

Lands. Geo. M. Reed.
Lester Taylor returned from Butte on Sunday evening's train.

Quick Lite gasoline lamps for Xmas. EIMERS.

Eastman kodaks and supplies at Glanville's.

E. S. Hancock spent a few days in Cottonwood last week attending to business matters.

Buy a farm—Geo. M. Reed.

Geo. Wikoff who suffered a second attack of the flu, and was very ill, is now again recovering.

Rolled barley at the Denver Roller Mills. Will deliver.

V. Knapp of the Lewiston Mercantile company, is in town for a few days attending to business for his firm.

S. V. Fullaway superintendent of the Nezperce National Forest, returned this week from a trip up the Salmon river.

Patrician pattern Community silver ware. EIMERS.

Walter Trueblood came in from Camp Fremont, Calif., the last part of the week. Walter was discharged from the service and was glad to get home.

Stoves refined and repaired at Arnold & Hunters.

Carl Nelson, of Burns, Mont., arrived here last Thursday evening for an indefinite visit with his father, K. S. Nelson, and brothers Sam and Albert.

Columbia grafanolas and records for sale at the Smoke House.

Miss Alice Erskine having closed her school, is home again for a time. She will probably resume teaching again elsewhere, when the schools are reopened.

Rolled barley at the Denver Roller Mills. Will deliver.

M. Glatigny, age 93 and an old timer in the White Bird country, has been very ill. Last reports of him are to the effect, however, that he is somewhat improved.

Car overhauling a specialty, at EIMERS.

E. J. Bennett has returned from a trip to California, where he went some time ago for a short visit with his family who are spending the winter in that state.

Books suitable for Christmas gifts at Glanville's.

Mrs. Mat Geary and children are late victims of the flu. It is in a very mild form however, and it is expected that they will not suffer great inconvenience from it.

Fresh cider for sale in any quantity. John D. Long.

Chas. Jewell, who has been ill with the flu has sufficiently recovered to take the train out of here Tuesday morning leaving for Spokane, where he has been offered lucrative employment.

Rolled barley at the Denver Roller Mills. Will deliver.

Henry Munro received his final discharge papers recently while at a training camp in Illinois and arrived here on Friday evening's train. Henry spent a few days at Ferdinand enroute home.

Books suitable for Christmas gifts at Glanville's.

Guy Behean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Behean of the White Bird section, came in on Sunday evening's train from Spokane, where he had been attending the S. A. T. C. He went on to his home Tuesday.

Rolled barley at the Denver Roller Mills. Will deliver.

Omer Wise was up town yesterday after a successful tussle with the epidemic. Omer shows that he was up against the real thing and considers himself fortunate in not coming out second in the affray.

Car overhauling a specialty, at EIMERS.

STRAYED—One light red muley heifer, branded bar HT, also S diamond on left hip and left ribs. Ear marked square crop off right and half under-bit in right ear. Suitable reward. CHAS. W. HAUNTZ, phone Farmers 77.

Eastman kodaks and supplies at Glanville's.

R. M. Hattabaugh was unable to leave his bed Tuesday morning, the popular affliction having attacked him. However, it is stated that his case is not a severe one. He is expected to be around again in the regulation period.

Quick Lite gasoline lamps for Xmas. EIMERS.

In a letter written to his brother Roy, Otto Nail, who left here two years ago to locate in the east, informs him that he has sold out and is again coming west. He will be at Starbuck with relatives for Christmas, where he will probably spend the winter.

Patrician pattern Community silver ware. EIMERS.

Attorney Frank L. Moore of Moscow, one of the pioneer Democratic wheel horses of Latah county, was an arrival from his home town on Sunday evening's train, remaining here until Tuesday morning. Mr. Moore was the opposing candidate to Senator W. E. Borah in the recent election and went down to defeat with the rest of the Democratic-Nonpartisan aggregation was here on legal business.

Clothing Makes Practical and Timely Gifts

Gift Suggestions for Your Men Friends

Gloves always fill a long felt want with every man. Silk lined Gloves in the popular shades at...$2.50

It is a natural feeling for a man to feel dressed up when he has a new necktie. The new silks are really wonderful and prices are only 75c to $1.50

Some satisfaction you'll agree to have plenty of handkerchiefs this weather. As a gift they are highly appreciated and you will find a fine assortment in silk linen and cotton at...10c, 25c and up.

Men do not like to wear socks that are darned. Some satisfaction in having a few extra pair to fall back on. See our stock of the famous interwoven in lisle, worsted and silk

We have been able to mention only a few of the many appropriate gifts for men and suggest that you call in at once and let us show you thru "Gift Headquarters" while everything is fresh and stocks are unbroken.

