LAND INNOCENT OF BATHTUBS

In Turkey the Stationary Tub, So Pa-miliar in Western Lands, is Ab-solutely Unknown.

The Turk in spite of his constant bathing (bathing being enjoined by the Mohammedan religion) has no stationary tubs nor wash bowls—indeed, Turkish houses are quite innoceat of plumbing, says Edith Gilfallin, in an article on the colorful ancient capital of the Ottoman empire. But as the Turk never bathes save in running water the brick floors contain drains that carry the water to the garden outside. Always before eating, a servant pours, from a pitcher, water over an oriental's hands; which seems a wise provision, for they do not use knives nor forks; spoons only are used to est soup or sherbets.

They do not sit around a table as we do, but sit on cushions round foothigh table trays. All over the near test they have but two meals. Breakfast is a sort of movable feast up to eleven o'clock. It consists of coffee, fruit and various hot breads. The Turk is enabled to sustain life until his dinner at sunset by drinking innumerable cupfuls of thick, hot, heavily-sweetened coffee.

Dinner, which is consumed in the evening, is the only meal the Turk takes in the bosom of his family. It often is an elaborate affair of twelve courses: Tomatoes and squash and agglant and other vegetables stuffed with rice or minced meat or cheese, the swimming in oil, mutton stews, goat fricassees, roasted chickens, rich pastries and candies, preserves of plum and quince and fig and peach, and always coffee and the narghile—waterpipe.

put to wars, the old-time soldier of fortune will become an extinct species.

The world, of course, can get along very well without him, and yet he will be missed. For he is a very ancient institution, indeed. He was with Alexander and Caesar. Napoleon, the captains and the kings of every nation under the sun wherever there was a knife to stick or a builet to shoot.

Slowly but surely, however, the ground has been cut from under the feet of the soldier of fortune, and now it seems that, at last, he is to disappear completely.

He had a good time, though, while it lasted, and it did last a long time, at that. For there was always, somewhere, a job waiting for him. If things went stale on the Spanish Main, he could cross over to the other side of the world and find another banner under which to fight.

It was all the same to him, which side he fought with or against. He had no grudge to satisfy. His business was fighting. The doubloon of Spain looked just as good to him as the sovereign of England or the yen of Japan.

Are You to be Married ANOTHER CABINET MEMBER RESIGNS

ATTORNEY GENERAL SENDS IN HIS RESIGNATION BECAUSE SALARY NOT SUFFICIENT.

President Has Agreed to Retirement of Thomas Watt Gregory on March 4, but Has Not Yet Appointed His Successor.

Washington.—Thomas Watt Gregory, attorney general of the United States since 1914, has resigned because of "pecuniary responsibilities," and will return to the practice of law. President Wilson has agreed to his retirement next March 4.

Mr. Gregory's letter of resignation, dated January 9, and the president's reply, cabled from Paris the next day, were made public Sunday night at the White House. The attorney general's letter disclosed that he had long considered retiring from office and had discussed the matter with the president before Mr. Wilson went abroad.

Mr. Gregory's successor has not yet abroad.

Mr. Gregory's successor has not yet been appointed, and there has been no official intimation as to who he will be. In speculation the names Frank L. Polk, counselor of the state department and acting secretary while Mr. Lansing is in Europe, and Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois were mentioned.

James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois were mentioned.

Mr. Gregory is the second cabinet officer to resign recently on account of personal financial considerations, William Gibbs McAdoo having retired last month as secretary of the treasury because he could not support his family on the cabinet member's salary of $12,000 the year. Mr. Gregory is the fifth man to leave the cabinet during the six years of President Wilson's administration. Others were Secretary of Stafe Bryan, Secretary of War Garrison, Attorney General McReynolds, Mr. Gregory's predecessor, who was appointed to the supreme court, and Mr. McAdoo.

"Mr. McAdoo's policies are my policies, and I intend to carry them out through the existing railroad organizations," he telegraphed Saturday to regional directors, following announcement of his appointment, which was made by President Wilson by cable, and on recommendation of Mr. McAdoo. The new director general giso declared for "a square deal for labor," fair treatment of railway owners and patrons and closer understanding between the government and railroads.

ers and patrons and closer understanding between the government and railroads.

