ROLLAND McGuire.

On last Sunday evening at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. Newell in Arcadia Valley, occurred the death of Rolland McGuire, who was a victim of pneumonia. GRIM REAPER CALLS
MRS. J. F. QUINN

On last Wednesday morning, at her home, S. W. of Jerome, occurred the death of Jessie V. Quinn, beloved wife of J. F. Quinn.

The deceased has been a sufferer from dropsy for some time which was the direct cause of her death. Mrs. Quinn was 51 years of age at the time of her death and leaves a sorrowing husband and three children to mourn the passing of a dear wife and mother.

The funeral services are to be held this (Thursday) afternoon with interment at Jerome cemetery.

DEATH OF WM. F. CROWDER.

On last Monday morning, at the local hospital established in the Eagles Hall occurred the death of William F. Crowder of Boise, Ida., from the effect of Spanish influenza, which rapidly developed into pneumonia.

The young man was only 32 years of age and came to Jerome a short time ago where he was engaged with one of the ditch crews on the canal work.

A sister at Boise was notified of his illness and arrived here accompanied by her husband, and although all possible was done the young man was not spared.

The remains were shipped to Boise Tuesday for interment.

SUDDEN DEATH OF HERBERT Z. CLARK

On last Monday forenoon at his room occurred the death of Herbert Z. Clark, a recent comer to Jerome who was employed at the Puritan Stores as tailor. The young man was a sufferer of tubercular trouble and a severe hemorrhage was the cause of his sudden demise. He only recently came to Jerome, having worked only 1 1/2 days at the Puritan and little or nothing was known of his relatives.

After several telegrams were sent, the mother of the young man was located at Bay City, Mich., who ordered the body sent there for burial. Mr. Clark was only 28 years of age, a single man, and so far as known leaving only the broken hearted mother to mourn his passing.

MRS. A. NEWELL.

The little community of Arcadia Valley was saddened on last Monday evening, when the death of Mrs. A. Newell was announced from her home on that day.

This little family have all been the victims of the flu, seven of them being down at one time, resulting in the death of Mrs. Newell and her brother, Rolland McGuire.

The deceased leaves five children, the youngest being only five days old, and the sympathy of the community is extended to these children who are called upon to mourn the death of a dear parent and one to guide their little footsteps through the pathways of their young life.

Besides the children, the deceased leaves a sorrowful husband, mother and father, who were present at the end.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon with interment at Jerome cemetery.

A PROMISING CAREER ENDED.

On last Sunday morning deep gloom was again cast over our little community when the word was passed out that H. D. Maclear had passed to the great beyond.

Little Mac, as he was more familiarly known among his friends, was stricken about two weeks ago with influenza, which rapidly developed into pneumonia, and although the brave young man put up a most remarkable fight he was unable to withstand the ravages of the disease and answered the final call at noon on Sunday last.

Harold D. Maclear was one of the early comers to the North Side tract, coming here with E. J. Ostrander with whom he was connected as yard manager in the lumber business of Mr. Ostrander at Jerome for a number of years. At the time Mr. Ostrander disposed of his lumber interests here, Mr. Maclear accompanied him to Twin Falls where he remained for a few years, returning to Jerome later where he again assumed management of the Boise Payette Lumber Co. yards, which position he held at the time of his death.

Although young in years, Mr. Maclear early demonstrated his ability as a business man, particularly in the lumber business, and his position will be a hard one for his employer to fill. He was a most pleasant fellow to meet, either in a business or social way and at all times had a word of cheer for those who were in trouble or were downcast, and his smiling countenance and happy disposition will be missed by his friends in Jerome, who are numbered by the score.

Harold D. Maclear was born at Evanston, Ill., on Nov. 13th, 1888, making him 30 years of age at the time of his death, lacking 3 days.

He was united in marriage about four years ago to Miss Violet Boone of Twin Falls, who, with a little son, Billie of three tender years, is left to mourn the passing of an affectionate father and husband. In addition the deceased leaves a mother, father, two sisters and a brother to whom the sincere sympathy of our little community goes out.

The funeral was held from the late home on Tuesday afternoon with interment at Jerome cemetery, where services were held by Father Hahn of Twin Falls.

THE LOCAL FLU SITUATION.

Several new cases of flu have developed in Jerome and vicinity during the past week, none of a serious nature, however, and with another doctor in the field temporarily, and some of the nurses relieved from other cases, it is to be hoped that the disease can be brought under control in our midst.

Due precaution is urged on everyone to assist the local officers in their endeavor to stop the epidemic by keeping a strict quarantine and to avoid congregating in any great numbers.

