
JOE WEHOLT

I. R. Wisner of Harpster, received the following letter from his friend, Joe Weholt, in which he takes pains to express his opinion of the work of the Y. M. C. A., and in view of recent arguments in this vicinity, ought to afford convincing proof that they are all that is claimed for it. Joe is a member of Co. F, 12th Infantry:

"Camp Fremont, Cal., Sept. 15.—Dear Friend:—Knowing that you are interested in army life will drop you a few lines this afternoon and give you an idea of how and what we are doing, so you can compare it with the time you were in the service.

"I have been assigned to the infantry now and believe me, we haven't lost much time since we landed here. I haven't drilled quite five weeks yet and am going out on the rifle range tomorrow, so you see they make soldiers quite fast here. I also have my gas mask, bayonet, full field pack, and all the other articles necessary to equip a soldier.

"They are drilling us quite hard now because they want to have us ready for overseas duty by November 1st, so we are getting all we can stand every day. The hardest of all is the bayonet work and the extended skirmish order. They both have to be done on the jump. Next comes standing at attention, which is a very difficult matter, especially when on parade.

"We had a review before our new major general last week. He said it was the best parade he ever saw considering our short time of training; this was one battalion of the eighth division. There is a complete division here in Camp Fremont, which they are training to send to Siberia, but if those U. S. boys in France don't wait there won't be any use of us going.

"We are getting good eats here; for dinner we had sweet potatoes, roast pork, gravy with bread and fruit; but there isn't any white bread on week days.

"There are three big Y. M. C. A. buildings here in camp and several tents; they sure are a home to the soldier.

"This army life is fine if a man likes it, but I say 'Damn the Kaiser.'

"I sure have a dandy captain. (Captain Whitaker), he fought in the Philippines the same time you did; but my sergeant is a bear cat."

Dietitian Writes Friends.

The following letter was written by Mrs. C. B. King, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nail of this city. Mrs. King formerly resided on a ranch out near the Chas. Nail place, and visited here some few months ago. The lady is now at base hospital 116, A. E. F.:

Somewhere in France,
 August 24th, 1918.

My Dear Friends:—It is more than eight months since that pleasant evening when I visited you in your cosy little home in Grangeville, and in that time I have thought of you all very often and hoped to have written you long ago as I promised. But I have been so busy all these months that there have been but few opportunities for writing letters.

After I reached Philadelphia in December, I had my usual winter lectures there to give and just as I was busy with them, I was called by the war department and sent over here, where I have been hard at work ever since.

I am the dietitian of a very large hospital for wounded soldiers. The dietitian looks after all of the soldiers' food, oversees the buying, cooking and serving, arranges special diets, nourishments, and so on. When I tell you that at times we have eighteen hundred to two thousand wounded and sick men here, you will know I am kept pretty busy. But I am very glad to be able to do it, and glad the government selected me for the post. My son-in-law, Betty's husband, is now fighting in France, so are two of my nephews; so our family is pretty well represented, don't you think?

As I recall your boys, they are not yet old enough to be called, are they? I hope not, for I hate to think of any more of our young men coming over to this frightful war.

But I feel that it will soon be over now. We surely have the Germans on the run and if we can only keep them going fast till they reach Berlin, it will be fine. Then all our boys can go home and stay home, for that will end the war for always. Don't you think so?

I am working harder than I ever did even on the ranch, but am glad to be able to do it. All the soldiers call me "mother" and say they enjoy the food we make for them at this hospital very much. "It tastes like home," they say, and that always pleases me. It is fine to be able to make some poor wounded boy feel at home.

I am writing this out of doors under a big tree. Just below I can see trains passing on their way to the front with soldiers, ammunition, hay guns, etc. Other trains coming from the front carry wounded soldiers to the hospitals.

Now I must go back to my work, for there is always plenty of that waiting for me. I wish you would write me a line or two, letters mean so much to us away over here.
