SENATOR BORAH WILL TRAIL TAFT

Washington.—To answer propaganda speeches delivered through the west by former President Taft in support of the league of nations, Senator Borah of Idaho will leave Washington about March 10 to follow Taft's trail, and wherever the ex-president spoke in advocacy of the league, Senator Borah will speak in opposition. The senator decided to make this tour after receiving many appeals from midwestern cities to visit them and set forth his reasons for fighting the league, but he has also decided to couple with his talk on the league of nations, bitter denunciation of Bolshevism, along the line of his late speech in the senate.

Friday, in his most remarkable public address, Senator Borah outlined his stand against league of nations.

The republican side of the chamber had no empty seats and most of the democrats heard his entire speech.

Crowded into the rear of the senate was a large portion of the house membership which came over to hear the leading opponent of the league of nations. When he concluded, Senator Borah was surrounded by a crowd of senators who forced temporary suspension of senate business while they extended congratulations. Congratulations came from democrats as well as from republicans and from old republican leaders headed by Lodge, as well as from newer and progressive senators like Johnson of California.

Even Vice President Marshall, who has never before been known to do such thing, went to Senator Borah with his congratulations and Senator Smoot of Utah, who took the floor after Borah had concluded, passed to pay tribute to the Idaho senator's effort.

A. J. ASHLEY BUYS CHAMPION HOLSTEIN SIRE.

The Examiner is glad to see the farmers of Bear Lake county taking steps towards improving the standard of their cattle. The latest importation of a pure bred sire was made by Albert J. Ashley of Paris, who recently received by express a young Holstein from the Pine Grove Farms at Elmira, N. Y. The animal is certainly a beauty and he comes from a strain of Holsteins that have world records. His sire is said to be the best Holstein bull in the world and his dam, at four years old, produced 74 pounds of milk per day on a test. He has four sisters that produced an average of 20 pounds of butter each in seven days, as two-year-old heifers.

Mr. Ashley is justly proud of the young animal and he believes that he has got the best Holstein sire ever brought to Bear Lake county.

THE DOLLARS LOANED UNCLE SAM MADE GERMANY QUIT.

James K. Lynch of San Francisco, governor of the Twelfth federal reserve district, has issued a greeting to all war savers, from which we publish the following:

You made Germany quit. The dollars you loaned the United States Treasury through War Savings and Liberty Bonds brought about the signing of the armistice on November 11th, 1918. Realize the magnitude of these plans for a spring campaign in 1919. Four million men in France and a like number in training camps at home! Sixteen million rifles with adequate ammunition! Five hundred thousand cannon with shiploads of shells! A steel armored tank for every seventy-five yards of our line! Ten tons of mustard gas for every one Germany could produce! Complete mastery of the air with sufficient bombing planes to wipe out entire regiments and raze cities to the dust! Sixteen million tons of shipping to transport men and supplies to France! A huge assemblage of other war material on an equally grand scale. We were prepared to cut a swathe one hundred miles wide through to Berlin. We would have blasted Germany off the face of the earth. Thank you, War Savers, your money made all this possible. Your prompt response to the call of your government saved half a million precious American lives. Like Belshazzar, the King of Babylon, Germany saw the handwriting of Fate on the wall. This time it wrote: Disaster! Defeat! Death!

Periodic Billions Attacks.

Persons subject to periodic bilious attacks will observe that their appetite fails them just before an attack. That is, they do not really crave food but eat because it is meal time. If they will eat only a light meal and no meat, then take two of Chamberlain's Tablets the attack may be avoided.

A PLAGUE OF PANACEAS.

A new craze is sweeping over the country—as silly, as pestilential as the dancing madness that seized the world just before the war. Everybody wants to reform everybody else and settle everything that is wrong with anything. Our mails are choked with impassioned letters, our wastebaskets are overflowing with "thoughtful" pamphlets—all touting panaceas.

Everything, from pap to dynamite, is being recommended for what ails the world and the other fellow. Every method of relieving him of his pocketbook—for that is always the seat of the other fellow's disease—is being advocated. Some favor choking him with taxes as an easy cure; others, treating him with a piece of lead pipe as being quicker and more merciful. Some pear-headed professors and members of the allied trades of mental shut-ins are working in shifts turning out their celebrated Socialist Soothing Syrup, guaranteeing to cure financial corpulence and the black curse of the bourgeois home life. Bright young men who make a living shaking up bright young thoughts in bright in bright young papers are offering their snappy-tasting Bolshevik Sarsaparilla for those dull aches. One group of ladies is brewing over bond fires a cure-all for everything, while another group denies that there is any efficacy in that medicine and wants to cheer up the old problems and cheer up the old problems by running them with baby ribbons.

This is the greatest era of pap, piffle and poison the world has ever seen. The old family doctor hasn't a chance; nobody but a quack can prescribe nowadays. But sensible people learned long ago that there is no health in the nostrum, no way to a sound body except through living sanely, simple exercise and hard work. Throw the bottles out of the window—it won't hurt if you throw out a few quacks with them—and let's all go back to work.

Meantime, young Professor This and old Doctor That should not be allowed to offer, as safe and pleasant tonics, compounds that create a depraved appetite in credulous takers.

And any one can always know that the habit for the stuff has been formed when the patient begins to babble about "the revolution."

The final aim of every revolution—the only lasting result that can be gained from one—is the ballot. If Americans have not the simple common sense to use it wisely and to elect honest leaders who will pass honest laws—not for one class but for all classes—how can they expect anything good to come from the self-elected leaders who selfishly seize power for themselves and a small group of followers?

The answer is that the men who advocate the sort of practical Bolshevism that is at work in Russia today, and they are almost all unnaturalized foreigners, do not want honest leaders or honest laws—they want to loot. Anything except miracles that the majority wants it can have at the next election. But none imagine that the old, simple, fundamental laws of life and health can be repealed, even at the polls.—Editorial from Saturday Evening Post.

Dollars and Cents.

Counting it only in dollars and cents, how much did that last cold cost you? A man may not always stop work when he has a cold, but perhaps it would be better if he did. It takes about ten days to get completely rid of a cold under the usual treatment. That time can be much shortened by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and proper care of yourself. In fact, a bottle of this remedy in the house is a mighty good investment during the winter and spring months.