RED CROSS NOTES

Those receiving the overseas labels for Christmas packages can get their cartons from the post office. Beginning Tuesday and until the 20th of November, a representative of the Red Cross will be on duty each afternoon from two to five, in L'Herisson's furniture store, to inspect, weigh and wrap these parcels. The 20th will be the last day that these packages may be mailed.

There are thousands of boys among our troops over there who have neither relatives nor near friends to whom they might send their Christmas Package labels. To assure these boys of their Christmas packages, the Red Cross decided to have them send their labels direct to Red Cross headquarters, and they would be apportioned among all the Red Cross chapters, knowing that many who have no boys of their own would consider it a great privilege to fill a carton and send it to one of these friendless ones.

Jerome Chapter has been given ten of these labels, and Mr. Jaycox, the post master, will give one label and a carton to each of the first ten who call for them.

The Red Cross Chapter would like the names of all Jerome boys who are overseas. Kindly send names to Mrs. Piper immediately.

If there are any who have phonographic records that they wish to send to the soldier boys, please leave them at Mr. Armstrong's store.

Directions for sending Christmas parcels to the men of the army, the navy and the marines are to be found in another part of this paper.

Those wishing information concerning the sending of Christmas parcels to individuals other than our soldiers at the front—as nurses, Y. M. C. A. workers, etc.—can obtain such information from Mrs. R. E. Shepherd.

MARINES—The War Department regulations for Christmas parcels for soldiers overseas will be observed in the case of every marine whose address is "American Expeditionary Forces." This address indicates that the marine is serving overseas in an army capacity, and temporarily detached from the navy.

For all other marines, whether in training or serving actively in this country, at naval posts and stations duty, navy regulations will govern.

Instructions for sending Xmas boxes to our boys overseas: Each soldier overseas will be provided with one Xmas Parcel Label. This label will be forwarded by him to the person in the United States from whom he wishes to receive his Xmas package. Parcels that do not bear this label will not be accepted by the Red Cross for delivery to the post office authorities. Labels that are lost will not be duplicated. Cartons to hold these packages may be obtained from county headquarters. No message or writing will be allowed to go into these packages. When they are packed but unwrapped, they must not weigh more than 2 pounds, 15 ounces. When packed, the box unsealed and unwrapped and ready for inspection, should be taken to the nearest collection station designated by the Red Cross. No package will be accepted by the Red Cross for shipment after Nov. 20.

Articles barred by post office regulations:

All spirituous, vinous, malted, fermented or other intoxicating liquors. All kinds of poisons and articles containing poisons. Explosives of all kinds. Inflammable materials, including friction matches.

Infernal machines and mechanical, chemical or other devices of composition which may ignite or explode. Liquids, fragile articles.

All other articles which may kill or in anywise harm or injure another or damage or in otherwise deface or injure the mails.

All information regarding the Navy.

The navy department has issued the following instructions regarding the shipping of Christmas packages to sailors in home waters and abroad:

Packages forwarded by parcels post for men in the navy must comply with the postal regulations and should be enclosed in substantial boxes with hinged or screw top cover to facilitate opening and inspecting.

All boxes shipped by express are limited to 20 pounds in weight, should measure not more than two cubic feet in volume, be of wood well strapped and have a hinged or screw top to facilitate opening for inspection.

All mail matter should be addressed as now prescribed by the postal regulations. All express packages should be forwarded in care of Supply Officer, Fleet Supply Base, 29th St. and 3rd avenue, South Brooklyn, New York.

No perishable food product other than those contained in cans or glass jars should be packed in parcels post or express shipments.

All packages must be plainly marked with the address of the sender, together with a notation indicating the nature of the contents, such as

"Christmas box, or Christmas Package."

The supply officer at New York will cause such express package to be opened and carefully examined to see that nothing of an explosive or other dangerous character is forwarded.

The shipment of Christmas packages for U. S. naval vessels abroad should be made so as to reach New York as early as possible and not later than Nov. 15th.

MEMORIAL.

In Memory of Mrs. Stella M. Lawshe

That dread disease, Sweeping o'er our land, Has stopped in Jerome And laid a hand On one of our young folk, so dear.

A girl in our midst For over ten years; We learned to love her,— To comfort her fears And to share her joys and sorrows.

Though 'tis hard to give A chum of so long,— Friendly at all times; We part with a song In our heart and a tear in our eye.

The tear is there for sorrow, Yet, through the heart's pain, Comes a thought of "Tomorrow" For we'll meet again Beyond those Shining Gates.

There is little more to say, And not much else to do, But give our lives to God 'Till He summons us too, To dwell in the land Where we live anew.

—By a Friend and Schoolmate, H. A. R.
