

Books! Books!

All books of fiction now on display in our show window will be sold at while they last. Regular $1.00 values for 50 cents. Better make your choice at once.

Half Price

Hawks' Drug Store

"ALWAYS RELIABLE"
REXALL STORE

If you like the Herald, tell your friend who does not read it.

FOR SALE—Firstclass piano, standard make, in finest condition, only $175. Inquire of I. Causton, city.

Marnot—The best floor varnish made. Bliss Paint and Paper Store.

For Sale—Firstclass L. C. Smith typewriter, almost new. $45. Inquire at Herald office.

Special For Saturday

Chocolate and White Cake Jelly Rolls, 20c per cut.

We will have the following Pies at 25c each: Huckleberry, Apple and Mince Meat.

Fresh Butter Horns, Breakfast Buns, Custard Rolls, Tea Biscuits, Crescents, Coffee Cakes—Made fresh every day.

Our Breads

are Rye, Graham, Nut, Raisin and Prune Loaf.
Three Loaves for 25c, any day of the week.

Cakes and Cookies

made fresh every day; also delicious Chocolate and Sugar Doughnuts.

Bonner Bakery

The Stove Season Is Now Starting

Buy your Heating Stove now while our stock is complete. We have a heater for every requirement.

The Old Reliable Air Tight Heaters priced from

$5.00 to $7.00

The Famous Cole's Hot Blast Heaters at prices you can afford to pay.

Come in and get yours

Now

D. C. FARNSWORTH
QUALITY HARDWARE
PHONE 7

Local Pick-ups

FOR RENT—A small house, cheap. See J. W. Reid, advtf.

L. C. Smith and wife, of Leonia, were visitors in the city Tuesday.

For Wood-sawing:—Leave orders at Cash's Secondhand Store. Bill Meader, Nov 10 2t.

AUTO LIVERY SERVICE—Quick and reliable; careful driving. Tom Buck, Phone 69-W, advtf.

The Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen have arranged to give a dance at the K. P. hall on Thanksgiving evening.

Don't blame anybody but yourself if your nights are made miserable by indigestion. Your failure to take Tanlac, C. D. Simonds, adv

A marriage license was issued at the courthouse Tuesday to Lucien J. Daufau, of Forthill and Miss Elsie Goldbeck, of Bonners Ferry.

Miss Bertha Gentzler, Western Union Telegraph Co. operator at KallsPELL, Mont., is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fay Berger.

Bud Winegar, who has been employed for some time at the Beardsmore and other logging camps in this district, left Friday for Jackson, Wyo.

WANTED, TO BUY—A good fresh milk cow; must be gentle and broke. State price and particulars. Address P. O. Box No. 573, Bonners Ferry, Itc

Rev. Father Kelly will hear confession Saturday afternoon and evening at the Catholic church. Mass will be celebrated at 8 o'clock Sunday morning.

Douglas Palmer, local representative of the Weyerhaeuser Sales Co., returned today from a several weeks business trip to Montana and North Dakota points.

Rev. Jacob A. Hiatt will hold services Sunday, November 13, at 1:30 p. m., at the St. Mary's Guild hall. The general public is invited to attend this service.

The demand for Tanlac has broken all world's records. Over twenty million bottles have been sold since it was placed on the market six years ago. C. D. Simonds, adv

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Graham left last Thursday evening for Portland, Vancouver and other coast towns, planning to spend a few weeks visiting with friends and relatives.

The contract for the re-shingling of the county courthouse was let recently to Jack O'Keefe, by the county commissioners, for $3.00 per thousand. Mr. O'Keefe started work on the contract on Tuesday.

Mrs. H. O. Rouse, a resident of the Northside, has been seriously ill with appendicitis for several days and was compelled to undergo an operation yesterday afternoon at the Bonners Ferry hospital.

H. V. Van Gundy, one of the proprietors of the New Variety Store, has sold out his store at Oakesdale, Wash., and has opened a ladies' furnishings store in Spokane at the corner of First and Howard streets.

W. C. Butler left last Friday for Spokane to attend the meetings of the district board of the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen, he being a member of the board representing the L. L. L. employees of this district.

