

ARCADIA VALLEY

The only safe way to take care of a valuable package is carry it yourself. Ask Mrs. Harry.

Harry Thomas, who has been working for Mr. Pierce for a few days, is now busy at the Albee residence.

The alfalfa threshers have been at Otto's, Habermans' Olivers' and Henage's this week.

We hope someone will see that those cattle on the Frazer place get some water.

The usual Thanksgiving dinners were celebrated in Arcadia. Everyone had a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry, who have been spending some time with their son, Mr. H. E. Harry, left Saturday for Boise, where they will spend the winter.

Merriam Oliver is staying with her sister, Mrs. F. C. Pierce.

Mrs. Henage was on the sick list this week.

Hjalmar Carlson is rapidly recovering from his illness.

We see Mr. Pierson is raising his house and fixing up for the winter. Misses Huyck and Holt were in Arcadia last Wednesday in the interest of the Farm Bureau. Just a small committee met with them at the church to discuss neighborhood needs and occupations.

Little Harland Pratt is making a visit at the S. S. Reed home.

The Wilcox family has moved to one of the Hollister houses and will make that their home.

The Fulkersons, of Appleton, have moved down on the rimrock.

A fine baby boy arrived at the Milo Pratt home last Friday night. Congratulations.

The hay balers are busy in Arcadia. At present they are working at R. T. Henage's.

Mrs. Terrance Ryan spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Huber Ryan.

A big bunch of cattle is pasturing on the Frazer place.

The Fulkersons, who have lived for the past two years on a farm owned by Mr. Hill, have moved to the Block place near the rimrock and three-fourth of a mile east of the Appleton highway.

The Hill place was sold in September to Lyman Taft of southern Utah, who expects to occupy it soon.

ELDORADO HEIGHTS

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Johns, located on the Holmquist place, returned Sunday from the S. S. They were accompanied by a new daughter three weeks old.

Mr. Charles Fulkerson, who has been farming the B. O. Hill farm for the past three years, moved last week to the Mrs. Block place, nine miles southwest of Jerome, near the canyon.

Charles Kyle, son-in-law of Mr. Fulkerson, has returned with his family to Webbers Falls, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Tooley enjoyed a Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Fulkerson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynch Burks are expected home this week from Virginia where they have spent the past season. They return via Pennsylvania, stopping in that state for a visit with Mr. Burks' relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bishop spent Thanksgiving day with E. C. Frost and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Garner, parents of Mrs. Hugo Jones, arrived recently from White Elm, Ark., and will make their home on the North Side Tract.

The Kings, Salladays, Kays, Wiswells and Fairmans, made up a jolly Thanksgiving party at the Byron Smith home.

The clover huller is in our neighborhood. Mr. Bruckner obtained a yield of about six bushels per acre on 11 acres of red clover. One and a half acres of alfalfa yielded 18 bu. of fine seed. The alfalfa seed was grown on new seeding from first cutting.

NORTH APPLETON.

Archie Mullins is working with a hay baling crew south of Wendell.

Eddy & Sheldon threshed sweet clover for Arno Johnson and H. M. Carson last week. They finished up in this locality on oats for Chas. F. Dwight and moved into Arcadia to finish up a few small jobs there.

A baby daughter was born at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Barrett Friday evening, Nov. 29th. Both mother and baby doing nicely.

Mr. Irving, who has been living on the Thrall place the past year, has bought 81 acres, the south part of the Darlington farms owned by Mr. Alexander Murdock of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Richard had Thanksgiving dinner at Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Barrett's.

Wm. Everett and Arthur Peltner left last week for an extended auto trip. They intend to throw up a hat and follow the direction indicated.

APPLETON

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Smith Saturday, a son. Mother and baby doing well.

Geo. Pettengill is building a new house on the forty he bought from Frank Beck.

Mr. Davis, brother-in-law of Guy Humphrey, has moved to Robt. Marthis' place.

All but two members of the De Board family have the "flu." They are improving slowly. Mrs. Lester Be Board was quite low Friday, but is improving.

L. C. Humphrey is improving. Mrs. Wm. Martin spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beck.

Frank Beck has bought the old Schultzer 80 in north Appleton.

Mrs. L. L. Graham is staying at E. K. Smith's this week.

A band of Newman's sheep pastured on the Pizey place last week. They lost several from blout.

There are all kinds of cheap printing—but none of it is really cheap—at least not on a basis of value. Cheap stuff is usually worth almost what it costs. Our printing isn't the cheapest you can get, but it's as good as the best.

STOVES

Our stock of stoves is about all gone. We have only 8 left. Wilson heaters—absolutely the best. See them; ask about them. They have given satisfaction for the last 30 years. Reduced prices. Frasers-Pence Co.
