

Club Notes.

Unusual interest already is being manifested in the Seventh Biennial Convention of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs to be held in St. Louis May 17 to 25.

Several causes lead to this interest. Questions of importance to club women are to come up before the convention, and club members say the biennial is not to be a "three ring circus," as the program is arranged so no two departments will hold sessions simultaneously. The last and most potent cause is the fact that the gates to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition will be open during the biennial and the celebration of Woman's Day at the fair will occur during the National Convention.

The club women of St. Louis have appointed committees to see to the matter of hotel accommodations for the visitors and all that can be done for the comfort and convenience of visiting delegates and representatives, will be done.

The Gem of the Mountain Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Staley on Saturday afternoon.

Responses to roll call with appropriate quotations.

After the usual routine business, the program of the aftertoon was presented.

The History study, The Beginning of the Revolutionary War, was discussed in a general manner by club.

Mrs. Brady read Paul Revere's Ride.

A well prepared paper on the French and Indian War, written by Mrs. Duffin, was read by Mrs. Rose.

Mrs. Underwood gave a reading, in her pleasing style, from "Colonial Dames," after which Mrs. Jones sang "Too Marienette" much to the delight of all present.

Club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Underwood March 12.

Chinks in Trouble.

Last Wednesday a couple of U. S. inspectors dropped into Montpelier and arrested three young Chinamen, for being in the country unlawfully. The suspects had been working for Charley Chung, and the latter immediately hired Attorney Glenn to defend his countrymen.

After a partial examination the inspectors took the Chinamen to Pocatello for a hearing.

It seems the officials are making a cleaning out of celestials who are unlawfully in Idaho, dozens already been deported.
