Held Annual Party

The Twentieth Century Reading circle held their annual party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Young, Friday evening of last week.

A three-course dinner was served at 6:30, covers being laid for forty-five. The Circle flower,—carnation—in red and white, made an attractive center for each table, and the Circle colors—lavender and white—were shown in the place cards. While dinner was being served, Miss Ferne Carrick entertained the guests with piano selections. Misses Egbers, Layton, Krueger and McCoid assisted in serving.

At 9 o'clock a program of songs and readings was given, Mrs. L. A. Kruger, president of the Circle, announcing each number on the program. Those taking part were Misses May Berry, Ruth Egbers, Ferne Carrick, Edna Layton, Shirley Krueger, Dorothy McCoid, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Taylor and Mrs. Kruger. Mrs. D. D. Drennan favored the guests with a history of the Circle since its organization in 1906.
