Victor Peterson is again able to attend to his duties at the Farmers warehouse after a week's illness which is said to have been the influenza.

J. P. Coyne, local pool hall owner was fined $10 and costs in probate court of Judge Campbell Tuesday after he was convicted of selling tobacco to minors.

W. S. Chiene, an expert accountant, has arrived in the city and will be employed by J. A. Hoskins & Co., contractors for the Grangeville-Whitebird road. Mr. Chiene will shortly open offices here.

Billie Brockman, who has been in the city for the past several days attending to business matters, returned to his home near Creston, Wash. on Monday morning's train. Mr. Brockman has a cattle ranch just across the Columbia river from Creston and stated he and family were well pleased with their new location.

Paving of Main street in Grangeville was discussed at a meeting Wednesday at which time a civil engineer was here to discuss the matter. Whether definite steps will be taken in the matter of paving the street was not made clear. It is not probable that the present city council, which leaves office in May will act on the matter.

Fred Rothlisberg arrived Monday evening from Lewiston and other outside points where he has been for a couple of months past, to be present and assist at the sale which his brother Ode has advertised. Following the sale the Rothlisberg brothers will depart for points in Canada and Montana to seek a location with stock raising as their object.

Wallace Scott, president of the First National bank, on Monday treated the pupils of the Grangeville public schools to a show at the Lyric theatre. "America's Answer," a patriotic picture was shown. In the afternoon pupils of the grades were guests of Mr. Scott and in the evening the high school pupils witnessed the show, Mr. Scott paying all the admissions.

FARMERS LIST YOUR REPAIR NEEDS

It would be hard to find a farmer who at some time or another hadnot lost valuable time waiting for necessary repair parts. Take this territory and total up the time lost in this way and it will astonish you. And all because repairs are not ordered as early as they should be.

There is no better time than right now, just before the busiest season on the farm, to go over your machines carefully, make up a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to us before or during Repair and Inspection Week, March 3-8. With this list in our hands we can order our stock so as to be prepared to meet every call promptly.

Repair Part Service

Is a necessary part of our business. We realize what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list now and sending it in to us.