E. E. Saunders, of Hawks Drug Store, is enjoying a vacation this week and plans to visit with relatives at Naples and at Rockford, Wash. Warren Bonnington is assisting Mr. Hawks in the absence of Mr. Saunders.

The "K. M." club was pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gerald Brooks. The afternoon was spent sewing and a delicious lunch was served. The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Effie Dunn.

The box of soap offered by Causton Bros. store to the person making the nearest correct guess of the number of bars of soap in the pile displayed in the store window, was won by Mrs. Eva Leslie, whose guess was 306 bars. There were 340 bars of soap in the pile.

James W. Knight is recovering as fast as could be expected from a serious accident of a couple of weeks ago, when he was struck by a log, at a siding near Naples and suffered the fracture of both pelvis bones. He is being cared for at the Bonners Ferry hospital.

A deal was concluded this week whereby Tom McGinnis, a newcomer from Canada, purchased 160 acres of the Zornes estate, adjoining the Fred R. Davis ranch at McArthur. Mr. McGinnis will take immediate possession and plans to do considerable clearing and improvement work.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Cowart, residents of the Meadow Creek district, were business visitors in the city Saturday. Mr. Cowart is an officer of the Meadow Creek Lumber Co. He states that his company is now getting out white pine logs but that the mill is not running owing to poor lumber market conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Causton left yesterday for Spokane, Colville and Pasco, Wash., where they plan to spend a couple of weeks on a combined business and pleasure trip. Mr. Causton joined his wife at Sandpoint, having been called to that city yesterday morning to conduct public auction sale for the Sandpoint Chamber of Commerce.

Howard Kent, who is attending the government vocational training school in Spokane, spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kent. He was accompanied on the week-end visit by one of his instructors, Prof. Glick, and two friends, James Jump and Lawrence Nuer, who are also taking vocational training courses.

AUCTIONEER—I am prepared to give you the benefit of over 20 years experience as an auctioneer. Arrangements for sales may be made at either the First State Bank, the First National Bank, or the Herald office. Terms upon application. Also am licensed real estate broker. Address P. O. Box No. 33. I. Causton, Bonners Ferry, Idaho. advtf

$1.00 Day

November 12

Boundary Dry Goods Co.

Another $1.00 Day Saturday

We will feature $1.00 day about once a month. It will pay you to investigate and take advantage of the Special Bargains offered at our Special $1.00 Day Sale. We mention some of the items as follows. (Other special price values in all departments.)

PIECE GOODS

Our 36-inch Silk Poptins, a good quality in all shades, dark and light. A splendid material for evening gowns $1.00 yard

30-inch Kimona Crepe, handsome patterns, medium heavy quality, good values at 45c; Saturday 3 yards $1.00

Fine bleached white Canton Flannel; can be made up into fine underwear 6 yards $1.00

Towels—Bleached Huck and Bath Towels, sizes 36x18 4 for $1.00

Pillows—Feather Pillows, 17x24 $1.00 each

Knitting Yarn, in Black and White only; 2 hanks, ¼-pound each, $1.00

EXTRA SPECIAL

Women's Black Kid and Silk Gloves, not all sizes; choice $1.00 pair

Ask to see our Women's Coats.

Men's Heavy Cotton two-piece Underwear... $1.00 garment

A special good assortment of Silk Ties will be gathered together; values up to $2.00 $1.00 each

Two pairs of 75c Suspenders for $1.00 These are Christmas suggestions.

Men's warm lined Leather Mitts; soft and tough; see these at $1.00

A lot of Men's and Boys' Caps in odds and ends. You will find in this lot $2.00 and $3.00 caps at $1.00

A few Boys' Knee Pants, while they last. $1.00

EXTRA SPECIAL

Three pairs Men's Heavy White All Wool Sox (limited amount) for $1.00

Look at our Men's Overcoats.

Boundary Dry Goods Co.

Phone 34

Take Tanlac and eat three square meals a day. C. D. Simonds, adv

LOST—Mitchell auto hub cap. Return to L. N. Brown's department store.