Before the interstate commerce committee, which is conducting investigation on railroad legislation, Mr. Hines next week probably will make an effort to show the government's difficulties in supervising the railways with the control period limited to twenty-one months. As assistant director general, be advised Mr. McAdoo during the formulation of the recommendation for five-year extension of federal mangement and many other policies of the railroad administration have been developed on his recommendation. He was called in as Mr. McAdoo's principal assistant immediately after the government took charge of the railways in the final days of 1917.

Mr. Hines first official act Saturday was to delegate the railroad administration's case in the New York marine workers' strike to the war labor board for settlement. In a statement he pledged himself to "a square deal for labor with not only ungrudging, but sincere and cordial recognition of its partnership in the railroad enterprise."

IDAHO LEGISLATURE

Preliminaries Disposed of and the Lawmakers Are Getting Down to Real Business.

Boise, Idaho.—The first week of the fifteenth Idaho legislature found that body well organized to feed administration and other necessary and important bills into the hopper. For a body composed largely of new men, it has done remarkably well. Not only has it disposed of one important pledge which both the Republican and Democratic parties promised the people in their respective platforms—ratification of the federal constitutional prohibition amendment—but it has started on the way a number of other timely and important measures.

The house organized Monday with the selection of Speaker Kiger. Had introduced and passed by unanimous vote the house resolution to ratify the amendment to the federal constitution prohibiting forever the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. Heard the strong message of Governor Davis, who presented many progressive reform measures especially dealing with the state government, in which it is proposed to consolidate and weed out useless commissions and boards and to consolidate others. Received and tabled, temporarily, a resolution to place the legislature on record in favor of a league of nations.

Placed on first reading, and later passed under suspension of the rules.

league of nations.

Placed on first reading, and later passed under suspension of the rules, house bill No. 1, appropriating $75,000 to meet the expenses of the legislature, Held memorial services in honor of the late Theodore Roosevelt, after passing resolution of sorrow, Received memorial to those senators in congress opposed to woman suffrage, urging them to vote for the Susan B. Anthony amendment, together with act approving the new codes compiled by the code commissioner. Standing committees named by the speaker for the session, and mileage of members reported and approved.

The senate organized with the elec-sion, and mileage of members reported and approved.

The senate organized with the election of Senator E. W. Whitcomb as president pro tem, and swearing in of attaches. Received first official communication from Governor Davis, urging that the constitutional prohibition amendment be ratified without delay, and passed the house joint resolution. Approved memorial of sorrow in honor of the memory and because of the death of the late Theodore Roosevelt. Urged the governor to issue proclamation calling for state-wide observance of funeral hours for the ex-president. Received new bill having for its object the protection of the civil rights of soldiers in the service of their country and act proposing to indorse the league of nations, as proposed. First county division bill introduced to create the county of Jerome from territory-in Lincoln, Gooding and Minidoka counties, naming Jerome as the county seat.

Boise, Idaho,—With the appointment of the standing committees in the two houses of the legislature accomplished, the Fifteenth Idaho legislature is now prepared to handle the volume of business waiting to be turned into its channels.

Speaker Kiger ended the suspense in the house on January 10, when he named the committees. The Republican majority announced the selection of W. L. Adamson of Blaine county as majority leader, and A. L. McMahon of Shoshone county as "whlp." Representative Storey of Ada is permanent caucus chairman and Ezra P. Monson of Franklin is secretary.

The scenate has selected Senator Lloyd Adams of Madison as "whip;" Senator Raiph Nelson of Kootenai county caucus enairman, and Senator I. H. Nash of Franklin, secretary.

Kiger as follows:

State affairs—Monson of Franklin, chairman; Gudmundson of Cassia, Featherstone of Shoshone, Morgan of Washington, Bonnell of Bannock, Storey of Ada and Schroeder of Idaho.

Educational Institutions—Hugo of Latah, chairman; Bourne of Bannock, Gudmundson of Cassia, Baird of Fremont, Carpenter of Nez Perce, Snow of Lembi and Schroeder of Idaho.

Appropriations—Weeks of Canyon, chairman; Anderson of Latah, Severson of Jefferson, Carpenter of Nez Perce, Young of Ada, Stanger of Bonneville and Foley of Canyon.

That county division is going to play a more important part this session than was anticipated is conceded by solons with the launching of two more division bills on January 10. The first division bills was introduced in the senate January 9. It seeks to create the county of Jerome.

On the 10th bills to organize the county of Clark out of western Fremont county, with Dubols as the county seat, and the county of Caribou out of Bannock, with Boda Springs as the county seat, were introduced.
