Mrs. Earl Williams was a passenger on Wednesday's train for Salmon, returning Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lipe and Robert Tweedy spent Sunday fishing up the creek, taking along a lunch.

Mr. Rosendahl returned on Monday's train from Lava Hot Springs much improved in health.

Dr. Kellar expects to leave Saturday for Butte to accompany Mrs. Kellar and the new daughter home.

William Bowen is over from Armstead, where he has been working for the G. and P., and is with his mother, Mrs. J. R. McGivney.

Mr. Whittman of Pocatello, who spent part of last summer in Leadore in the interest of the Kimmel company, was a passenger on Monday's train and will spend some time in town looking after the property.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lipe, who have been in the Leadore garage for several years, have moved to the sawmill at Nez Perce, where Harvey will be engineer for the mill. C. R. Shuey has taken his interest in the garage.

Rev. Mr. Schulze is expected to arrive on Friday's train from Pocatello and will hold services in the school auditorium Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and again at 8. Music will be rendered by the choir with Miss Ecker at the piano. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. Charles Denney entertained the Woman's club at her cozy new bungalow Thursday afternoon. In the card game prizes were awarded to Mrs. H. J. Saline and Mrs. Herman Decker. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Decker. Mrs. Morris Cotton, Mrs. A. R. Mulkey and Mrs. Bud Robbins were invited to join the club.

The junior entertained the senior Friday night with a minstrel in which the entire high school took part. Forest Stewart as interlocutor and Robt. Tweedy and Lawrence McGivney as end men did credit to themselves. The jokes consisted of a number of local hits and the music of choruses, duets and solos, which were enjoyed by the audience. The minstrel was directed by Miss Reddington and Miss Ecker.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Cotton entertained the graduating class of the high school and a few friends at dinner Thursday evening, the young people going to the ranch in the Cotton car. Mrs. Cotton was assisted by the high school teachers, Miss Ecker and Miss Reddington. Covers were laid for the following guests: Miss Mamie Reddington, Miss Florence Stewart, Miss Leda Peterson, Miss Lillie Benedict, Ben Fayle, Forest Stewart, William Dalby and Philip Cotton. The house was beautifully decorated in the class colors of red and white.

Friday, April 22, 1921.

Miss Margie Ecker entertained the members of the high school graduation class and their escorts at a dinner party Saturday evening at the home of W. F. Stone.
