manufacturer Sportsmen's Goods, Hunting Boots and Shoes, 124 Chambers street, New York city. E. A. White is laying out plans and making preparations to build a fire proof warehouse 30x60, in rear of his furniture store, this spring.

A LIVELY SCHOOL ROW. "Stamps" Anderson to Get In, Up to His Neck, in a Misunderstanding Where Somebody is Bound to be Displeased. One of the knottiest questions that will puzzle the brains of School Superintendent Anderson during his tenure of office, will probably be the condition of the Ketchum school district.

THEY STAND PAT. Since the shutting-down of the Minnie Moore and Queen of the Hills mines, the miners of Broadford have, through committees, consulted with the miners along Wood River regarding the situation. Last Saturday evening a delegation from the Broadford Miners' Union went up to Bullion, to attend a joint meeting with the Bullion Miners' Union.

SEASONABLE GOODS! S. J. FRIEDMAN Has just received a Heavy Fall and Winter Stock, which includes all the Latest Novelties in DRY GOODS, Gent's Furnishing Goods, Men and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Caps, etc.

Water Troubles. Much annoyance is felt around town, owing to the freezing up of many of the supply pipes. No mains are frozen yet, but the weather may remain so cold that even they will freeze.

DEER CREEK, A Tributary that will Produce Much Ore, This Year. Deer Creek will certainly come to the front as an ore-producer, next summer. There are only about 50 men working there, just now, but they are meeting with such success that the mine-owners will undoubtedly feel justified in greatly enlarging their forces.