Fred R. Davis, a wellknown rancher of the McArthur district, was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.

FOR SALE—1920 Ford runabout in good condition. Inquire of Fred Jacobs, care White's Camp No. 3. adv

FREE COFFEE—Read all the particulars of our free coffee offer in our half page ad in this issue of the Herald. White & White.

The Altar society of St. Ann's Catholic church will meet in the church parlors on Thursday afternoon, November 17. Mrs. J. J. Neville will entertain.

Martin Estlund, the contractor, plans to leave Saturday for St. Maries where he will submit a bid on the construction of a proposed new American Legion hall.

Miss Eulalia Ferrill, of Marcus, Wn., is the new teacher of the fifth and sixth grades of the Northside school, succeeding Mrs. Margaret Dehlbom, resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Sterling, of Columbus, Wash., arrived here Monday to visit at the home of Mrs. Steellings son, F. A. Amos and with her brother, M. P. DeWolf.

It will pay you to carefully read the many bargains offered by the Boundary Dry Goods Co. for the special Saturday Dollar Day Sale. See advertisement in this paper. adv

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Peterson left Wednesday for Port Angeles, Wash., where they will join their son, A. Peterson, and spend the winter. Mr. Peterson owns a large tract of land near Port Angeles which he is holding as an investment.

The members of the G. G. G. club were entertained last night at the home of Mrs. D. C. McDonald. The prize for the high score at the auction bridge games was won by Miss Agnes Callahan. A delicious lunch was served after the games.

Tom Montgomery, Bob Ames, Lee Gudbaur, Charles Kesty and Charles Noe, wellknown stockmen of the Port-hill and Copeland districts, were in town Tuesday, having brought in a large herd of beef cattle which were sold to the City Meat Market.

On Tuesday of this week, Miss Carleton, the county nurse, with Mrs. Flood, visited the Washington school near the Bonner Tie camp and examined the ten children enrolled there. On Thursday and Friday she will examine the children of the Copeland school.

The board of directors of the Boundary County Fair Association held a meeting Monday night to go over their accounts and make a final settlement of the fair business for the year. Secretary Brown plans to have a financial report ready for publication in the near future.

Annual Bazaar Friday, November 11

The ladies of the Lutheran church will hold their annual bazaar and supper at the Christian church on Friday, November 11. The sale of plain and fancy sewing will begin at 2:30 p. m., and supper will be served from five until eight o'clock at 50 cents per plate. All kinds of good things to eat, including chicken. The public is invited to attend.

For Trade or Exchange Will trade my property in Pullman, in on a ranch near Bonners Ferry. I prefer improved land; must be good land; no poor propositions wanted. Will trade for acreage close to Bonners Ferry. Address John H. Hall, 222 Harrison St., Pullman, Wash. 2t

Order your butter-wrappers at the Herald office.

Lost—Brown leather ladies' purse. Finder kindly return to owner at the city water and light office. adv

Val Spar, the best waterproof varnish made, for sale by the Bliss Paint & Paper Store. advtf

Before you buy a phonograph hear the Actualle, greater than the phonograph. Stookey Furniture Co. adv

Compare the Edison phonograph with any other talking machine and you will always be a booster for the "Edison." Sold on the easy payment plan. O. F. Howe.

The Way To Buy Watch Satisfaction

YOU may like a man very much, yet not like his brother. You may like one Waltham or Elgin, yet another one of those same makes of watches would not suit you at all.

There's just one way to buy watch satisfaction. That is to have the expert watchmaker, who knows the construction and the "whys" for it, of watches, help you select the one best suited to you.

You get that expert help here. That's why watches we sell are always so completely satisfactory. Then, too, our prices are big values. You can't buy as good watches cheaper anywhere.

Waltham, Elgin, Swiss,
from $12.00 to $75.00

O. F. HOWE, Jeweler

Registered Optometrist
Edison Phonographs and Records

Does It Pay? To Light the Town?

It cost the Village $70.42 to replace street lights broken and burned out during the five months ending November 1st.

Many of these lamps were broken by boys.

Ten dollars reward will be paid for information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone destroying street lamps.

Light and Water Dept.