer for Marshall county. Later feeling the need of a change of climate, he cast his lot in Boise.

Believing the ideal life as well as health calls for brawn as well as brains, he spent those earlier years in Idaho in rugged toil, building up a modest competence for his declining years. The beautiful home from which he passed away was built by his own hands, every nook and corner planned for the comfort and happiness of his loved ones.

Of unassuming and retiring disposition, he made but few close friends, but those few knew his worth and loved him, while the larger circle of acquaintances respected and honored him.

Neither was his kindness bounded by his own home. Like all simple, modest men of worth, he scattered deeds of kindness by the wayside, and in Boise today are those who testify to his generous aid when they needed the helping hand.

A lifelong and active member of the church, he was a consistent churchman. An uncompromising foe of corruption and vice in civic and national life, he aligned himself with every movement that made for justice and civic righteousness, and proved himself the rare example of a Christian who lived and voted as he prayed.

As a reader of current events, he never lost interest in the political changes of the day and cherished to the end unwavering faith in the redemption of the Republican party, of which he was a lifelong member.

Near the last, feeling the inroads of the disease that finally conquered him, he retired to the privacy of his home, still keeping his heart attuned to the beauty and order of the natural world, with faith in the eternal verities typified by the wilderness of flowers under which he was laid away.

Today amid the encircling gloom, there comes to the bereaved, tender memories of a kind and loving presence whispering "All is well," and Time—the gentle healer of all hurt, gradually lifts the shadows of grief and fills the heart with joyous hope.

"What is life? 'Tis but the shadow of death.

For in death is eternal life. And the tide of years, with its sighs and tears With its endless toil and strife But paves the way to the dawn of day, From darkness unto light."

W. D. Ruble died on April 25 at Yellow Jacket, Lemhi county. He came in from Eugene, Ore., and arrived at Yellow Jacket on April 15 to construct a placer mining elevator for the J. M. Burkhardt Mining company. Mr. Ruble was an inventor and owner of a placer mine elevator and had not been well since coming to this country. He took sick Monday morning with stomach cramp. All was done that could be done by his friends to relieve him as no doctor was available. He died the following Monday. The coroner, William C. Doebler, was notified and from all evidence available Mr. Ruble died of natural causes, due to stomach trouble and an inquest was not considered necessary. His wife in Eugene, Ore., was at once notified. The body will be shipped to Eugene for burial. Owing to deep snow in the mountains it was impossible to use horses as the snow was melting and horses would break through the snow. In places the snow was from three to six feet deep. On Wednesday night eight men undertook to bring the body to Leesburg, a distance of 40 miles on a sled drawn by themselves. They were compelled to travel by night while the snow was frozen. They left Yellow Jacket Wednesday night and got into Leesburg the next evening at 7 o'clock. On Friday Mr. Colwell, the stage man, started from Leesburg with the body but he only got as far as the two mile post and his horses began to break through the snow and it was impossible to go any further. On Friday night it turned cold and Mr. Colwell, the driver, and Dr. Doebler, the coroner, left Salmon Saturday morning for the summit. They left Leesburg at 8 o'clock Sunday morning, the snow being frozen and arrived in Salmon at 10 o'clock the same morning.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