MEN HONESTLY ENJOY NEW CLOTHES. IT OFTEN HAPPENS THAT CLOTHES OF PRETTIEST PATTERNS ARE NOT SO SURE TO WEAR. HOWEVER THIS IS PROVIDED FOR WHEN THEY BUY CLOTH CRAFT CLOTHES, BECAUSE EVERY SUIT IS ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEED TO GIVE SATISFACTORY WEAR AND SERVICE. IT IS JUST AN ADDED PROTECTION FOR THE MAN WHO PAYS THE MOST ATTENTION TO FIT STYLE AND LOOKS.

$20 to $35

Alexander-Freidenrich Co.

Karl Kellar was an arrival Sunday night from Georgia, to which state he had been sent by the government after he had completed his course at the Idaho Technical college at Pocatello. He went out to the ranch home at Winona Tuesday morning.

Beautiful Pyralin ivory toilet goods, the most complete line in the city at Glanville's.

With very few exceptions all the flu patients that were considered seriously ill a short time ago are rapidly breaking out of confinement. Chas. Kunze is doing very nicely as are a number of others. There are only two patients in the local hospital.

At the Smoke House you will find on sale Columbia grafanolas and all the latest records.

R. F. Fulton, manager, and George Manning, clerk, of the Inland Abstract and Investment Co., are again able to attend to the duties at the office. Owing to the absolute accuracy demanded of the abstract company, the office was closed during their confinement.

Have recently installed a chopper and can now furnish chopped feed. Denver Roller Mills. Will deliver.

M. Stubblefield, real estate dealer of Clarkston, Wash., spent a few days in the city this week looking after business interests and visiting with his brother, Fancho, and family who moved here early in the fall. He returned to his home on this morning's train.

See McGhie Trading Co's add on another page. Prime beef at 14 cents a pound until further notice. 2-1f

T. A. Bayless reports that the dam is coming on in good shape. It will soon be in shape to run one wheel.

Dr. Scallon's friends will regret to learn that he is suffering greatly from the abcess in his ear, again being confined to his bed.

Beautiful Pyralin ivory toilet goods, the most complete line in the city at Glanville's.

Frank Gillett is about again after a serious time with the flu. Frank looks some the worse for wear, but says he feels good, only his legs become a little unruly when ascending or descending stairs, almost refusing to use the brake on the down grade.

Have recently installed a chopper and can now furnish chopped feed. Denver Roller Mills. Will deliver.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cone have broken away from the clutches of the flu and Charlie has been seen on the streets for a day or two. Rural Carrier Earl Wheatstone was discharged from the hospital this week and will soon resume his labors, and Clyde Price is also able to be around again.

Have recently installed a chopper and can now furnish chopped feed. Denver Roller Mills. Will deliver.

Geo. Yahraus came in last Saturday night from his homestead over in the Joseph country. He went down the Snake river on the boat and then to Grangeville via the high line. Geo. is well pleased with his homestead and stated conditions looked good with him for the future.

S. W. Hunter came in on last evening's Salmon river stage from the home of Ralph Russell who lives up the river above White Bird, where he has been for the past week installing a gas lighting system. He did not finish the work entirely on account of the family being afflicted with the influenza.

A number of S. A. T. C. boys returned from Moscow where they had been receiving training, on Tuesday evening's train. Among them were James A. Bowman, E. T. Pottibone, John Kendrick and John Brown. The boys were all discharged. Several of the others have also returned home but we were unable to secure their names.

"If it isn't an Eastman, it isn't a Kodak." The only place to buy a genuine Kodak is at Glanville's.

Mrs. Joe Sorrow returned early this week from Portland where she was called by the illness of her son William. After seeing to the fact that he had every care she returned to find her son Joe and little daughter had been taken with the disease last Sunday. They are all getting along well at this time.

The Maryland Casualty Company will insure your employees under the Idaho Compensation Act. See Herv Rothwell. 2-1f

A. R. Harlan returned from Portland late last week where he has been for six weeks attending his two sons, Ray and Paul, who were stricken with the pneumonia, following influenza. The boys have recovered but are very weak, being able at the time of Mr. Harlan's return, barely able to walk out a short distance with the aid of a cane.

Have recently installed a chopper and can now furnish chopped feed. Denver Roller Mills. Will deliver.

"If it isn't an Eastman, it isn't a Kodak." The only place to buy a genuine Kodak is at Glanville's.

For Sale—Brand new No. 5 Underwood Typewriter for $90 or will trade for guaranteed milk cow. Address: Box 836, Grangeville, Idaho. 2-1f

County Attorney-elect, B. Auger, arranged his personal affairs about the city late last week and immediately engaged a private room at the local hospital, for the purpose of combating an attack of the influenza that he felt was rapidly approaching. While Mr. Auger is quite ill his condition is not considered alarming. By taking the case in time Mr. Auger feels that his confinement will be of short duration.

