FOREIGN TRADE BREAKING ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS, PRICES SOARING.

If you do not believe the country is rising upon the high wave of prosperity, just look around you at the prosperity that is creeping everywhere. This is not merely a matter of the factory district. The country is actually enjoying a golden period of its history. The prices of all commodities are soaring. The increase in the value of property is startling. The earnings of workers and farmers are increasing. The general standard of living is rising. This is a time of prosperity beyond compare. The country is on the upswing.