LOST—Between Batty's ferry and Grangeville, a pair of saddle bags containing a pair of shoes and a silk skirt. Finder please return to this office and receive suitable reward. 4-1f

B. F. Harmon came in from Camp Shelby, Miss., Tuesday evening, having been permanently discharged from the service. Mr. Harmon was disqualified in his physical examination here and in October was sent to Camp Shelby for limited service. He states that the training received made a man of him and that when he was examined for his discharge he was given a perfect health bill.

Mrs. Batty received the alarming news Monday evening that Mr. Batty, who has been in the hospital at The Dalles, Oregon, was in a very critical condition, and that it was thought advisable for her to come to him at once. She left on Tuesday's train, but on arriving at Lewiston, she found a telegram containing the encouraging news that Mr. Batty was much improved. She however continued on her journey, and will remain indefinitely with Mr. Batty.

Lost—11 head black sheeps,—weight about 70 lbs crop off each ear. Reward offered for information leading to recovery. Phone farmers 129. Will Huff, Grangeville. 2-1f

James Chamberlain of Spring Camp was in the city last Saturday morning for the purpose of consummating a deal for his 320 acres of land in that section which was recently secured by D. F. Van Pool of the same place.

Sol Clarke and Fred Carpenter went down to Orofino early last week to look after some property of the former. They went down via the Ford bus and after transacting their business started on the return journey. On the hill they burned out a box and were compelled to walk several miles to call Mrs. Clark on the telephone to come and tow them in. On receipt of the information Mrs. Clark left in their large Reo, going by way of Ho. The Ford was towed back to Nez Perce for repairs and the family came on home the same evening.

Fred Hinckleman, who recently sold his farming interests in the Winona country paid a visit to the Globe Wednesday. Mr. Hinckleman intends to put in some time in and around Idaho county visiting his numerous friends, later going on to Oakesdale, Wash. to attend to business in connection with a farm purchased there a short time ago. He intends to locate at Vancouver, Wash. along about next March, having purchased a tract of land with an extensive prune orchard. He has shipped his big truck to Vancouver, and intends to do hauling also. He will have the Globe sent to him in his new location, having renewed his subscription for the coming year.

For Fire, Burglary, Livestock, Steam Boiler, Life, Health and Accident Insurance, see Herv Rothwell. 2-1f

Fred Lyda, of the Central Garage, was on the street today, his first appearance since being attacked by the flu. He is feeling pretty good and will soon have forgotten all about the event.

Jacob H. Berlinghoff returned from Camp Fremont, Calif., last Thursday night, being permanently discharged. After a couple of days here he went on down to his home in the Salmon river country. While he had nothing against army life Mr. Berlinghoff was glad to reach home.

TIE TIMBER FOR SALE.
The government is offering good prices for railroad ties. Have plenty of such timber on 200 acres adjoining John D. Long's place. Desire to sell stampage.
MRS. J. R. ADKISON

YOUR INTEREST AND OURS ALIKE

ARE SERVED BY OUR MEMBERSHIP IN THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM. IT INSURES OUR BEING ABLE TO MEET ALL PROPER DEMANDS OF OUR DEPOSITORS AND BORROWERS.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF GRANGEVILLE
Member Federal Reserve System.

It's Time For Xmas Shopping

When you do your Christmas shopping early you have the advantage of a complete, fresh stock, and you avoid the rush. It is much more pleasant and satisfactory to shop when you can take ample time to make your choice and this is impossible if you wait. Obey that impulse to come to our store EARLY, and do your Xmas buying. We will make it a pleasure for you

NEW EDISON KODAKS VICTROLAS

Chastain's Inc.

THE REXALL STORE, LEWISTON, IDAHO

IT'S TIME TO ARRANGE FOR THE COMING OF SANTA

The arrangement of beautiful gifts displayed leads us to believe that "Santa" is going to make his usual visit this year; and when these signs appear we are positive that "Santa" will visit each and everyone—more so on account that the whole world is not fighting, but that peace is very near. Think of the whole circle of loved ones and good friends. And whatever else you may postpone—do not forget the loved ones and your good friends.

We have a most complete assortment of presents that everybody appreciates. Pleasing and beautiful, at the same time practical and useful. Every department is filled with fresh goods at fair prices. Come where there is a wide choice, a fine variety and a grand opportunity to get the best and most suitable gifts for young and old. Remember, our up-to-date Stock is in close touch with the times and anticipates your every want.

We have the largest assortment of WATCHES CLOCKS, JEWELRY and NOVELTIES in the county. Look through our beautiful stock and you will be pleased.

Thomas Thompson

JEWELER

OPPOSITE BANK OF CAMAS PRARIE GRANGEVILLE